J. Soloman Sanderson,2025-02-05 Growing up in a Christian home and community I had so many questions When someone dies for example a young mother and leaves her children behind in some cases without a father we would often say God puts her to rest In my youthful mind I found myself asking How could a loving God do such a terrible thing It became rather clear that most of us Christians do not realize that as in all relationships time must be spent getting to know and understand the one with whom we endeavor to have that relationship and therefore spend the time getting to know and understand the God in whom we wish to relate When we do we will not see Him as cruel and demanding We would not see Him as one who takes life but rather gives it It gives me real joy and excitement to tell everyone I possibly can of a beautiful and loving God whose only desire is to save us to give life not death Someone else is responsible for all the evils of this world certainly not my God Jesus plainly told His disciples that He did not come to destroy men's life but to save them Luke 9 54 56 Do you know that God has a problem Yes He does God's biggest problem is saving those He loves In order to save us He must first destroy sin However because His children are infected with this disease if He destroys sin He would be destroying His children also Do you see God's problem In order to save us He must first separate us from sin The big question is Are we willing to allow Him Most of us want to be saved but we are not willing to be separated from sin Our loving God has given us the choice All we need to do is make the right choice choose Him He will do the rest That choice is recorded in the book of Deuteronomy 30 15 19 He says See I have set before thee this day life and good death and evil I call heaven and earth to record this day against you that I have set before you life and death blessing and cursing therefore choose life that both thou and thy seed may live The power of choice is in our hands It is left to us to make it
