Dada's Subject and Structure Brandon Pelcher, 2023-07-11 Dada s Subject and Structure argues that Dadaist praxis was far more theoretically incisive than previous scholarship has indicated The book combines theoretical frameworks surrounding ideological subject formation with critical media and genre histories in order to more closely read Dadaist techniques e g montage irony nonsense etc across multiple works These readings reveal both Dada s preternatural focus on the discursive aspects of subject formation linguistic sign literary manifesto photographic image commodity form aesthetics which comprise the project s chapters and on Dada s performative sabotage and subversion of them In addition to highlighting commonalities between Dadaist works artists and chapters previously imagined disparate the book shows how Dada simultaneously prefigured structuralist theories of subject formation and pre performed post structuralist critiques of those theories

Dada and Its Later Manifestations in the Geographic Margins Ronit Milano, Raya Zommer-Tal, Noam Gonnen, 2024-06-14 This volume focuses on the unstudied geographic margins of Dada delving into the roots of Dada in Israel Romania Poland and North America Contributors consider some of the practices and experiments that were conceived a century ago surfaced in art throughout the twentieth century and are still relevant today Unearthing its Israeli origins examining Dadaist expressions in Poland and shedding light on overlooked facets of Dadaist art in Romania and North America the authors cast a spotlight on the less explored geographical peripheries of Dada The book is organized around four thematic trajectories space language materiality and reception which are dissected through the lens of micro histories Recognizing the continuing validity of questions raised by Dadaist artists this volume argues that Dada persists as an ongoing endeavor a continual reexamination of the fundamental tenets of art and its ever evolving potential manifestations The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history modernism and history of the twentieth and twenty first centuries

Dada and Existentialism Elizabeth Benjamin, 2016-08-30 Offering new critical approaches to Dada as quintessential part of the Avant Garde Dada and Existentialism the Authenticity of Ambiguity reassesses the movement as a form of proto Existentialist philosophy Dada is often dismissed as an anti art movement with a merely destructive theoretical impetus French Existentialism is often condemned for its perceived quietist implications However closer analysis reveals a preoccupation with philosophy in the former and with art in the latter Moreover neither was nonsensical or meaningless both reveal a rich individualist ethics aimed at the amelioration of the individual and society The first major comparative study of Dada and Existentialism this text contributes new perspectives on Dada as movement historical legacy and field of study Analysing Dada works through Existentialist literature across the themes of choice alienation responsibility freedom and truth the text posits that Dada and Existentialism both advocate the creation of a self that aims for authenticity through ambiguity

DADA, Surrealism, and the Cinematic Effect R. Bruce Elder, 2015-10-15 This book deals with the early intellectual reception of the cinema and the manner in which art theorists philosophers cultural theorists and especially artists of the first decades of the twentieth century responded to its advent While the idea persists that early writers on film were troubled by the cinema's lowly form this work proposes that there was another largely unrecognized strain in the reception of it Far from anxious about film's provenance in popular entertainment some writers and artists proclaimed that the cinema was the most important art for the moderns as it exemplified the vibrancy of contemporary life This view of the cinema was especially common among those whose commitments were to advanced artistic practices Their notions about how to recast the art media or the forms forged from those media's materials and the urgency of doing so formed the principal part of the conceptual core of the artistic programs advanced by the vanguard art movements of the first half of the twentieth century This book a companion to the author's previous Harmony Dissent examines the Dada and Surrealist movements as responses to the advent of the cinema
