Reading the Two Books of God Thomas W. Mann, 2022-09-29 Thomas W. Mann is a biblical scholar and retired parish minister and the author of numerous books and articles. He is particularly interested in how experiences in nature prompt theological reflection based in the Bible, shaping our sense of sacred time and place and how the lectionary readings of the church year also provide a spiritual calendar for the seasons of our lives. The result is a conversation inspired by poets and writers like Mary Oliver, Wendell Berry, and John Muir, but also by philosophers and theologians ranging from Abraham Joshua Heschel to David Kelsey. Along the way, we enter beach time and take backpacking trips in the Sierras, but also join the triumphal entry parade on Palm Sunday and listen to the stable animals on Christmas Eve. We perceive the beauty of creation through the eyes of science as well as religion, sensually as well as intellectually. We celebrate our communion with all creatures, from fungus to forests, inspired with awe and reverence and with a responsibility to care for the earth so threatened by climate change. Children's Liturgy of the Word 2014-2015 Maureen A. Kelly, 2014-04-01 Children's Liturgy of the Word provides prayer leaders with everything they need to lead children in a prayerful celebration of the Word. Closely following the structure of the liturgy celebrated in the main assembly, this resource invites children to experience God's
