Color Of Bureaucracy Politics Of Equity In Multicultural School Communities:

The Color of Bureaucracy Colleen L. Larson, Carlos Julio Ovando, 2001 Future educators must be aware of educational experiences that will challenge deeply rooted assumptions about communities different from their own and achieve an understanding of the realities of other peoples lives Since many educators misinterpret the social racial and political problems they see and as a result blame the minority and poverty stricken students for not effectively adjusting to the norms and expectations of the educational system the authors of THE COLOR OF BUREAUCRACY takes an inquiry practice driven approach to understanding multicultural issues The text immerses the reader in social cultural and political problems through case studies told from multiple perspectives and presents strategies for effective intervention unlike any other multicultural textbook Captivating case studies provide a vehicle for actively engaging students in interpreting understanding and responding to complex problems of practice Opportunities for self reflection and self discovery are presented throughout and help future teachers see how they view their own roles and responsibilities and guides the development of their professional identities conducive to understanding multiple communities within the school

Advancing Equity and Achievement in America's Diverse Schools Camille Wilson, Sonya Horsford, 2013-09-05 Advancing Equity and Achievement in America s Diverse Schools illustrates how educators students families and community partners can work in strategic ways to build on social cultural and ethnic diversity to advance educational equity and achievement By drawing on the latest data on demographic change constructions of culture and cultural difference and the politics of school reform in urban rural and suburban school communities this volume looks toward solutions and strategies for meaningful educational improvement Contributors consider both the diversity of youth and families served in public schools and the culture of U S schooling highlighting the influence of policy and reform agendas students identities and agency experiences and approaches of diverse educators and the workings of effective school partnerships Chapters also focus on those often overlooked in educational scholarship such as Native Americans students experiencing poverty and or homelessness Muslim students students with special needs and students and educators who are lesbian gay bisexual transgender intersex or queer In all this edited collection stresses the need for high quality education that is inclusive culturally responsive and unifying so all students can experience academic success This book is a meaningful resource for educators policymakers and community based leaders interested in doing such transformative work Jsl Vol 18-N3 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP, 2009-09-16 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement Leadership from the Ground Up Michele A. Acker-Hocevar, Marta I. Cruz-Janzen, Cynthia L. Wilson, 2012-01-01 This book chronicles the journey of seven schools serving students of poverty English Language Learners ELLs and students of color which were able to sustain school improvement for a decade on either state and or national criteria that measure student performance outcomes The book shares stories of these seven schools and demonstrates that it takes an entire school working together with their communities adding to the social and cultural capital of their students and families to create and nurture what we call a Learning Partnership for sustainable school improvement The answers for how these schools sustained school improvement and are effective schools is evident from their school student metrics that validate the school s ability to meet and sustain external mandates of high performance over time The seven individual case stories illustrate that what matters most is what happens in the school itself It is the internal culture of caring and respecting each other and working from an additive perspective of valuing students for their unique gifts and abilities rather than exclusively focusing on increasing test scores that makes these school stories unique This is not about heroic leadership but leadership spread out and shared among professionals working together to achieve common goals around shared values and beliefs This book is about using resources in ways that value human capital as the greatest asset in the school to ensure that educators feel a sense of commitment connection and passion for their work together with students their families and their communities that enable them to excel together We offer readers seven cases that demonstrate there is no cookie cutter approach to having an effective school Rather there is a theory in practice that grounds the Learning Partnership depicted as a tree within a sustainable school improvement culture This sustainable culture connects shared leadership and accountability resourcefulness a humanistic philosophy additive schooling and results in an organization synergy that sustains organizational and collective efficacy for achieving results in these schools that other educators in schools with similar demographics are often unable to sustain or attain Academic Motivation and the Culture of Schooling Cynthia Hudley, Adele E. Gottfried, 2008-07-30 Decades of research indicate the important connections among academic motivation and achievement social relationships and school culture However much of this research has been conducted in homogenous American schools serving middle class average achieving Anglo student populations This edited volume will argue that school culture is a reflection of the society in which the school is embedded and comprises various aspects including individualism competition cultural stereotypes and extrinsically guided values and rewards They address three specific conceptual questions How do differences in academic motivation for diverse groups of students change over time How do students social cognitions influence their motivational processes and outcomes in school And what has been done to enhance academic motivation To answer this last question the contributors describe empirically validated intervention programs for improving academic motivation in students from elementary school through college Race,

Culture, and Identities in Second Language Education Ryuko Kubota,Angel M.Y. Lin,2009-06-02 The concept and construct of race is often implicitly yet profoundly connected to issues of culture and identity Meeting an urgent need for empirical and conceptual research that specifically explores critical issues of race culture and identities in second language education the key questions addressed in this groundbreaking volume are these How are issues of race relevant to second language education How does whiteness influence students and teachers sense of self and instructional practices How do discourses of racialization influence the construction of student identities and subjectivities How do discourses on race such as colorblindness influence classroom practices educational interventions and parental involvement How can teachers transform the status quo Each chapter is grounded in theory and provides implications for engaged practice Topics cover a wide range of themes that emerge from various pedagogical contexts Authors from diverse racial ethnic cultural backgrounds and geopolitical locations include both established and beginning scholars in the field making the content vibrant and stimulating Pre reading Questions and Discussion Questions in each chapter facilitate comprehension and encourage dialogue

The SAGE Glossary of the Social and Behavioral Sciences Larry E. Sullivan,2009-08-31 The SAGE Glossary of the Social and Behavioral Sciences provides college and university students with a highly accessible curriculum driven reference work both in print and on line defining the major terms needed to achieve fluency in the social and behavioral sciences Comprehensive and inclusive its interdisciplinary scope covers such varied fields as anthropology communication and media studies criminal justice economics education geography human services management political science psychology and sociology In addition while not a discipline methodology is at the core of these fields and thus receives due and equal consideration At the same time we strive to be comprehensive and broad in scope we recognize a need to be compact accessible and affordable Thus the work is organized in A to Z fashion and kept to a single volume of approximately 600 to 700 pages

On Being Included Sara Ahmed,2012-03-28 Ahmed argues that a commitment to diversity is frequently substituted for a commitment to actual change She traces the work that diversity does examining how the term is used and the way it serves to make questions about racism seem impertinent Her study is based in universities and her research is primarily in the UK and Australia but the argument is equally valid in North America and beyond

Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity Linda C. Tillman,James Joseph Scheurich,2013-08-21 The rapid growth of diversity within U S schooling and the heightened attention to the lack of equity in student achievement school completion and postsecondary attendance has made equity and diversity two of the principle issues in education educational leadership and educational leadership research The Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity is the first research based handbook that comprehensively addresses the broad diversity in U S schools by race ethnicity culture language gender disability sexual identity and class The Handbook both highly values the critically important strengths and assets that diversity brings to the United States and its schools yet at the same time

candidly critiques the destructive deficit thinking biases and prejudices that undermine school success for many groups of students Well known chapter authors explore diversity and related inequities in schools and the achievement problems these issues present to school leaders Each chapter reviews theoretical and empirical evidence of these inequities and provides research based recommendations for practice and for future research Celebrating the broad diversity in U S schools the Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity critiques the inequities connected to that diversity and provides evidence based practices to promote student success for all children

Pathways to Thinking Schools David N. Hyerle, Larry Alper, 2014-04-02 Building on the successful proven thinking maps model developed by David N Hyerle this title focuses on the development of thinking processes for every member of the learning community and on reframing how educators perceive the fundamental purpose of education in a global communications knowledge age

Telling Stories in Two Languages Masahiko Minami, 2011-04-01 The topic of bilingualism has aroused considerable interest in research on language acquisition in recent decades Researchers in various fields such as developmental psychology and psycholinguistics have investigated bilingual populations from different perspectives in order to understand better how bilingualism affects cognitive abilities like memory perception and metalinguistic awareness Telling Stories in Two Languages contributes to the general upsurge in linguistically related studies of bilingual children The book s particular and unique focus is narrative development in a bilingual and multicultural context The book is particularly important in an increasingly pluralistic and multicultural United States where there are large numbers of children from increasingly diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds Telling stories is important in the context of language and communication development because it is often by means of this activity that children develop the skill of presenting a series of events both in speech and writing However varying concepts of literacy exist in different societies and literacy has different social and personal implications in different social and cultural contexts In our schools teachers are expected to teach what is relevant for students in the dominant cultural framework but it would benefit those teachers greatly to have an understanding of important differences in for example narrative styles of different cultures Bilingualism or even multilingualism is all around us Even in the United States where a single language is clearly predominant there are hundreds of languages spoken Speaking more than one language may not be typical but is so common in modern times that it would be senseless to ignore its many implications The study of narratives told by children in both English and Japanese that are presented in this book will provide an important point of reference for research aimed at teasing apart the relative contributions of linguistic abilities and cultural conceptions to bilingual children s narrative development

Language in Multicultural Education Farideh Salili, Rumjahn Hoosain, 2005-03-01 Many books on multicultural education focus on a country and provide indepth discussion of issues pertinent to that country at the time Alternately understanding of multicultural education is sought through comparison between a society of special interest and a reference society often the United States An interesting recent example is

Constructing Multicultural Education in a Diverse Society by Ilghiz Sinagatullin 2003 drawing on the author's knowledge of Russia and more particularly the Republic of Bashkortostan itself an ethnically and culturally diverse part of Russia The approach taken in this volume is to focus on an aspect of diversity and look at its ramifications across the world This provides an understanding of the nature of multicultural education itself as well as insights into local issues through the experience of other places
