Gesture Power Nationalism Performance Religious:

Gesture and Power Yolanda Covington-Ward, 2015-12-30 In Gesture and Power Yolanda Covington Ward examines the everyday embodied practices and performances of the BisiKongo people of the lower Congo to show how their gestures dances and spirituality are critical in mobilizing social and political action

Religious Discourse in Attic Oratory and Politics Andreas Serafim, 2020-10-29 The book offers a critical investigation of a wide range of features of religious discourse in the transmitted forensic symbouleutic and epideictic orations of the Ten Attic Orators a body of 151 speeches which represents the mature flourishing of the ancient art of public speaking and persuasion Serafim focuses on how the intersections between such religious discourse and the political legal and civic institutions of classical Athens help to shed new light on polis identity building and the construction of an imagined community in three institutional contexts the law court the Assembly and the Boul a community that unites its members and defines the ways in which they make decisions

After a full scale survey of the persistently and recurrently used features of religious discourse in Attic oratory he contextualizes and explains the use of specific patterns of religious discourse in specific oratorical contexts examining the means or restrictions that these contexts generate for the speaker In doing so he explores the cognitive emotional and physical sensory reactions of the speaker and the audience when religious stimuli are provided in orations and how this contributes to the construction of civic and political identity in classical Athens Religious Discourse in Attic Oratory and Politics will be of interest to anyone working on classical Athens particularly its legal institutions on ancient rhetoric and ancient Greek religion and politics

Deep Knowledge Oludamini Ogunnaike, 2020-11-11 This book is an in depth comparative study of two of the most popular and influential intellectual and spiritual traditions of West Africa Tijani Sufism and Ifa Employing a unique methodological approach that thinks with and from rather than merely about these traditions Oludamini Ogunnaike argues that they contain sophisticated epistemologies that provide practitioners with a comprehensive worldview and a way of crafting a meaningful life Using theories belonging to the traditions themselves as well as contemporary oral and textual sources Ogunnaike examines how both Sufism and Ifa answer the questions of what knowledge is how it is acquired and how it is verified Or more simply What do you know How did you come to know it How do you know that you know After analyzing Ifa and Sufism separately and on their own terms the book compares them to each other and to certain features of academic theories of knowledge By analyzing Sufism from the perspective of Ifa Ifa from the perspective of Sufism and the contemporary academy from the perspective of both this book invites scholars to inhabit these seemingly foreign intellectual traditions as valid and viable perspectives on knowledge metaphysics psychology and ritual practice Unprecedented and innovative Deep Knowledge makes a significant contribution to cross cultural philosophy African philosophy religious studies and Islamic studies Its singular approach advances our understanding of the philosophical bases underlying these two African traditions and lays the groundwork for future study

An Indelible History Alejandro Casas, 2025-05-08 For centuries the religious landscape of the Caribbean has been examined through the lens of African and European influences often overlooking the full extent of the enduring contributions made by the region s first peoples An Indelible History challenges this historical omission offering the first comprehensive exploration of Amerindian religious influence on Afro Caribbean traditions with a particular focus on Palo Monte Drawing on historical archives oral traditions and decolonial theory Alejandro Casas unveils the hidden intersections between African derived religions and Amerindian spiritual beliefs and practices From sacred tobacco rituals to geomantic symbols and ancestral veneration this book repositions Indigenous Caribbean agency at the heart of the region s religious transformations More than a historical study An Indelible History reveals how these suppressed traditions persist adapt and continue to shape contemporary Afro Caribbean spirituality in ways often unrecognized By recovering these forgotten histories Casas not only rewrites the past but also redefines the present demonstrating how cultural memory and spiritual resilience endure across generations Deeply researched yet accessible An Indelible History reclaims a forgotten chapter of the Caribbean s spiritual past and highlights its lasting influence on Afro Caribbean religious traditions today This is a must read for scholars practitioners and anyone interested in the complex cultural entanglements that continue to shape Afro Caribbean religious traditions

The Oxford Handbook of Politics and Performance Shirin Rai, Milija Gluhovic, Silvija Jestrovic, Michael Saward, 2021 While political scientists and political theorists have long been interested in social and political performance and theatre and performance researchers have often focused on the political dimensions of the live arts the interdisciplinary nature of this labor has typically been assumed rather than rigorously explored This volume brings together leading scholars in the fields of Politics and Performance drawing on experts across the fields of literature law anthropology sociology psychology and media and communication as well as politics and theatre and performance to map out and deepen the evolving interdisciplinary engagement Organized into seven thematic sections the volume investigates the relationship between politics and performance to show that certain features of political transactions shared by performances are fundamental to both disciplines and that to a large extent they also share a common communicational base and language

Unruly Ideas Nicole Eggers, 2023-10-31 Original oral and ethnographic sources inform this conceptual history of power in central Africa imagined through the lens of Kitawala religious practices Unruly Ideas A History of Kitawala in Congo recounts the multifaceted history of the Congolese religious movement Kitawala from its colonial beginnings in the 1920s through its continued practice in some of the most conflict riven parts of the eastern Democratic Republic of Congo today Drawing on a rich body of original oral ethnographic and archival research Nicole Eggers uses Kitawala as a lens through which to address the complex relationship between politics religion healing and violence in central African history Kitawala which has roots in the African Watchtower Jehovah's Witness movement has long been viewed both by scholars and by popular historians as a form of male dominated anticolonial insurgency But just as Kitawalists were never exclusively male their teachings and activities were never directed solely at the Belgian colonial state and their yearnings for self rule were never entirely about the secular realms of authority A more comprehensive look at the oral and archival evidence reveals they were and are concerned with the morality of power more broadly on state communal and individual levels Moreover Kitawalist doctrine is itself unruly and its preachers prophets and practitioners have articulated innumerable interpretations most quite different from Watchtower Christianity across space and time More than a case study of a particular religious movement Unruly Ideas is a conceptual history of power that investigates how communities and individuals in the region have historically imagined power sought to access it wielded it and policed the morality of its uses By focusing on power and its intellectual and social history in Congo Unruly Ideas creates an analytical space in which readers can understand the differing manifestations of Kitawala from its overtly political and sometimes violent moments to those more aptly characterized as individual quests for spiritual and physical therapy as varying themes in the same story the pursuit of wellness in the context of malady On a more practical level the book raises important questions about the project of writing histories of places like eastern Congo a region where the repercussions of decades of political neglect upheaval and violence force us to reconsider how we can think about and use oral and archival sources Finally the book investigates the embodied and gendered nature of field research and interrogates the intersubjective and reciprocal nature of knowledge production

Higher Powers China Scherz, George Mpanga, Sarah Namirembe, 2024-02-06 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Higher Powers draws on four years of collaborative fieldwork carried out with Ugandans working to reconstruct their lives after attempting to leave behind problematic alcohol use Given the relatively recent introduction of biomedical ideas of alcoholism and addiction in Uganda most of these people have used other therapeutic resources including herbal aversion therapies engagements with balubaale spirits and forms of deliverance and spiritual warfare practiced in Pentecostal churches While these methods are at times severe they contain within them understandings of the self and practices of sociality that point away from models of addiction as a chronic relapsing brain disease and towards the possibility of release Higher Powers offers a reconceptualization of addiction and recovery that may prove relevant well beyond Uganda

The Outside Alice Elliot, 2021-04-06 What does migration look like from the inside out In The Outside Alice Elliot decenters conventional approaches to migration by focusing on places of departure rather than arrival and rethinks migration from the perspective of those who have not yet left Through an intimate ethnography of towns and villages notorious in Morocco for their striking emigration to the outside Elliot traces the powerful ways migration permeates life as brutal bureaucratic machinery administering hope and despair as intimate force crisscrossing kinship relations and bonds of love and care as imaginative horizon of the self and of the future Challenging dominant understandings of migration and their deadly consequences by centering non migrants sharp theorizations and intimate experiences of the outside Elliot recasts migration as a deeply relational entity and attends to the ethnographic conceptual and political imagination required by the constitutive relationship between migration and life

Textures of Power Florence Bernault, Benoît Henriët, Emery Kalema, 2025-05-27 Central Africa has long been a fertile ground for engendering new concepts and innovative research exerting significant influence on African studies and beyond This edited volume offers groundbreaking multidisciplinary reflections on power in Central Africa from the Atlantic slave trade era to the present By bringing together emerging and leading scholars Textures of Power builds on the rich epistemic legacies of Central African studies and opens new research avenues across history anthropology and cultural and political studies It offers fresh perspectives on colonial and postcolonial power structures drawing on new findings while critically engaging with earlier theoretical frameworks Employing the concept of texture as a red thread the book showcases the central importance of power as an analytical tool in the humanities and the social sciences It fosters dialogues between emotions and technology colonialism and its aftermath and between non humans and the invisible world Drawing on stories about women social rebellions digital technologies slavery languages forest management charms care and bio medicine urban life radio music witchcraft homosexuality and environmental pollution this volume emphasizes bottom up long term and emic approaches as well as local theories about power This work will appeal to students and scholars in African studies colonial and postcolonial studies and those interested in Africa's longue durée history Beyond its spatial focus it will also be relevant to those studying power dynamics cultural studies queer and gender studies and environmental humanities

the 2019 ASCA Book Award Participation is the utopian sweet dream that has turned into a nightmare in contemporary neoliberal societies Yet can the participatory ideal be discarded or merely replaced with another term just because it has become disemboweled into a tool of pacification The gestures of participatory art insists that the concept of participation must be re imagined and shifted onto other registers Moving from reflections on institutional critique and impact to concrete analyses of moments of unsolicited delicate participation and refusal the book examines a range of artistic practices from India Sudan Guatemala and El Salvador the Lebanon the Netherlands and Germany It proposes the concept of the gesture as a way of theorising participatory art situating it between the visual and the performing arts as both individual and collective both internal attitude and social habitude Embodying Black Religions in Africa and Its Diasporas Yolanda

Covington-Ward, Jeanette S. Jouili, 2021-08-09 The contributors to Embodying Black Religions in Africa and Its Diasporas investigate the complex intersections between the body religious expression and the construction and negotiation of social relationships and collective identities throughout the Black diaspora Migration and the Global Landscapes of Religion

David Garbin, 2023-06-29 This book draws upon case studies of the Congolese Christian diaspora in the UK and US and an ethnography of religious urbanization in the Democratic Republic of Congo DRC to explore the making of religious spaces and moral landscapes in an era of globalization Religion is a key aspect of the community social and political life of Congolese migrants many of whom have to address the predicaments of displacement relocation and the status of being a minority within a minority as Francophone black African migrants in English speaking countries The book demonstrates the role of religion in the production of moral worlds and the ways in which for Congolese Christians this process both results from and facilitates a process of regrounding in the midst of ambivalent urban environments Through a multi sited ethnography the book also examines the impact of transnational religious practices on development and city making in the homeland in a context of increasing informalization and infrastructural deficit Drawing on extensive ethnographic data David Garbin captures the nuances of a complex and changing social political and religious landscape for Congolese migrants relying on the construction of moral worlds and revealing the role of a range of connections but also disconnections between diaspora and homeland across multiple scales An essential resource for scholars and researchers interested in the intersections of religion migration and urbanization in both Global North and Global South contexts Art of Peace Formation Oliver P.

Richmond, Stefanie Kappler, Birte Vogel, 2024-04-30 Artpeace represents a conceptual framing of the synergy between the arts and peacemaking as well as a methodological strategy for addressing war and political conflict through the arts Developing the concept of artpeace this book investigates how local art projects in seven locations across Africa Asia Europe and Latin America have played a role in broader national peace projects And it examines the blockages that at times prevent the arts from making a tangible difference to the variations of peace being designed Colonial Legacies Gabriella

Nugent, 2021-12-15 In Colonial Legacies Gabriella Nugent examines a generation of contemporary artists born or based in the Congo whose lens based art attends to the afterlives and mutations of Belgian colonialism in postcolonial Congo Focusing on three artists and one artist collective Nugent analyses artworks produced by Sammy Baloji Mich le Magma Georges Senga and Kongo Astronauts each of whom offers a different perspective onto this history gleaned from their own experiences In their photography and video art these artists rework existent images and redress archival absences making visible people and events occluded from dominant narratives Their artworks are shown to offer a re reading of the colonial and immediate post independence past blurring the lines of historical and speculative knowledge documentary and fiction Nugent demonstrates how their practices create a new type of visual record for the future one that attests to the ramifications of colonialism across time
