Colour Bar The Triumph Of Seretse Khama And His Nation:

Colour Bar A. Susan Williams, 2006 London 1945 the heir to the largest tribe of Bechuanaland later Botswana arrives in Britain Seretse Khama an urbane 24 year old was welcomed into the elite world of Oxford But when he fell in love with Englishwoman Ruth Williams the full force of colonial power was brought to bear to prevent their marriage Colour Bar Susan Williams, 2007-06-07 Sir Seretse Khama the first President of Botswana and heir apparent to the kingship of the Bangwato people brought independence and great prosperity to his nation after colonial rule But for six long years from 1950 Seretse had been forced into exile in England banned from his own country His crime To fall in love and marry a young white English girl Ruth Williams Delving into newly released records Susan Williams tells Seretse and Ruth s story a shocking account of how the British Government conspired with apartheid South Africa to prevent the mixed race royal couple returning home But it is also an inspiring triumphant tale of hope courage and true love as with tenacity and great dignity Seretse and Ruth and the Bangwato people overcome prejudice in their fight for justice Churchill's Confidant Richard Steyn, 2018-02-01 Brought together first as enemies in the Anglo Boer War and later as allies in the First World War the remarkable and often touching friendship between Winston Churchill and Jan Smuts is a rich study in contrasts In youth they occupied very different worlds Churchill the rambunctious and thrusting young aristocrat Smuts the aesthetic philosophical Cape farm boy who would go on to Cambridge Both were men of exceptional talents and achievements and between them the pair had to grapple with some of the twentieth century s most intractable issues not least of which the task of restoring peace and prosperity to Europe after two of mankind s bloodiest wars Drawing on a maze of archival and secondary sources including letters telegrams and the voluminous books written about both men Richard Steyn presents a fascinating account of two remarkable men in war and peace one the leader of the Empire the other the leader of a small fractious member of that Empire who nevertheless rose to global prominence Hunting Justice Maria Sapignoli, 2018-02-15 This book presents a long term study of the activist campaign that contested the Botswana government s much publicized removal of the San and Bakgalagadi people from the Central Kalahari Game Reserve Sapignoli s multiple points of observation and analysis range from rural Botswana to the nation s High Court and a variety of United Nations agencies in their Headquarters focusing on rights claimants and officials from NGOs states and the United Nations as they acted on the grievances of those who had been displaced In offering a comprehensive discussion of the San people and their claims making through formal institutions this book maintains a consistent focus on the increased recourse to law and the everyday experience of those who are asserting their rights in response to the encroachments of the state and the opportunities inherent in new indigenous advocacy networks Zambia Andrew Sardanis, 2014-08-13 On 24 October 1964 the Republic of Zambia was formed replacing the territory which had formerly been known as Northern Rhodesia Fifty years on Andrew Sardanis provides a sympathetic but critical insider s account of Zambia from independence to the present He paints a stark picture of Northern Rhodesia at decolonisation and the problems of the incoming government presented with an immense uphill task of rebuilding the infrastructure of government and administration civil service law local government and economic development Sardanis was a minister at the heart of the government and later a highly successful entrepreneur As a friend and colleague of many of the most prominent names in post independence Zambia from the presidencies of founding leader Kenneth Kaunda to the incumbent Michael Sata he uses his unique eyewitness experience to provide an inside view of a country in transition He looks at the highs and lows of Zambia's political development a purposeful beginning followed by many blunders confusion at times bordering on chaos interspersed with flashes of sensible action and good work This book provides a detailed examination of the major events in Zambia's history since independence and their effect on the country's development and progress based on Sardanis's in depth knowledge of Zambia and its people and the inner workings of its government

Heartthrobs Carol Dyhouse, 2017-02-09 From dreams of Prince Charming or dashing military heroes to the lure of dark strangers and vampire lovers from rock stars and rebels to soulmates dependable family types or simply good companions female fantasies about men tell us a great deal about the history of women In Heartthrobs Carol Dyhouse draws upon literature cinema and popular romance to show how the changing cultural and economic position of women has shaped their dreams about men When girls were supposed to be shrinking violets passionate females risked being seen as unbridled or dangerously out of control Change came slowly and young women remained trapped in a double bind you may have needed a husband in order to survive but you had to avoid looking like a gold digger Show attraction too openly and you might be judged fast and undesirable Education and wage earning brought independence and a widening of horizons for women These new economic beings showed a sustained appetite for novel reading cinema going and the dancehall They sighed over Rudolph Valentino's screen performances as tango dancer or Arab tribesman and desert lover Women may have been ridiculed for these obsessions but as consumers they had new clout This book reveals changing patterns of desire and looks at men through the eyes of women

The Small States Club Armen Sarkissian, 2023 A gracefully written reflection on how small states can pack a punch that belies their size

On the Edges of Whiteness Jochen Lingelbach, 2020-05-01 From 1942 to 1950 nearly twenty thousand Poles found refuge from the horrors of war torn Europe in camps within Britain's African colonies including Uganda Tanganyika Kenya and Northern and Southern Rhodesia On the Edges of Whiteness tells their improbable story tracing the manifold complex relationships that developed among refugees their British administrators and their African neighbors While intervening in key historical debates across academic disciplines this book also gives an accessible and memorable account of survival and dramatic cultural dislocation against the backdrop of global conflict

Media and the British Empire C. Kaul, 2006-03-28 The only true history of a country wrote Thomas Macaulay is to be found in its newspapers This book explores how the media shaped and defined the economic social political and cultural dynamics of the British Empire by viewing it from the perspective of the colonised as well as the colonisers

Mixed Race

Britain in The Twentieth Century Chamion Caballero, Peter J. Aspinall, 2018-05-07 This book explores the overlooked history of racial mixing in Britain during the course of the twentieth century a period in which there was considerable and influential public debate on the meanings and implications of intimately crossing racial boundaries Based on research that formed the foundations of the British television series Mixed Britannia the authors draw on a range of firsthand accounts and archival material to compare official accounts of racial mixing and mixedness with those told by mixed race people couples and families themselves Mixed Race Britain in The Twentieth Century shows that alongside the more familiarly recognised experiences of social bigotry and racial prejudice there can also be glimpsed constant threads of tolerance acceptance inclusion and ordinariness It presents a more complex and multifaceted history of mixed race Britain than is typically assumed one that adds to the growing picture of the longstanding diversity and difference that is and always has been an ordinary and everyday feature of British life

Nyerere Tom Molony, 2014 This book presents the first truly rounded portrait of Nyerere's early life from his birth in 1922 until his graduation from Edinburgh in 1952 helping us to see his later political achievements in a new light It was after returning to Tanganyika that Mwalimu the teacher formally entered politics and led efforts to deliver Tanganyika to independence Publishers website Kenneth Kaunda, the United States and Southern Africa

Andy DeRoche, 2016-05-19 Kenneth Kaunda the United States and Southern Africa carefully examines US policy towards the southern African region between 1974 when Portugal granted independence to its colonies of Angola and Mozambique and 1984 the last full year of the Reagan administration's Constructive Engagement approach It focuses on the role of Zambian president Kenneth Kaunda the key facilitator of international diplomacy towards the dangerous neighborhood surrounding his nation The main themes include the influence of race national security economics and African agency on international relations during the height of the Cold War Andy DeRoche focuses on key issues such as the civil war in Angola the fight against apartheid the struggle for Namibia's independence the transition from Rhodesia to Zimbabwe and bilateral US Zambian relations The approach is traditional diplomatic history based on archival research in Zambia and the USA as well as interviews with key players such as Kaunda Mark Chona Siteke Mwale Vernon Mwaanga Chester Crocker and Frank Wisner The result offers an important new insight into the nuances of US policy toward southern Africa during the hottest days of the Cold War

A Cradle of the Revolution Nyathi, Pathisa, Clarke, Marieke, 2018-11-05 A Cradle of the Revolution is a compelling book of stories by former Inyathi School students in the period before Zimbabwean independence The stories render moving accounts of evictions in the colonial period conditions at Inyathi school and in particular the leadership qualities of Kenneth Maltus Smith who was the school head After leaving Inyathi school many of the student participated in the struggle for independence The book is an expose of the colonial conditions and efforts to dislodge colonialists and usher in independence and dignity for the black majority African Activists in a Decolonising World

Ismay Milford, 2023-03-09 A history of global decolonisation and anticolonialism told through East and Central African activists in the 1950s and 1960s      The Colonial World Robert Aldrich, Andreas Stucki, 2022-12-29 The Colonial World A History of European Empires 1780s to the Present provides the most authoritative in depth overview on European imperialism available It synthesizes recent developments in the study of European empires and provides new perspectives on European colonialism and the challenges to it With a post 1800 focus and extensive background coverage tracing the subject to the early 1700s the book charts the rise and eclipse of European empires Robert Aldrich and Andreas Stucki integrate innovative approaches and findings from the new imperial history and look at both the colonial era and the legacies it left behind for countries around the world after they gained independence Dividing the text into three complementary sections Aldrich and Stucki offer an original approach to the subject that allows you to explore Different eras of colonisation and decolonisation from early modern European colonialism to the present day Overarching themes in colonial history like land and sea the body and representations of colonialism A global range of snapshot colonial case studies such as Peru 1780 India 1876 The South Pacific 1903 the Dutch East Indies 1938 and the Portuguese empire in Africa 1971 This is the essential text for anyone seeking to understand the nature and complexities of modern European imperialism and its aftermath      Black Oxford Pamela Roberts, 2014-12-02 Oxford University has attracted and produced many of the world s most original thinkers over the centuries It boasts heads of states academics writers actors scientists philosophers and many other luminaries among its alumni On any tour of the University and colleges famous ex students Tony Blair Bill Clinton Margaret Thatcher to name a few are often mentioned but what about its Black scholars The University has a long but little known history of attracting Black scholars from Africa the Caribbean America and even Australia since the matriculation in 1873 of Christian Fredrick Cole who became the first African to practise in an English court He was followed by other outstanding personalities Alain Locke the Father of the Harlem Renaissance and the first Black scholar to be awarded a Rhodes Scholarship in 1907 Kofoworola Moore the first African woman to graduate from the University in 1935 Eric Williams the great historian of the Caribbean who was elected Prime Minister of Trinidad and Tobago Oxford s Black alumni include statesmen lawyers and teachers More recently Oxford educated African American women have risen to high office in the United States Students from all parts of Africa the Caribbean and the Commonwealth have made significant contributions and left lasting legacies in the fields of politics literature science and the arts Uncovering the stories of prominent and lesser known Black students at Oxford Pamela Roberts reveals a hitherto undocumented strand in the University s history and its relationship with the wider world      Marriage in Past, Present and Future Tense Janet Carsten, Hsiao-Chiao Chiu, Siobhan Magee i, Eirini Papadaki , Koreen M. Reece, 2021-09-01 Marriage globally is undergoing profound change provoking widespread public comment and concern Through the close ethnographic examination of case studies drawn from Africa Asia Europe and North America Marriage in Past Present and Future Tense places new and changing forms of marriage in comparative perspective as a transforming and also transformative social institution In conditions of widespread socio political inequality and instability

how are the personal the familial and the political co produced How do marriages encapsulate the ways in which memories of past lives present experience and imaginaries of the future are articulated Exploring the ways that marriage draws together and distinguishes history and biography ritual and law economy and politics in intimate family life this volume examines how familial and personal relations and the ethical judgements they enfold inform and configure social transformation Contexts that have been partly shaped through civil wars cold war and colonialism as well as other forms of violent socio political rupture offer especially apt opportunities for tracing the interplay between marriage and politics But rather than taking intimate family life and gendered practice as simply responsive to wider socio political forces this work explores how marriage may also create social change Contributors consider the ways in which marital practice traverses the domains of politics economics and religion while marking a key site where the work of linking and distinguishing those domains is undertaken

The Commonwealth, South Africa and Apartheid Stuart Mole, 2023-05-31 This book explores the role of the modern Commonwealth in the international campaign against apartheid in South Africa Spanning the period of South Africa s apartheid state from its foundation in 1948 until its ending in April 1994 the author demonstrates that after the 1960 Sharpeville massacre and South Africa s subsequent exclusion from the Commonwealth the organisation was able to become both pathfinder and interlocutor on the road to South Africa s freedom As well as South Africa s ejection from the Commonwealth apartheid s increasing isolation was sustained by the Commonwealth s pioneering work in boycotting apartheid sport as well as campaigning to stop arms sales It also played an important role in internationalising economic and financial sanctions credited by some as the final nail in apartheid s coffin and was able to make an important and distinctive contribution to the transition to democracy At the same time critical debates within the Commonwealth about racial and political equality transformed the association from a docile post imperial organisation led by the UK and in its own interests to a modern multiracial North South forum for reconciling global difference and overcoming the legacies of colonialism This comprehensive and authoritative account of the Commonwealth s engagement with apartheid South Africa is intended for all those who study and research the modern Commonwealth its structure and influence and for those with a general interest in contemporary post war history

Amnesty International and Human Rights Activism in Postwar Britain, 1945-1977 Tom Buchanan, 2020-04-30 Demonstrates how activists worked together during the post war decades to transform public attitudes towards violations of human rights

Algerian Independence and the British Left Mélanie Torrent, 2024-11-14 Based on archives from governments parties organisations and individuals this book investigates the relationship between the British left and Algerian liberation movements during the Algerian War of Independence 1954 1962 It explores the presence of representatives of the Mouvement national algérien MNA and the Front de libération nationale FLN in London where they actively sought support for peace independence from France and the global end of European domination By surveying their interactions with individuals and groups in the anticolonial left including prominent Labour MPs and Trotskyist groups Asian and African associations and students unions Torrent shows how and why solidarity was interpreted differently across the left and in relation to Britain's own end of empire conflicts Tracing connections across Europe and beyond this book demonstrates how the war influenced conceptions of socialism communism and internationalism in Britain what being European meant and what place the Commonwealth should have in a world where armed struggle and liberation diplomacy disrupted boundaries
