Storytelling - Konflikte lösen mit Herz und Verstand Dr. Hanna Milling, 2020-04-01 Geschichten berühren Geschichten provozieren Geschichten bewegen Geschichten sind in Sprache gegossene Bilder Sie erreichen Herz und Verstand und vermögen es so auf ganz besondere Weise tiefe Erkenntnisse und wirkliche Haltungen und Verhaltensänderungen einzuleiten Mit diesem Buch führt die Autorin in die Kunst des Geschichtenerzählens ein und vermittelt wie Storytelling bei der Lösung von Konflikten helfen kann Dabei liefert sie Hintergrundüber die Wirkkraft von Geschichten und zeigt anschauliche Praxisbeispiele Zu einem unersetzlichen Nachschlagewerk wird das Buch durch die Sammlung von 101 Geschichten und die in der zweiten Auflage neu hinzugekommenen 33 neuen Geschichten Zu jeder Geschichte werden Schlüsselbegriffe genannt die die Einsatzmöglichkeiten der jeweiligen Geschichte benennt Über das Schlüsselwort Register findet sich für jedes Thema eine passende Geschichte

The Wallenstein Figure in German Literature and Historiography 1790-1920 Steffan Davies, 2010 Albrecht von Wallenstein 1583 1634 one of the most famous and controversial personalities of the Thirty Years War gained heightened prominence in the nineteenth century through Schiller's monumental drama Wallenstein 1798-99 This study tests Schiller's impact on historians as well as on later literary texts

Troubling Maternity Emily Jeremiah, 2003 The question of maternity is crucial for feminists to whom it represents both challenge and inspiration as it is for many thinkers engaged with the issues of agency corporeality and ethics This examination puts forward the idea of a maternal performativity drawing on the work of Judith Butler and numerous other feminist theorists to offer new ways of looking at 1970s and 1980s literary texts by ten German speaking women writers including Barbara Frischmuth Elfriede Jelinek Irmltraud Morgner and Karin Struck It argues that as yet maternal agency has not adequately been theorized a project which is urgent given the traditional view in Western culture of the mother as passive and suggests that Butler's notion of performativity can assist in this task It proposes a performative conception of both mothering and literature and links both of these to the question of ethics which is understood as involving embodiment and relationality To different extents all of the texts examined depict mothers as marginal abject or insane thus demonstrating the operations of exclusion and the need for a maternal agency to be developed and enacted The idea of maternal performativity is refined in five chapters which focus respectively on community corporeality the mother child relationship the family and discursive production The conclusion explores the ethics of literary practice and knowledge production and argues that in the light of the developing fields of new reproductive technologies and genetics it is imperative that we seek new understandings of embodiment community and care a task to which this study aspires to contribute
