Get Real Documentary Theatre Past And Present Performance Interventions:

Get Real A. Forsyth, C. Megson, 2009-04-08 Over the past two decades theatre practitioners across the West have turned to documentary modes of performance making to confront new socio political realities The essays in this book place this work in context exploring historical and contemporary examples of documentary and verbatim theatre and applying a range of critical perspectives Authenticity in Contemporary Theatre and Performance Daniel Schulze, 2017-03-23

Authenticity is one of the major values of our time It is visible everywhere from clothing to food to self help books While it is such a prevalent phenomenon it is also very evasive This study analyses the culture of authenticity as it relates to theatre and establishes a theoretical framework for analysis Daniel Schulz argues that authenticity is sought out and marked by the individual and springs from a culture that is perceived as inherently fake and lacking depth The study examines three types of performances that exemplify this structure of feeling intimate theatre seen in Forced Entertainment productions such as Quizoola 1996 2015 as well as one on one performances such as Oentroerend Goed's Internal 2009 immersive theatres as illustrated by Punchdrunk's shows The Masque of the Red Death 2007 and The Drowned Man 2013 which provide a visceral sensate understanding for audiences finally the study scrutinises the popular category of documentary theatre through various examples such as Robin Soan's Talking to Terrorists 2005 David Hare's Stuff Happens 2004 Edmund Burke's Black Watch 2007 and Dennis Kelly's pseudo documentary play Taking Care of Baby 2007 It is specifically the value of the document that lends such performances their truth value and consequently their authenticity The study analyses how the success of these disparate categories of performance can be explained through a common concern with notions of truth and authenticity It argues that this hunger for authentic unmediated experience is characteristic of a structure of feeling that has superseded postmodernism and that actively seeks to resignify artistic and cultural practices of the everyday The

Routledge Companion to Gender, Sex and Latin American Culture Frederick Luis Aldama, 2018-05-24 The Routledge Companion to Gender Sex and Latin American Culture is the first comprehensive volume to explore the intersections between gender sexuality and the creation consumption and interpretation of popular culture in the Americas The chapters seek to enrich our understanding of the role of pop culture in the everyday lives of its creators and consumers primarily in the 20th and 21st centuries They reveal how popular culture expresses the historical social cultural and political commonalities that have shaped the lives of peoples that make up the Americas and also highlight how pop culture can conform to and solidify existing social hierarchies whilst on other occasions contest and resist the status quo Front and center in this collection are issues of gender and sexuality making visible the ways in which subjects who inhabit intersectional identities sex gender race class are othered as well as demonstrating how these same subjects can and do use pop cultural phenomena in self affirmative and progressively transformative ways Topics covered in this volume include TV film pop and performance art hip hop dance slam poetry gender fluid religious ritual theater stand up comedy graffiti
