Heresy and Heterotopia in Works by Lawrence Durrell Anne R. Zahlan, Isabelle Keller-Privat, 2025-03-15 Heresy and Heterotopia in Works by Lawrence Durrell Alexandria to Angkor Wat gathers new essays by international scholars who examine heretical concepts and heterotopian counter spaces in Durrell's thought and writing The volume includes studies of texts set in locations from the Mediterranean to Cambodia with spatial focus ranging from the Egypt of The Alexandria Quartet and of Anatole France's Thaïs to the scattered locations of The Avignon Quintet with stops along the way for the island books and other treatments of wandering and exile in poetry as well as prose The contributors approach Durrell's texts from a variety of perspectives philosophical and intertextual architectural and historical mystical and digital In so doing they expose the deeper echoes set off by his wide ranging literary production and map out the metaphysical literary and aesthetic connections that account for Durrell's impact on our understanding of those twentieth century social and cultural paradigms that foreshadow the disruptions of today's world Twenty-First-Century Perspectives on British Travel Writing Samia Ounoughi, Emmanuelle Peraldo, Anne-Florence Quaireau, 2025-03-11 Twenty First Century Perspectives on British Travel Writing evidences the evolution of travel writing studies over the last two decades and points to innovative ways to study this heterogeneous genre This volume seeks to build bridges between the study of travel writing and disciplines of sciences and human sciences so that the analyses of travel texts images and objects lead to interdisciplinary enrichment This volume

revisits the complicated relationship between fact and fiction science and literature and the world and the word through transdisciplinary approaches Through case studies of British travel writing from the eighteenth to the twenty first centuries the contributors provide illustrations of the fruitful intersection of travel writing studies with other methodologies such as literary studies gender studies postcolonial studies visual studies areal studies engineering studies food studies animal studies ecocriticism posthumanism and geocriticism Literatures of War Eve Patten, Richard Pine, 2020-11-09 The most terrible disaster that one group of human beings can inflict on another is war Wars cause misery on an indescribable scale Yet we go on doing it to one another generation after generation Why Warfare is a recurrent and universal characteristic of human existence The mythologies of practically all peoples abound in wars and the superhuman deeds of warriors and pre literate communities apparently delighted in the recital of stories about battles Since our species became literate a mere 5 000 years ago written history has mostly been the history of wars Thousands who knew war evidently sickened of it and dreamt of lasting peace expressing their vision in literature and art in philosophy and religion They imagined Utopias freed of martial ambition and bloodshed which harked back to the Golden Age of classical antiquity to the Christian vision of a paradise lost and to the Arcadia of Greek and Latin poetry so richly celebrated in the canvases of Claude and Poussin All these things bear eloquent testimony to the human longing for peace but they have not triumphed over our dreadfully powerful propensity to war from the Introduction by Anthony Stevens In this multi disciplinary collection of essays on the manifestations of war in poetry fiction drama music and documentaries scholars and practitioners from an international context describe the transformation of the war experience into chronicles of hope and despair from Herodotus up to the present day Lawrence Durrell, Postmodernism and the Ethics of Alterity Stefan Herbrechter, 1999 This book is of interest for any reader wishing to explore the interface between literature and critical and cultural theory It investigates the notions of alterity which underlie the work of Lawrence Durrell and postmodernist theory Grass Irmgard Elsner Hunt

Lawrence Durrell and the Greek World Anna Lillios, 2004-02 Novelist Lawrence Durrell s fondness for his adopted homeland of Greece led him to declare I m a Greek and profoundly influenced his work Attempting to capture the scope of the Greek world s relationship with Durrell s life and work Lillios English U of Central Florida presents 22 papers that approach the topic from a range of perspectives After a number of reminiscences of Durrell by family and friends a set of essays are organized by place examining Durrell s relationship with Corfu Alexandria Rhodes and Cyprus The remaining essays are grouped according to theme discussing such issues as the influence of myth and other Greek inspirations on Durrell s novels poems and other work Distributed by Associated University Presses Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com The Durrells Richard Bradford, 2025-06-05 A variously tragic tale of escapism and assimilation Richard Bradford s The Durrells explores the truth behind the image The Durrells are probably the most celebrated literary family of the 20th century Gerald turned them into celebrities with his tripartite memoir beginning with

My Family and Other Animals 1956 which told of his experiences with his widowed mother Louisa and three siblings during their time in 1930s Corfu We know of the Durrells from their own writings and from the image of them created by TV film and biographical accounts of specific figures What we do not know is the truth Using previously unpublished material from the Jersey Archive Richard Bradford unravels the lives of the famous four children of the Corfu era Larry Gerry Margo and Lesli as they find themselves geographically and emotionally divided amongst a backdrop of imperial decline and unrest The children of moneyed colonialists they were already used to being treated with aghast fascination by the island's locals and by expatriate Britons as a disgrace to the homeland Yet their story goes beyond the Ionian Sea and The Durrells delves into the complex social and political circumstances in which the family lived with seemingly constant threats of war and endangerment to both themselves and their natural environment

Creativity, Madness and Civilisation

Richard Pine, 2021-04-16 What is creativity And what is madness How far can we interpret an artist's work through our knowledge of his or her mental state and how far can we infer a mental state from a work of art When does a work of art cease to be a personal statement by the artist and become a matter of public concern The contributions to this book attempt to answer some of these questions They come from a wide range of disciplines and experiences a practising psychiatrist a practising artist suffering from reactive depression and critics working in literature film music and the visual arts The essays include discussions of the myth of creativity the music of Robert Schumann the borders of sanity in the writing of Lawrence Durrell the insane truth of Virginia Woolf the meeting of doctor and patient in the poetry of Anne Sexton mood disorders in the fiction of David Foster Wallace love and madness in the poetry of Hafiz of Shiraz and the paintings of Adolf Wölfli Central to this discussion of creativity madness and civilisation is the difficulty of establishing an appropriate and effective vocabulary and mindset between critics and clinical psychiatrists which would enable them to work together in understanding mental disturbance in creative artists

Durrell and the City

Donald P. Kaczvinsky, 2012 Durrell and the City commemorates the fiftieth anniversary of the publication of The Alexandria Quartet with a collection of fourteen new essays by a group of international scholars and critics The collection provides a critical consideration of Durrell's urban landscapes from the London of his early novels to Avignon during World War II in his last great series while focusing on the place that made him famous the city of Alexandria in order to provide a reassessment of his career and achievement

Lawrence Durrell's Poetry Isabelle Keller-Privat, 2019-04-25 This book offers the first in depth analysis of Lawrence Durrell's entire poetic opus from his early collections in the 1940s up to his last one published in 1973 Thirty years of Durrellian poetry are brought together in order to unveil the genesis of Durrell's writing both poetic and fictional drawing links to his novels and residence books which he kept writing at the same time Durrell thus appears as first and foremost one of the greatest late modernist poets whose literary and epistemological investigations are to be understood in the light of a worldwide network of literary brotherhoods including T S Eliot Michael Fraenkel Henry Miller and David Gascoyne Simultaneously this book shows why Durrell must also be read as the heir to the greatest English romantic poets Byron Shelley Keats and Wordsworth as well as to the French symbolists and modernists from Baudelaire to Nerval Valéry and Cendrars This comparative approach opens up a brand new perspective on Durrell that has not yet been broached by North American and English scholarship The symbolic patterns the stylistic ploys and the aesthetic and philosophic tenets that characterize Durrell's poetics account for the necessary back and forth reading that connects prose and poetry the fictional and the lyrical the descriptive and the abstract Poetry excerpts extracts from his residence books novels and essays highlight not only Durrell's complex literary strategies but also the ontological quest of a writer who although never at home with the world he lived in strove to create a life world what semiologists call the Umwelt

Larry Michael Haag, 2025-07-03 Highly readable and elegant Spectator Lawrence Durrell was unquestionably one of the most distinctive original and compelling literary figures of his age From his childhood in India and Burma to his bohemian youth in London and Paris from his madcap scheme to move his family to Corfu to the formative war years spent in Alexandria this masterful and richly detailed biography is essential reading to understand the man and the writer In Larry Michael Haag the world's foremost expert on the Durrells brought together his unrivalled knowledge and first hand meetings with the Durrell family and associates to offer the definitive account of the young Lawrence and the real life settings and stories that inspired his acknowledged masterpiece The Alexandria Quartet

Hydra and the Bananas of Leonard Cohen Roger Green, 2009-04-30 English poet Roger Green left the safety of God country and whiskey to immerse himself in an austere and sober life on the Greek Island of Hydra But when Green discovered that his terrace overlooked the garden of sixties balladeer Leonard Cohen he became obsessed with Cohen's songs wives and banana tree Hydra starts with a poem the author wrote and recited for his fifty seventh birthday borrowing the meter of Cohen's Suzanne and ripe with references to the song with Cohen's ex partner Suzanne who may or may not be the subject of Cohen's song in the audience By turns playful and philosophic Green's unconventional memoir tells the story of his journey down the rabbit hole of obsession as he confronts the meaning of poetry history and his own life Beginning as a poetic meditation upon Leonard Cohen s bananas Green s bardic pilgrimage takes the reader on various twists and turns until at last the poet accepts the joy of accepting his fate

God Gardened East Louis A. Ruprecht Jr.,2008-01-01 Working within two popular genres gardening books and biblical meditations God Gardened East offers a meditation on the first twenty five chapters of Genesis emphasizing the tropes of cultivation wandering and the east Reconceived in a post 9 11 environment Ruprecht wrestles with difficult questions about the violent legacy of monotheism and traces some of this violence back to the foundational story of Abraham and his dislocation from his homeland

The Heraldic World of Lawrence Durrell Bruce Redwine,2022-03-02 Lawrence Durrell s position as one of the twentieth century s leading novelists is continually being enlarged and revised This book presents unusual and unorthodox explorations of Alexandria the city at the heart of Durrell s writing his family relationships his biographer Michael Haag and his affinity with such diverse writers as Rilke and Virgil In particular it offers an insight into Durrell s emotions and sensibilities in elaborating his Sicilian Carousel and a penetrating and totally unique reading of Durrell s Alexandria Quartet in the light of the art and landscape of ancient Egypt
