Worldmark Encyclopedia of Cultures and Daily Life Timothy L. Gall, Jeneen Hobby, 2009 Nazi Cinema as Enchantment Mary-Elizabeth O'Brien, 2004 The Nazi regime did not merely terrorize its citizens into submission it also seduced them by offering stability a traditional value system a sense of belonging and hope of a better standard of living Nazi cinema's popularity rested on its ability to express positive social fantasies and promote the enchantment of reality so that one would want to share in the dream at any price This is an interdisciplinary study written for scholars and students in the fields of film studies German studies history critical studies and political science that explores how cinema participated in the larger framework of everyday fascism The book examines how five film genres the historical musical the foreign adventure film the home front film the melodrama and the problem film enchanted audiences and enacted shared stories that can tell us much about how family community history the nation and the war were imagined in Nazi Germany The book analyzes thirteen motion pictures many of which are not well known to English speaking audiences Wunschkonzert Die große Liebe Tanz auf dem Vulkan Damals Die Degenhardts Opfergang Kautschuk Robert und Bertram Verklungene Melodie Frauen für Golden Hill Das Leben kann so schön sein Der verzauberte Tag and Via Mala Based on exhaustive research in German archives the book examines in addition to the films themselves articles from the propaganda ministry's official organ Der deutsche Film daily trade sheets fan magazines and even studio press packages for individual stars and films Mary Elizabeth O'Brien is Professor of German at Skidmore College Saratoga Springs New York In the Shadow of Empire Malcolm Spencer, 2008 Spencer then considers Roth's more negative reaction showing the post imperial novel Radetzkymarsch to be a nostalgic response to the collapse of Habsburg Austria and the rise of fascism The final chapter looks again at the end of empire not in the work of writers who lived through it but through that of one who experienced it as a historical and cultural legacy Ingeborg Bachmann BOOK JACKET The Vertical Imagination and the Crisis of Transatlantic Modernism Paul Haacke, 2021-03-11 From the invention of skyscrapers and airplanes to the development of the nuclear bomb ideas about the modern increasingly revolved around vertiginous images of elevation and decline and new technologies of mobility and terror from above In The Vertical Imagination and the Crisis of Transatlantic Modernism Paul Haacke examines this turn by focusing on discourses of aspiration catastrophe and power in major works of European and American literature as well as film architecture and intellectual and cultural history This wide ranging and pointed study begins with canonical fiction by Franz Kafka Virginia Woolf James Joyce and John Dos Passos as well as poetry by Guillaume Apollinaire Hart Crane and Aimé Césaire before moving to critical reflections on the rise of New York City by architects and writers from Le Corbusier to Simone de Beauvoir the films of Alfred Hitchcock and theories of cinematic space and time and postwar novels by Kurt Vonnegut Thomas Pynchon and Leslie Marmon Silko among many other examples In tracing the rise and fall of modernist discourse over the course of the long twentieth century this book shows how visions of vertical ascension turned from established ideas about nature the body and religion to growing anxieties about aesthetic distinction technological advancement and American capitalism and empire It argues that spectacles of height and flight became symbols and icons of ambition as well as direct indexes of power and thus that the vertical transformation of modernity was both material and imagined taking place at the same time through the rapidly expanding built environment and shifting ideological constructions of high and low
