Diagnostic Audiology Pocket Guide James Steiger, Erin L. Miller, 2017-03-15 Diagnostic Audiology Pocket Guide Evaluation of Hearing Tinnitus and Middle Ear Function is intended as a quick reference for audiology students new clinicians and any experienced audiologists who want easy access to diagnostic information for rapid review The first part of this guide covers the routine and special tests audiologists must conduct and interpret in their practices Next disorders such as nonorganic hearing loss middle and inner ear disorders and systemic disorders are covered with a separate chapter set aside for audiogram examples The final chapter is devoted to medical referral decision making criteria

Ethics and the Profession of Anthropology Carolyn Fluehr-Lobban, 2002-12-24 This revised second edition of Ethics and the Profession of Anthropology renews the challenge to anthropologists to engage in a dialogue concerning their commitment to professional ethical conduct Containing a majority of new chapters the authors redefine what it means to conduct anthropological research ethically in a discipline that is now less isolated from allied fields in the physical and behavioral sciences and coming to terms with the global changes that affect its practice Fluehr Lobban provides an overview of issues from the past 110 years drawing attention to the need for maintaining the ethical core of the discipline and a code of professional responsibility The contributors describe a series of crises in the discipline involving clandestine research and other questionable actions by anthropologists including secret research and intelligence work by academics the ethical problems of medical work among native people the evolution of cyber ethics and the changing relationships between indigenous people archaeologists and museums as a result of the 1990 NAGPRA repatriation legislation The book offers an excellent model for integrating ethics education at all levels of instruction and for empowering and engaging communities It will be a valuable tool for anthropological researchers instructors and fieldworkers as they transform their professional practice

Tourism and Responsibility Martin Mowforth, Clive Charlton, Ian Munt, 2008 This book discusses the responsibility or otherwise of tourism activities in Latin America and the Caribbean It considers issues such as the reduction of poverty through tourism and the conflict between increasing volumes of air travel spent in our continuing search for pleasure and the resulting contribution to global warming The authors believe that tourism can only be adequately assessed through a consideration of how it fits into the structure of power It is also argued that tourism cannot be analyzed without a consideration of its impacts on and links with development This relationship between tourism responsibility power and development is explored in chapters covering both the macro and the micro level of responsibility The authors look at methods of practising tourism responsibly or irresponsibly at the personal company national and international levels The questions and dilemmas of placing responsibility in the tourism industry are examined throughout Widely illustrating all these themes and issues with examples and case studies from throughout the sub continent this book will be of importance to students and academics and to the work of practitioners of development and tourism related projects run by both governmental and non governmental aid and development agencies      Empowering Public Administrators Amanda M. Olejarski, Sue M. Neal, 2024-02-06 Public administrators need to be empowered to make difficult decisions Acting in the public interest often means doing what is ethical even when it is an unpopular choice Yet too often public servants at the local state and federal levels internalize the notion that their hands are tied and that they are limited in their ability to effect change Empowering Public Administrators Ethics and Public Service Values provides a much needed antidote to inaction offering a new lens for viewing administrative decision making and behavior This book makes a case for bringing historically significant theories to the forefront of public service ethics by applying them to a series of current ethical challenges in practice Exploring administrative discretion as modern bureaucrats govern public affairs in a political context this collection builds on the normative foundations of public administration and provides readers with a scaffold for understanding and practicing public service values Questions for discussion and applications to practice are included in each chapter making this collection of interest to public affairs masters and doctoral students as well as public service practitioners      International Horseshoe Crab Conservation and Research Efforts: 2007- 2020 John T.
