Full Version Stone Of Tears:

Horizon John Neylon, Greg Johns, 2002 HORIZON GREG JOHNS SCULPTURES 1970 2002 traces the ideas and career of the Adelaide based artist from his first commission in the late 1970s through to participation in recent exhibitions in New York and Bahrain The story is told by noted Adelaide writer and art critic John Neylon of the Art Gallery of South Australia His text examines all aspects of the artist s development as a creator of large scale public sculptures and explains the philosophy that has shaped the work The reader is led through a rich array of ideas and images relating to the use of sculptural form as a language in which the works serve as metaphors for the human psyche and the natural cosmic systems that define our world A number of key sculptures are examined in detail as are issues surrounding public art and its reception within the community The processes of commissioning creating and installing the sculptures are described along with intimate glimpses into the creation of each work as it proceeds from the artist s studio to the engineering works where it is fabricated and then on to its intended site

Methodist Devotion Gordon S. Wakefield, 2018-06-26 This term Christian Spirituality has become very fashionable but requires definition It derives from one of the classifications habitual to the Church of Rome and formulated by M l Abb Pourrat in his La Spiritualit Chr tienne He distinguishes between Dogmatic Moral and Spiritual Theology and the greatest of these is Spiritual Theology which is based upon the others but is above them in so far as it is a branch of the science which deals not with abstract statements of faith and objective laws of conduct but with the life in Christ itself the reality of that union with Him which all traditions in some form would assert as the meaning of our salvation From the Preface

Men and Women in Qing China Edwards, 2021-09-13 Men and Women in Qing China is an analysis of Chinese prescriptions of gender as represented in Cao Xueqin s famous eighteenth century Chinese novel of manners The Red Chamber Dream or The Story of the Stone Drawing on feminist literary critical methods it examines Qing notions of masculinity and femininity including themes such as bisexuality motherhood virginity and purity and gender and power Its central aim is to challenge the common assumption that the novel represents some form of early Chinese feminism by examining the text in conjunction with historical data The book will be especially important to those interested in issues of gender in China the history of Chinese literary criticism and the application of feminist theory to the Asian text
