Michael Martinez, 2009-08-10 This volume establishes a foundation for a uniform code of professional ethics for public administrators in the United States Public Administration Ethics for the 21st Century lays the ethical foundations for a uniform professional code of ethics for public administrators civil servants and non profit administrators in the US Martinez synthesizes five disparate schools of ethical thought as to how public administrators can come to know the good and behave in ways that advance the values of citizenship equity and public interest within their respective organizations Using case studies he teaches American administrators how to combine the approaches of all five schools to evaluate and resolve complex ethical dilemmas within the constraints of the U S democratic values set Martinez enunciates the common ethical principles that guide public administrators in their practice within the specific ethical parameters and organizational cultures of a myriad entities at the federal state and local levels of government in the United States as well as in non profit organizations Along the way Martinez addresses a number of crucial issues including personal gain conflict of interest transparency democratic impartiality hiring hierarchical discipline media relations partisan pressure appointments by elected officials and whistle blowing The striking high profile case studies Nathan Bedford Forrest Adolph Eichmann Lieutenant William Calley and Mary Ann Wright illustrate ethical dilemmas where for better or worse the individual was at odds with the organization Ethics in Public Management H George Frederickson, Richard K Ghere, 2016-07-22 The groundbreaking Ethics in Public Administration set the agenda for a decade s worth of research in the theory and practice of ethics in the public sector This long awaited follow up volume represents the state of the art in research on administrative ethics It features all new contributions by many of the leading figures in the field and addresses both the managerial and individual moral dimensions of ethical behavior as well as new challenges to administrative ethics posed by globalization A detailed introduction opening passage and conclusion lend context to each of the book s four main sections Ethics in Public Management is must reading for any graduate level course in public sector ethics

Preventing Corruption in Asia Ting Gong, Stephen K. Ma, 2011-05-30 Despite intensified governmental and public efforts at corruption control in recent years official transgression continues to surface in various ways of abusing the unique power and trust that a government holds Preventing Corruption in Asia addresses a number of crucial questions What institutional arrangements are necessary to ensure a clean and honest government What self regulatory capabilities must government institutions develop in order to maintain integrity How should a sense of ethical responsibility be instilled in the civil services Do special anti corruption agencies help keep government clean How will a regulatory framework of official conduct work properly How useful are anti corruption campaigns in containing corruption Focusing on a number of carefully selected countries in the Asia and Pacific region the book sets as its focal point the choice of institutional design in preventing corruption rather than treating corruption as a practical or technical problem to be corrected by strong political will and good anti corruption policy measures While focusing on institutional designs and policy choices the book also examines other aspects of clean government such as the social environment legal and regulatory framework role of the public and the impact of culture

Anti-corruption Training Programmes in Central and Eastern Europe Bryane Michael, Council of Europe. Serbia and Ukraine Administrative Ethics in the Twenty-first Century James Michael Martinez, William D. Richardson, 2008 This series is devoted to textbooks that explore the multidimensional and multidisciplinary areas of law and Politics Special emphasis will be given to textbooks written for the undergraduate classroom Subject matters to be addressed in this series include constitutional law civil rights and liberties issues law race gender and gender orientation studies law and ethics women and the law judicial behavior and decision making legal theory comparative legal systems criminal justice courts and the political process Truths and Half Truths Ferdinand Gul, Haitian Lu, 2011-06-30 Truths and Half Truths is aimed at economic and social science academics and students who are interested in the dynamics of China's institutional development and societal transformation Covering the complexity of the social economic and governance reforms behind the economic miracles achieved by China since its reform in 1978 and particularly in the past twenty years this book provides much needed insight and critical thinking on major aspects of China's reform Topics include employment environment anti poverty urbanization and rural development education corruption political regime and media Readers will be able to re evaluate the costs and benefits of China's modernization from a point of view of sustainability Written by highly knowledgeable and well respected academics in law and economics with decades of experience in China studies Provides an insight from academic points of view written in a reader friendly journalistic style An integrated monograph each chapter addresses a particular area of reform and can be read independently Ethics and Public Administration H George Frederickson, John A. Rohr, 2015-03-04 Ethics and Public Administration refutes the arguments that administrative ethics cannot be studied in an empirical manner and that empirical analysis can deal only with the trivial issues in administrative ethics Within a theoretical perspective the authors qualify their findings and take care not to over generalise results The findings are relevant to the practice of public administration Specific areas addressed include understanding public corruption ethics as control and ethics as administration and policy Handbook of Crisis and Emergency Management Ali Farazmand, 2001-06-22 Including contributions from sixty international authors this book examines emergency responses to environmental dangers such as chemical fires hazardous material and oil spills nuclear reactor accidents and earthquakes and crises in the environment global public service and politics It covers a wide range of international issues and topics using various analyses including critical descriptive empirical quantitative and normative methods The book discusses approaches to natural disasters resolutions to cultural religious and political tensions terrorism and the potential use of biological chemical and nuclear weapons the role of crisis public relations and more Environmental Sustainability and American Public Administration J. Michael Martinez, 2016-11-01 Protecting the natural environment and promoting environmental sustainability have become important objectives for U S policymakers and public administrators at the dawn of the twenty first century Institutions of American government especially at the federal level and the public administrators who work inside of those institutions play a crucial role in developing and implementing environmental sustainability policies This book explores these salient issues logically First it explores fundamental concepts such as what it means to be environmentally sustainable how economic issues affect environmental policy and the philosophical schools of thought about what policies ought to be considered sustainable From there it focuses on processes and institutions affecting public administration and its role in the policy process Accordingly it summarizes the rise of the administrative state in the United States and then reviews the development of federal environmental laws and policies with an emphasis on late twentieth century developments This book also discusses the evolution of American environmentalism by outlining the history of the environmental movement and the growth of the environmental lobby Finally this book synthesizes the information to discuss how public administration can promote environmental sustainability

Ethics Moments in Government Donald C. Menzel, 2017-09-25 Ethical concerns are among the most common problems public administrators face yet the issues are often complex and the correct choices are not always clear Living up to the public trust is much more than just an act of compliance It also involves perceiving preventing avoiding and resolving accusations of illegal or unethical behavior including appearances of inappropriate behavior Ethics Moments in Government Cases and Controversies examines how to identify assess and resolve the ethical issues and dilemmas that often confront those who govern the cities counties states and federal agencies throughout America Real Situations Real Advice Providing a one stop resource for all those who must contend with thorny ethical issues this volume presents case studies that vary in complexity and context and are based on real situations Each case scenario is followed by discussion questions and case assessments by expert practitioners who describe how they would handle the situation Using a total immersion technique the book encourages readers to be reflexive and analytical in addressing the problems presented and arriving at appropriate solutions A supplemental CD is included which contains PowerPoint slide presentations articles workshop programs tests and links to organizations For many of the scenarios presented in this volume there are no easy answers Practical guidance on reasoning through difficult decision making situations enables public administrators to acquire the ethical knowledge skills abilities and instincts that will ultimately help them gain the trust of their citizens and advance in their careers

Contemporary Issues in Construction in Developing Countries George Ofori, 2012-06-26 Economic growth and socio economic development are particularly important for developing countries and the construction industry plays a central role in driving both of these Traditionally the issues faced have been assumed to be merely offshoots of those encountered in industrialised nations and are usually discussed only in this context In addition research in construction management and economics has generally failed to take proper account of the unique or highly emphasised characteristics of the industries in developing countries or their economic and social environment This volume challenges underlying assumptions and focuses on the distinct characteristics of construction in developing countries In so doing it considers the issues from the perspective of the developing countries themselves to present a strong contemporary picture for researchers It forms a companion volume to New Perspectives on Construction in Developing Countries which provides an update on the generic subjects relating to the construction industry in developing countries and covers new concepts and issues Corruption in the MENA Region Dina Elsayed, 2020-11-02

This book explores the causes of corruption in the Middle East and North Africa through a systematic cross national comparative analysis of fifteen countries in the region It aims to explain causal relationships between corruption and differences in political and socio economic dimensions within these different countries over the period 1999 2010 The countries are grouped together into three sub regions the Gulf region North Africa and Mashreq plus Yemen The author finds that the main variables that showed robustness in impacting the intensity of corruption are the rule of law quality of regulations and trade openness Poverty rates and income inequality have been clear triggers for petty corruption Meanwhile natural resources endowments have shown less of an impact on the levels of corruption and similarly women s empowerment has not been found to be a strong indicator

The Changing Face of Corruption in the Asia Pacific Chris Rowley, Marie dela Rama, 2017-05-03 The Changing Face of Corruption in the Asia Pacific Current Perspectives and Future Challenges is a contemporary analysis of corruption in the Asia Pacific region Bringing academicians and practitioners together contributors to this book discuss the current perspectives of corruption s challenges in both theory and practice and what the future challenges will be in addressing corruption s proliferation in the region Includes viewpoints from both practitioners and academic contributors on corruption in the Asia Pacific region Offers a strong theoretical background together with the practical experience of contributors Explores what the future challenges will be in addressing corruption s proliferation in the region Aimed at both the academic and professional audience
