Hung, 2005-01-01 History tells us that translation plays a part in the development of all cultures Historical cases also show us repeatedly that translated works which had real social and cultural impact often bear little resemblance to the idealized concept of a good translation Since the perception and reception of translated works as well as the translation norms which are established through contest and or consensus reflect the concerns preferences and aspirations of their host cultures they are never static or homogenous even within a given culture This book is dedicated to exploring some of the factors in the interplay of culture and translation with an emphasis on translation activities outside the Anglo European tradition particularly in China and Japan

Argief-Jaarboek vir Suid-Afrikaanse Geskiedenis, 1969 Apartheid's Festival Leslie Witz, 2003-10-06 Apartheid's Festival highlights the conflicts and debates that surrounded the 1952 celebration of the 300th anniversary of the landing of Jan Van Riebeeck and the founding of Cape Town South Africa Taking place at the height of the apartheid era the festival was viewed by many as an opportunity for the government to promote its nationalist separatist agenda in grand fashion Leslie Witz's fine grained examination of newspapers brochures pamphlets and advertising materials reveals the expectations of the festival planners as well as how the festival was engineered historical figures were reconstructed and the ANC and other anti apartheid organizations mounted opposition to it While laying open the darker motives of the apartheid regime Witz shows that the production of local history is part of a global process forged by the struggle between colonialism and resistance Readers interested in South Africa representations of nationalism and the making of public history will find Apartheid's Festival to be an important study of a society in transition

A Luta Continua Lizette Rabe, 2020-10-16 What has media freedom entailed over the couple of centuries and successive governments of the geopolitical region that became South Africa since it was colonised by Westerners And why can media freedom be described as both pillar and cornerstone of a democracy It's simple as in the words of Nelson Mandela first state president of a democratic South Africa Press freedom is the lifeblood of democracy This book tells the tale of the various states of press freedom or unfreedom from colonial times to today from a British governor called a dictator and a despot through apartheid's pigmentocracy or sjambokocracy where the rule of law has been replaced by the rule of the whip up to the dawn of liberation with media freedom entrenched in Article 16 of South Africa's Bill of Rights And why should all of this concern you Because media freedom is not about the freedom of the media It is about your freedom As was formulated by an editor under apartheid If we don't have a public sympathetic to a free press not only will we not have a free press we won't have a democracy either Or in the words of former Sowetan editor and SANEF chair Mpumelelo Mkhabela Media freedom has nothing to do with the media but with the freedom of citizens And that is why you should know that a free media is the only guarantee for your freedom As we have seen both under apartheid and also under a democratic dispensation it is a matter of a luta continua The struggle continues But you the public are the guardian of those that guard democracy Help ensure the rights of a free media and thereby your democratic rights and a democratic South Africa Like Family Ena

Jansen, 2019-04-01 An analytic and historical perspective of literary texts to understand the position of domestic workers in South Africa More than a million black South African women are domestic workers Precariously situated between urban and rural areas rich and poor white and black these women are at once intimately connected and at a distant remove from the families they serve Ena Jansen shows that domestic worker relations in South Africa were shaped by the institution of slavery establishing social hierarchies and patterns of behavior that persist today To support her argument Jansen examines the representation of domestic workers in a diverse range of texts in English and Afrikaans Authors include Andr Brink JM Coetzee Imraan Coovadia Nadine Gordimer Elsa Joubert Antjie Krog Sindiwe Magona Kopano Matlwa Es'kia Mphahlele Sisonke Msimang Zukiswa Wanner and Zo Wicomb Like Family is an updated version of the award-winning Soos familie 2015 and the highly acclaimed 2016 Dutch translation Bijna familie Religions of South Africa (Routledge Revivals) David

Chidester, 2014-06-27 First published in 1992 this title explores the religious diversity of South Africa organizing it into a single coherent narrative and providing the first comparative study and introduction to the topic David Chidester emphasizes the fact that the complex distinctive character of South African religious life has taken shape with a particular economic social and political context and pays special attention to the creativity of people who have suffered under conquest colonialism and apartheid With an overview of African traditional religion Christian missions and African innovations during the nineteenth century this reissue will be of great value to students of religious studies South African history anthropology sociology and political studies Change in Contemporary South Africa Leonard Thompson, Jeffrey Butler, 2023-11-15

Change in Contemporary South Africa examines the intricate and often contradictory realities of South Africa during a period of significant political and social tension The book explores the coexistence of apparent governmental stability marked by economic growth a strong coercive apparatus and sustained White political dominance with increasing signs of resistance including labor strikes student unrest and growing international condemnation By presenting a range of interpretations from authoritarian entrenchment to the potential for revolutionary change it delves into the complex dynamics that shape South Africa's trajectory Structured across sections that analyze internal community dynamics instruments of White domination and the country's external relations the book scrutinizes the processes of change within South Africa's unique socio-political framework With contributions from scholars spanning diverse disciplines and perspectives it raises critical questions about the future of racial inequality the potential for redistribution of power and wealth and the role of internal and external pressures in shaping outcomes This comprehensive yet nuanced analysis offers a valuable lens for understanding a society on the brink of transformation with implications that resonate far beyond its borders This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer-reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print-on-demand technology This title was originally published in 1975

The Thousand Generation Covenant: Dutch Reformed Covenant Theology and Group Identity in Colonial South Africa, 1652-1814 Gerstner, 2021-12-06 This study presents the religious factor in the development of a separatistic group identity among the forebears of the Afrikaners during the Dutch colonial period of South African history Dutch Reformed covenant theology and baptism practice rooted in the thousand generation covenant theory helped to shape this self understanding It traces the basic developments of covenant theology in the Netherlands during the period and demonstrates how these concepts were conveyed to colonial South Africa The dominant strain of covenantal thought treated the entire community as redeemed and called to be separate It was presented through a variety of means through which virtually every colonist was exposed This study offers a balanced historical approach to the role of theological concepts in the colonial roots of Afrikaner group identity It answers traditional scholarship in the field which either directly identify the concepts behind the development of apartheid with Calvinist theology or more recently deny that the Reformed faith had any role in the development of apartheid ideology until the
