UNCONDITIONAL Franklin Wiley,2007-12-17 We live in a world where many live by the what have you done for me lately philosophy Love care and concern is based on what a person has done for them who that person is or for what they can get out of a situation We are self centered in our love as a society Against this kind of love comes unconditional love It is the kind of love that expresses itself to everyone no matter who they are no matter what they have done and expects nothing in return When Jesus Christ walked the earth as the God man this was the kind of love he exhibited to others His death on the cross is God s ultimate expression of unconditional love As we live Christian lives the call is upon us to practice unconditional love just as God does This generation desperately needs to experience genuine unselfish Godly love In

UNCONDITIONAL the author chronicles his journey seeking to practice unconditional love sometimes successfully sometimes struggling May his journey inspire the reader to be God s example of His unconditional love Boston's Historic Park Street Church Garth M. Rosell, This enthralling and beautiful book tells the story of one of America s most important Protestant churches Sticky Faith Service Guide Kara Powell,Brad M. Griffin,2016-02-02 Anyone who serves teenagers today knows that more and more young people are eager to make a difference in the world When students participate in short term missions service and justice causes parents and youth leaders hope these experiences will lead to real transformation But research shows that our efforts don t always stick If we truly want short term work to translate into long term change leaders and students must spend more time before during and after service projects preparing for and processing their experiences The sessions in this leader s guide will help you create experiences that stick both for the students you take and the communities you serve This guidebook offers a host of practical and field tested exercises for each phase of your experience whether it s a half day local service project or a two week trip overseas Participants will engage in hands on experiences to gain new insights about themselves their relationship with God their teammates and the world we re called to love and serve Each of these steps is a catalyst in helping students apply what they have learned in the field to their own lives back at home Also included are ideas to help get parents and the whole church engaged in service together A companion student journal is also available to boost the potential for personal application throughout the journey
