Jesus, the Apostles and the Early Church Pope Benedict XVI, 2011-02-25 Based on Pope Benedict XVI's weekly teaching on the relationship between Christ and the Church this book tells the drama of Jesus first disciples his Apostles and their associates and how they spread Jesus message throughout the ancient world Far from distorting the truth about Jesus of Nazareth insists Pope Benedict the early disciples remained faithful to it even at the cost of their lives Beginning with the Twelve as the foundation of Jesus re establishment of the Holy People of God Pope Benedict examines the story of the early followers of Christ He draws on Scripture and early tradition to consider such important figures as Peter Andrew James and John and even Judas Iscariot

Benedict moves beyond the original Twelve to discuss Paul of Tarsus the persecutor of Christianity who became one of Jesus' greatest disciples. Also considered are Stephen the first Christian martyr, Barnabas, Timothy, Titus, the wife and husband team of Priscilla and Aquila, and such key women figures as Mary the Mother of Jesus, Mary Magdalene, and Phoebe. Jesus the Apostles and the Early Church is a fascinating journey back to the origins of Christianity. It reveals how Jesus' earliest disciples faithfully conveyed the truth about the Jesus of history and how they laid the foundations for the Church through whom people today can know the same Jesus.

Jesus and Non-Christian Religions Kieran Okoro, 2012-05-29 Some people say that outside the church there is no salvation. This however is not the position of the official Catholic Church which teaches that Jesus died to save everyone. Jesus and Non Christian Religions deals with this topic in detail and endeavors to show how to help all to be saved. It is a good book for anyone who desires the salvation of those outside the church. It provides important information for all especially students of Christology, evangelization and apologetics and those interested in inter religious dialogue.

Integral Human Development Séverine Deneulin, Clemens Sedmak, 2023-08-15 This volume brings into conversation two major moral traditions in the social sciences and humanities that offer common areas for understanding, interpreting and transforming the world. Over the last decade, moral theologians who work on issues of poverty, social justice, human rights and political institutions have been finding inspiration in the capability approach (CA). Conversely, social scientists who have been working on issues of poverty and social justice from a CA perspective have been finding elements in the Catholic social tradition (CST) to overcome some of the limitations of the CA such as its vagueness regarding what counts as a valuable human life and its strong individual focus. Integral Human Development brings together for the first time social scientists and theologians in dialogue over their respective uses of CST and CA. The contributors discuss what their mutual grounds are, where they diverge and where common areas of collaboration and transformative action can be found. The contributors offer a critical analysis of CA from the perspective of theology. They also provide an original account of CST. The book offers a broader historical, biblical, social, economic, political and ecological understanding of CST than that which is currently available in the CST literature. The book will interest students and practitioners in global affairs, development studies or the social sciences.
