food governance Indigenous issues and so on this book will be a useful resource for scholars and students as well as those in government and in international institutions working in relevant areas Encyclopedia of Biodiversity ,2013-02-05 The 7 volume Encyclopedia of Biodiversity Second Edition maintains the reputation of the highly regarded original presenting the most current information available in this globally crucial area of research and study It brings together the dimensions of biodiversity and examines both the services it provides and the measures to protect it Major themes of the work include the evolution of biodiversity systems for classifying and defining biodiversity ecological patterns and theories of biodiversity and an assessment of contemporary patterns and trends in biodiversity The science of biodiversity has become the science of our future It is an interdisciplinary field spanning areas of both physical and life sciences Our awareness of the loss of biodiversity has brought a long overdue appreciation of the magnitude of this loss and a determination to develop the tools to protect our future Second edition includes over 100 new articles and 226 updated articles covering this multidisciplinary field from evolution to habits to economics in 7 volumes The editors of this edition are all well respected instantly recognizable academics operating at the top of their respective fields in biodiversity research readers can be assured that they are reading material that has been meticulously checked and reviewed by experts Approximately 1 800 figures and 350 tables complement the text and more than 3 000 glossary entries explain key terms ICLSSEE 2022 Eko Eddya Supriyanto,Meida Rachmawati,Fibry Jati Nugroho,Wardi Wardi,Robbi Rahim,2022-08-08 This book contains the proceedings of the International Conference on Law Social Science Economics and Education ICLSSEE 2022 on 16 April 2022 in Indonesia This conference was held in collaboration between Nusantara Training and Research NTR with Borobudur University Jakarta 17 Agustus 1945 University UNTAG and the Research and Development Agency of the Ministry of Home Affairs The papers from the conference were collected in a proceedings book entitled Proceedings of The International Conference on Law Social Science Economics and Education ICLSSEE 2022 The presentation of such a conference covering multi disciplines will contribute a lot of inspiring inputs and new knowledge on current trending in Law Social Science Economics and Education Thus this will contribute to the next young generation s researchers to produce innovative research findings Hopefully the scientific attitude and skills through research will promote the development of knowledge generated through research from various scholars in various regions Finally we would like to express our greatest gratitude to all the steering committee colleagues for their cooperation in administering and arranging the conference Hopefully this seminar and conference will be continued in the coming years with many more insightful articles from inspiring research We would also like to thank the invited speakers for their invaluable contribution and for sharing their vision in their talks We hope to meet you again at the next conference of ICLSSEE Eating Traditional Food Brigitte Sebastia,2016-11-18 Due to its centrality in human activities food is a meaningful object that necessarily participates in any cultural social and ideological construction and its qualification as traditional is a politically laden value This book demonstrates that traditionality as attributed to foods goes beyond the notions of heritage and authenticity under which it is commonly formulated Through a series of case studies from a global range of cultural and geographical areas the book explores a variety of contexts to reveal the complexity behind the attribution of the term traditional to food In particular the volume demonstrates that the definitions put forward by programmes such as TRUEFOOD and EuroFIR and subsequently adopted by organisations including FAO which have analysed the perception of traditional foods by individuals do not adequately reflect this complexity The concept of tradition being deeply ingrained culturally socially politically and ideologically traditional foods resist any single definition Chapters analyse the processes of valorisation instrumentalisation and reinvention at stake in the construction and representation of a food as traditional Overall the book offers fresh perspectives on topics including definition and regulation nationalism and identity and health and nutrition and will be of interest to students and researchers of many disciplines including anthropology sociology politics and cultural studies Peacemaking, Power-sharing and International Law Martin Wählisch,2019-09-05 This monograph provides a contemporary analysis of the frictions between peacemaking and international human rights law based on the cases of postconflict power sharing in Lebanon and Bosnia Herzegovina In this context it evaluates the long standing debate in the United Nations and human rights bodies about the imperfect peace Written from a practitioner scholarly viewpoint and drawing from new authentic sources the book describes the mechanisms used in peace agreements and post conflict constitutions for managing ethnic or religious diversity explains their legal limits under international human rights law and provides a conceptual framework for analysing the nexus between law and peacemaking The book argues that the relationship between the content of peace agreements and post conflict constitutions their negotiation process and the element of time needs to be untangled to better understand the legal limits of statebuilding in the aftermath of armed conflict It is a key resource for scholars in human rights law and peace and conflict studies advisers in peace processes constitution makers and peace mediators Biodiversity and Traditional Knowledge Sarah A. Laird,2010-09-23 Biodiversity research and prospecting are long standing activities taking place in a new legal and ethical environment Following entry into force of the Convention on Biological Diversity in 1993 and other recent policy developments expectations and obligations for research and prospecting partnerships have changed However to date there are few guides to integrating these concepts with practice This book offers practical guidance on how to arrive at equitable biodiversity research and prospecting partnerships Drawing on experience and lessons learned from around the world it provides case studies analysis and recommendations in a range of areas that together form a new framework for creating equity in these partnerships They include researcher codes of ethics institutional policies community research agreements the design of more effective commercial partnerships and biodiversity prospecting contracts the drafting and implementation of national access and benefit sharing laws and institutional tools for the distribution of financial benefits As part of the People and Plants initiative to enhance the role of communities in efforts to conserve biodiversity and use natural resources sustainably Biodiversity and Traditional Knowledge will be invaluable to students researchers and local communities academic institutions international agencies government bodies and companies involved in biodiversity research prospecting and conservation Global Diffusion and Adoption of Technologies for Knowledge and Information Sharing Tan, Felix B.,2012-10-31 This book provides diverse insights from researchers and practitioners around the world to offer their knowledge on the comparisons of international enterprises to managers and practitioners to improve business practices and keep an open dialogue about global information management Provided by publisher Sharing the Pain of the Bitter Hearts Simone Lindorfer,2007 This book reflects the fruitful dialogue between two regional contexts including the encounter of different methodologies namely the context of Latin American liberation psychology as inspired by liberation theology and specifically developed in El Salvador by the Jesuit Ignacio Martin Baro and the context of Eastern African women The book evaluates in four case studies the contribution of liberation psychology in overcoming various forms of gender related violence in Eastern Africa where the author has worked since 1998 as consultant in trauma work The book encourages the critical reflection of current trauma psychology as well as the conceptualisation of a globally oriented practical theology
