If Not Now, When? Stephanie Marston, 2001-04-10 Midlife is a wake up call that requires we pay attention to where we stand in our lives. It is a time of intense reevaluation. Yet it is also a time of immense opportunity from which every woman can emerge a new person. Now in one of the first books to address the spiritual, emotional, and psychological dimensions of the midlife transition, acclaimed family therapist Stephanie Marston acts as a midwife to help women make it the extraordinary and transformative rite of passage it can be.

If Not Now, When? Primo Levi, 2017-06-20 In the final days of World War II, a band of Jewish partisans makes its way from Russia to Italy, moving toward the ultimate goal of Palestine. Based on a true story, the novel chronicles their adventures as they wage a personal war of revenge against the Nazis, blowing up trains, rescuing the last victims of concentration camps, scoring victories in the face of unspeakable devastation. Primo Levi captures the landscape and the people of Eastern Europe in vivid detail, depicting as well the terrible bleakness of war-ridden Europe. But finally, what he gives us is a tribute to the strength and ingenuity of the human spirit.

If Not Now, When? Esther Rantzen, 2014-03-27 TV personality, founder of Childline, writer, and broadcaster Esther Rantzen has spent her life tirelessly campaigning on behalf of children and mental health sufferers. In this personal and anecdotal handbook, she turns her attention to the baby boomer and shows how ultimately reaching your fifties and beyond is just the beginning. Starting from her own experiences, whether it be her childhood, the death of her husband, her battle with prejudice against women in the media, laughter, and the love of friends, irritations with brainless ageism, the importance of travel, sex, and good health, all is of huge relevance and will give the fifty-something-plus-year-old a huge jolt of recognition or a shocked gasp or a laugh. Interspersed with practical advice and the occasional nostalgic rant, this is a fun celebration and an inspiration for the nation's 17 million baby boomers.

If Not Now ... Denyse Devlin, 2008-04-24 Just when she has resigned herself to being alone long-term, Marina Ffrench, a widow in her forties, meets a man and falls in love all over again. A mid-life relationship she thinks will be straightforward: kids, reared careers, established mortgages almost paid off. However, mid-life passion carries excess baggage. Luke, her man, may have a gorgeous villa on the Italian Lakes, but he also has a pious and eccentric Irish mammy, an Italian ex-lover who is as invasive as dry rot, and a son embroiled in a suspect engagement. And Marina has to admit that her own life is just as complicated and getting more so by the day, given the number of stray souls and ghosts from the past that are turning up in her Cork home. Gradually, she and Luke come to see that love, second time around, is hard work. But in their efforts to find a happy ending for everyone, unwittingly, they are creating a disaster that may destroy their shared future and the happiness of both families.
