Reality Show Howard Kurtz, 2007-10-09 Dan Rather Tom Brokaw Peter Jennings They were on a first name basis with the country for a generation leading viewers through moments of triumph and tragedy But now that a new generation has succeeded them the once glittering job of network anchor seems unmistakably tarnished In an age of instantaneous Internet news cable echo chambers and iPod downloads who really needs the evening news And by extension who needs Katie Couric Brian Williams and Charlie Gibson But the anchors still have a megaphone capable of cutting through the media static Their coverage of Iraq helped turn the country against that bloody war and they are now playing a leading role in chronicling the collapse of George Bush's presidency and the 2008 race to succeed him Yet even as the anchors fight for ratings supremacy the mega corporations they work for have handed them a bigger challenge saving an American institution In this freewheeling intimate account of life atop the media pyramid award winning bestselling author Howard Kurtz takes us inside the newsrooms and executive suites of CBS NBC and ABC capturing the deadline judgments image making jealousies and gossip of this high pressure business Whether it is Couric trying to regain her morning magic while coping with tabloid stories about her boyfriends Williams reporting from New Orleans and Baghdad while worrying about his ailing father or Gibson weighing whether to follow his wife into retirement while grappling with having to report the explicit details of sex scandals Kurtz brings to life the daily battles that define their lives The narrative reflects an extraordinary degree of access to such corporate chieftains as Jeff Zucker and Les Moonves star correspondents and the anchors themselves Their goal create an on screen persona that people will tune in to and trust Yet
