Saliba, 2018-09-24 Originally published in 1987 this title was compiled in response to the concern in some segments of society about the presence of new religious movements in the West in the second half of the twentieth century There are lots of psychological questions surrounding cults and the influence they have over their members These questions have been operative in the accumulation of this annotated bibliography which was intended primarily as a reference guide for psychiatrists and counsellors who advise cult members ex cult members and their bewildered parents and lawyers who use psychiatric arguments in the courts Theology and the Cure of Souls Frederic Greeves, 2016-02-04 The Hibbert Journal, 1957 Zen-Existentialism Lit-sen Chang, 2011-07-21 Modern man has found that material achievements are failing him but in his

Essays on Christian Psychiatry Pine Rest Christian Hospital, The New Christian Advocate ,1956 Integrative Approaches to Psychology and Christianity, Fourth Edition David N. Entwistle,2021-11-03 Since the first edition of Integrative Approaches to Psychology and Christianity was published in 2004 this has become the standard textbook on the topic Now in its fully revised fourth edition Dr Entwistle s book elucidates historical philosophical and practical issues in the integration of psychology and Christianity As in previous editions the current text provides an introduction to many of the worldview issues and philosophical foundations that frame the relationship of psychology and theology includes scholarly reflection on the integration literature and surveys six models of possible relationships between psychology and Christianity ranging from those that are completely opposed to either religion or psychology to intermediate models that assert that some limited interaction between them is possible to viewpoints which suggest that a Christian worldview approach can be used to provide a context for exploring areas of overlapping interest between psychology and Christianity The current edition considers recent advances in both Catholic and Protestant thinking on integration including contemporary questions about what evangelicalism is and is not that shape evangelical reactions to the integration debate New content ranges from information about the contrasting views of Tertullian and Augustine to insights from contemporary psychology about factors that adversely affect the quality and reliability of human thinking to how conflict over COVID 19 has entered contemporary religious debate The book is designed to help readers become aware of the presuppositional backdrops that each of us brings to these issues Questions at the end of each chapter are included to help readers evaluate both the material and their own burgeoning approach to integration This book is ideal as a textbook for students of psychology and other behavioral and social sciences social work sociology theology counseling pastoral counseling at both the graduate and undergraduate level It is also written for the broader readership of psychologists counselors pastors and others who are interested in integration

Trust in an Age of Arrogance C. FitzSimons Allison,2010-01-01 God is in the dock Shall we convict him or forgive him Shall we replace the God of Scripture with another of our choosing mock and deride him or ignore him Shall we replace revelation with the chaos of speculation We perceive ourselves rather than God as the center of the world and this universal condition leads to conflict with others and with God Maintaining our center causes cheating lying litigation divorce wars genocide and human misery Western civilization is giving up trust in the promise of God s mercy justice and forgiveness and replacing it with trust in the goodness of man Jesus warned us to beware the teaching of the Sadducees and Pharisees The Sadducees who denied hope of eternal life are a rough equivalent of our modern day secularists with their religious trust that this world is all there is Replacing God with trust in flawed human nature is a mark of arrogance that even pagans would have characterized as hubris evoking divine wrath The Pharisee s yeast of self righteousness is a natural condition of us all Even when cleansed it reappears in every tradition rendering forgiveness and transformation a promise only for those who think they have earned and deserve it Such a distortion of God s word is congenial to our self as center but it robs us sinners of the justice and mercy of a loving God Following Jesus s warning we have the opportunity to wipe away the Sadducee arrogance and the Pharisee self righteousness and discover anew the supreme power and joy of the Christian faith

Christianity and Depression Tasia Scrutton,2020-02-28 Offering a theological and biblical account of depression this book considers how depression has been understood and interpreted by Christians and how plausible and pastorally helpful these understandings are It offers an important and well informed resource for those with or preparing for positions of pastoral responsibility within the Christian Church The Cumulative Book Index ,1913 The Spectator ,1887

Psychiatry in Pastoral Practice William Lovell Northridge,1968 A Theology of Christian Counseling Jay E. Adams,2010-08-10 Connecting sound biblical doctrine to the practice of effective counseling Jay E Adams vocal advocate of a strictly biblical approach to counseling and author of the highly influential book Competent to Counsel firmly believes that the Bible itself provides all the principles needed for understanding and engaging in holistic counseling But in order to bring the practice of counseling whether by professional therapists or by the church under biblical guidance we first have to deepen our understanding of Scripture A Theology of Christian Counseling is the connection between solid theology the study of God and its practical application Each of its sections are devoted to increasing our understanding of counseling s potential by looking at it through the lens of doctrines such as Prayer and the doctrine of God Human Sin and the doctrine of Man Redemption and the doctrine of Salvation Forgiveness and the doctrine of Sanctification No counseling system that is based on some other foundation can begin to offer what Christian counseling offers No matter what the problem is no matter how greatly sin has abounded the Christian counselor s stance is struck by the far more abounding nature of the grace of Jesus Christ in redemption What a difference this makes in counseling Jay E Adams With this book you ll gain insight into the rich theological framework that supports and directs your approach to how you help people change
