The Literary History of Saskatchewan David Carpenter, Kelly-Anne Riess, 2018-10-01 Volume 3 shifts its focus to Regina's literary culture and to the coming generation of younger writers but it continues to examine the best work from Saskatchewan The impact the relevance the illuminations of our best writers work tend to move well beyond the borders of our province This work transcends the regional sources of its inspiration Just as Marilynne Robinson has much to say to Canadians about the disruptions and the graces of family life Dianne Warren has much to say to Americans about the omnipresence of the past the shadows it casts on people's lives in the present Many of our best books are nurtured by the history and the life of this province but they spring into literature roughly in proportion to their applications and their immemorial responses to the human condition

Double-Voicing the Canadian Short Story Laurie Kruk, 2016-05-27 Double Voicing the Canadian Short Story is the first comparative study of eight internationally and nationally acclaimed writers of short fiction Sandra Birdsell Timothy Findley Jack Hodgins Thomas King Alistair MacLeod Olive Senior Carol Shields and Guy Vanderhaeghe With the 2013 Nobel Prize for Literature going to Alice Munro the master of the contemporary short story this art form is receiving the recognition that has been its due and as this book demonstrates Canadian writers have long excelled in it From theme to choice of narrative perspective from emphasis on irony satire and parody to uncovering the multiple layers that make up contemporary Canadian English the short story provides a powerful vehicle for a distinctively Canadian double voicing The stories discussed here are compelling reflections on our most intimate roles and relationships and Kruk offers a thoughtful juxtaposition of themes of gender mothers and sons family storytelling otherness in Canada and the politics of identity to name but a few As a multi author study Double Voicing the Canadian Short Story is broad in scope and its readings are valuable to Canadian literature as a whole making the book of interest to students of Canadian literature or the short story and to readers of both

The Canadian Short Story John Metcalf, 2018-09-25 No other person has done more to celebrate and encourage the short story in

Canada than John Metcalf For more than five decades he has worked tirelessly as editor anthologist writer critic and teacher to help shape our understanding of the form and what it can do The long time editor of the yearly Best Canadian Stories anthology as well as a fiction editor at some of the pre eminent literary presses in the country for more than forty years he has worked to support and champion several generations of our best writers Literature in Canada would be far less without his efforts Sifting through a lifetime of reading writing and thinking about the short story in this country and where it fits within the larger currents of world literature Metcalf s magisterial The Canadian Short Story offers the most authoritative book on the subject to date Most importantly it includes an expanded and reconsidered Century List Metcalf s critical guide to the best Canadian short story collections of the last 100 years But more than a critical book The Canadian Short Story is a love letter to the form a passionate defense of the best of our literature and a championing of those books and writers most often over looked It is a guide not only to what to read but also one its author s most fervent desire which aims to make better readers of us all

National Literature in Multinational States Albert Braz,Paul D. Morris,2023-04-13 If literature has often informed the creation of a national imaginary a sense of common history and destiny it has also complicated even challenged the unifying vision assumed in the formation of a national literature and sense of nation National Literature in Multinational States questions the persistent association of literature and nation states contrasting this with the reality of multinational and ethnocultural diversity The contributors to this collection interrogate concepts and manifestations of nationalism in the context of literary production while evaluating the place of national literatures in multinational states at a time when social unity and political agreement have never been more elusive The volume strives for synoptic analysis via the complementary multifaceted treatment of literary creation in several geo cultural contexts Canada the Caribbean Europe India and Nigeria Contributors Sabujkoli Bandopadhyay Albert Braz Matthew Cormier Doris Hambuch Clara A B Joseph Paul D Morris Asma Sayed Matthew T treault Uchechukwu Peter Umezurike Jerry White
