Come Rain or Come Shine Linda Hale Bucklin, Mary Keil, 2012-10-19 Friendships between women can be a place of refuge from loneliness and indifference a place where we can know we matter as we are Rachel Naomi Remen M D Author Kitchen Table Wisdom As this compilation of stories teaches friendship between women rarely happens automatically that s what makes it special Sometimes the circumstances of life like moving to a new city or losing your job or entering your child in school create an opportunity But the act of friendship is intentional Openness is a key ingredient even though recognition of a woman as a friend may require time Friendship must often go through crisis or trial some event that forges a bond and solidifies trust The themes of difficulty and betrayal are woven into these stories for the authors wisely know that friendship between women must be tested Sometimes it takes painful and disappointing experiences to begin to value ourselves as friends Some of us need to learn that what we offer in friendship is rich and worth its weight in gold We must learn discernment about when to offer it and when it must be withdrawn because the other is not able to appreciate the potential gift of friendship These short compact stories are meant to be savored and reflected upon They can be read slowly over lazy days or used as a morning reflection before running off to work What they offer is a small but clear view of the female heart through the lens of friendship There is something easy something flowing something sacred that can go on between women Linda Bucklin and Mary Keil have modeled this in their work together They are close friends and out of that friendship comes this book The Reverend Dr Lauren Artress OTHER TITLES by Linda Hale Bucklin Beyond His Control Memoir of a Disobedient Daughter The Love of Angels ABOUT THE AUTHORS A fourth generation San Franciscan Linda Hale Bucklin now lives in Mill Valley CA She recently lost her beloved husband of forty years yet she feels so blessed to be surrounded by her three grown sons two daughters in law and four grandchildren She has worked in public relations and as a freelance writer Her articles have appeared in HOUSE AND GARDEN JOURNAL OF COMMERCE and NOB HILL GAZETTE In 1999 together with Mary Keil she co authored COME RAIN OR COME SHINE published by Adams Media In 2008 her second book BEYOND HIS CONTROL MEMOIR OF A DISOBEDIENT DAUGHTER was published The book went on to become a New York Times Best Seller in paperback and eBook editions The New York Post Page Six article entitled Tennis Queen Rips Stepmom describes Linda's book as a jolting new memoir. In it she writes of growing up in a privileged San Francisco family and chronicles her struggle to understand its dynamics, stand up to her domineering father and make sense of her beloved mother's sudden death and father's Prentis Cobb Hale subsequent marriage to Denise Minnelli. Her third book THE LOVE OF ANGELS came out in 2016. A collection of stories including the author's own, the book chronicles encounters with angels, spiritual beings, animals, and living people who show up to remind us of the power of love. Linda loves books and stories of all kinds and has always been interested in her own and others' spiritual growth. For many years she served as a trustee for San Francisco's magnificent Grace Cathedral and for The Magic Theatre, whose mission was to discover and present new American playwrights, starting with Sam Shepard. Her family and friends, and especially her cherished friendship with Mary, are of primary importance to her, but she finds time to pursue other interests as well. For some years a nationally ranked tennis player, she became 1 in the U.S. in 60 mixed doubles in 2006 with her longtime partner and close friend Charlie Hoeveler. Holding six national titles, she continues to compete in tournaments across the country.

Come Rain, Come Shine Anne Doughty, 2012-09-01 1960 Clare Hamilton is returning home to Armagh to marry Andrew Hamilton, her childhood sweetheart. They plan to open Andrew's ancestral home, Drumsollen, as a guest house. Things start well, but when bookings decline, their business and plans are put in jeopardy. And with increasing political turmoil and religious tensions close to home, they have to wonder if, despite all their efforts, their project might fail.

Come Rain, Come Shine Jack Bedell, 2006 High spirited and unafraid, full of Louisiana Cajun zest, quick to anger and quick to forgive, and quick to offer unabashed praise for his world, Jack Bedell's new poems take us through lived experiences: come rain or come shine. He tells his story and fixes his place in these remarkably examining lyrics that grab hold and won't let go. Heather Ross Miller. Deeply rooted in Bedell's native Louisiana, these poems preserve his Cajun heritage and customs to form the complex texture of this impressive collection. Family life is always at the center of his work, and it is a source of deep joy for Bedell, whether he's detailing a pretend sword fight with his son or watching his wife take a bath. These poems are infused with a deep understanding of what it is to be human, because Bedell has cored them from the heart. In Come Rain, Come Shine, Jack Bedell has the vision to realize where a significant story is, and in telling it, he leads his reader to such wisdom. Vivian Shipley. Jack Bedell is a prince amongst poets, a kindred spirit in this magnificent landscape of Cajuns and Southern Louisiana, where his best poems render amazing texture to a place filthy rich in culture, sugar cane fields, Mardi Gras, and a world where any child would be blessed to live his/her childhood. The poems in Come Rain, Come Shine simply and memorably are as delicious and nourishing as étouffée and jambalaya. They also reveal a man coming to terms with his own history, family, and religion. His is a mature voice, graceful and eloquent, that brings to life more than the memory of the place and its people. I've been a longtime admirer of Mr. Bedell's poetic gifts, and I highly recommend this new book of his, for it is amongst some of the best poetry I've read in a while. Virgin Suarez. Come Rain, Come Shine dazzles with a quiet brilliance all its own, a luster born of simple things with stirring poems of desire familial love and fatherhood and with real life places and encounters at once exotic and familiar These lyric poems are rich with a sense of place and narrative and evoke both family story and Louisiana in all their rain and shine Diane Thiel
