Christian Romance Willing To Sacrifice A Contemporary Christian Romance:

Contemporary Christian Travel Amos S. Ron, Dallen J. Timothy, 2018-11-01 This book is the first to examine the depth complexity and uniqueness of global Christian pilgrimage travel and tourism and how they manifest in terms of both supply and demand It explores the places and spaces of production and consumption of this increasingly important tourism phenomenon The volume considers the foundational elements of the attractiveness of places according to Christian thinking spirit of place scriptural connections art and architecture contrived themed environments programmed events volunteer travel opportunities and visiting local communities by way of solidarity tourism and mission work It includes a wide range of examples from Europe the Middle East Asia Africa Latin America and North America and will be of interest to researchers and students in religious studies tourism pilgrimage studies geography anthropology and Christianity studies The Seductiveness of Virtue John J. Fitzgerald, 2016-12-15 John J Fitzgerald addresses here one of life's enduring questions how to achieve personal fulfillment and more specifically whether we can do so through ethical conduct He focuses on two significant twentieth century theologians Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel and Pope John Paul II seeing both as fitting dialogue partners given the former's influence on the Second Vatican Council's deliberations on the Jews and the latter's groundbreaking overtures to the Jews in the wake of his experiences in Poland before and during World War II Fitzgerald demonstrates that Heschel and John Paul II both suggest that doing good generally leads us to growth in various components of personal fulfillment such as happiness meaning in life and freedom from selfish desires There are however some key differences between the two theologians John Paul II emphasizes more strongly the relationship between acting well and attaining eternal life whereas Heschel wrestles more openly with the possibility that religious commitment ultimately involves anxiety and sadness By examining historical and contemporary analyses including the work of the Fourteenth Dalai Lama the philosopher Peter Singer and some present day psychologists Fitzgerald builds a narrative that shows the promise and limits of Heschel's and John Paul II's views The Christian Leader, 1924 Sacred Fury Charles Selengut, 2017-01-12 From ISIS attacks to the conflict between Israel and Palestine Sacred Fury explores the connections between faith and violence in world religions Author Charles Selengut looks at religion as both a force for peace and for violence and he asks key questions such as how religious is this violence and what drives the faithful to attack in the names of their beliefs Revised throughout the third edition features new material on violence in Buddhism and Hinduism the rise of ISIS lone wolf terrorists and more This up to date edition draws on a variety of disciplines to comprehend forms of religious violence both historically and in the present day The third edition of Sacred Fury is an essential resource for understanding the connections between faith and violence God as Sacrificial Love Asle Eikrem, 2018-01-25 In dialogue with a range of post enlightenment critiques of Christian theologies regarding sacrificial love Asle Eikrem presents an unconventional systematic approach to this multi layered and complex theological topic From Hegel to prominent 20th century theologians from feminist theologies to postmodern philosophers this volume engages in a critical conversation with a host of different voices on all the classical topics in theology creation trinity incarnation atonement sin faith sacraments and eschatology also providing a moral and socio historical vision for Christian living The result is a unique appraisal of the significance that the life and death of Jesus holds for the world today The Modern Christian's Happiness Plan James D. Baird,2000 The purpose of this book is to set forth a user friendly plan with practical methods for change such that happiness habits become part of every day life Everyday Religion Nancy T. Ammerman,2006-12-14 Social scientists sometimes seem not to know what to do with religion In the first century of sociology s history as a discipline the reigning concern was explaining the emergence of the modern world and that brought with it an expectation that religion would simply fade from the scene as societies became diverse complex and enlightened As the century approached its end however a variety of global phenomena remained dramatically unexplained by these theories Among the leading contenders for explanatory power to emerge at this time were rational choice theories of religious behavior Researchers who have spent time in the field observing religious groups and interviewing practitioners however have questioned the sufficiency of these market models Studies abound that describe thriving religious phenomena that fit neither the old secularization paradigm nor the equations predicting vitality only among organizational entrepreneurs with strict orthodoxies In this collection of previously unpublished essays scholars who have been immersed in field research in a wide variety of settings draw on those observations from the field to begin to develop more helpful ways to study religion in modern lives The authors examine how religion functions on the ground in a pluralistic society how it is experienced by individuals and how it is expressed in social institutions Taken as a whole these essays point to a new approach to the study of religion one that emphasizes individual experience and social context over strict categorization and data collection The Christian Union Henry Ward Beecher,1884 Agape, Justice, and Law Robert F. Cochran,Zachary R. Calo,2017-05-25 This book addresses key contemporary legal debates from the perspective of the central Christian ethical category of love agape Christian Nation ,1925 Modern Christian Theology Christopher Ben Simpson,2020-01-09 Christopher Ben Simpson tells the story of modern Christian theology against the backdrop of the history of modernity itself The book tells the many ways that theology became modern while seeing how modernity arose in no small part from theology These intertwined stories progress through four parts In Part I Emerging Modernity Simpson goes from the beginnings of modernity in the late Middle Ages through the Protestant Reformation and Renaissance Humanism to the creative tension between Enlightenments and Awakenings of the eighteenth century Part II The Long Nineteenth Century presents the great movements and figures arising out of these creative tension from Romanticism and Schleiermacher to Ritschlianism and Vatican I Part III Twentieth Century Crisis and Modernity proceeds through the revolutionary theologies of period of the World Wars such as that of Karl Barth or nouvelle theologie this part includes a thorough section on modern Eastern Orthodox theology Finally Part IV The Late Modern Supernova lays out the diverse panoply of recent theologies from the various liberation theologies to the revisionist the secular the postliberal and the postsecular Designed for classroom use this volume includes the following features boxes chart diagrams visual organizations of the information presented included throughout e g lists of key points visual organizations of systematic ideas in a given thinker lists of significant works lists of significant dates brief outlines of the basic structure of some major theological works both a one page chapter title table of the contents and an expanded multipage table of contents chapter at a glance overview outline at the beginning of each chapter specific references to secondary works and key primary works in English translation at the end of chapters The Christian Union, 1884 Troubling the Canon of Citizenship Education George H.

Richardson, David W. Blades, 2006 The discourse of civic education privileges liberal democratic understandings of citizenship Yet we know that such understandings do not accurately represent the complex plural and problematic nature of citizenship in contemporary society To stimulate discussion about new possibilities for teaching citizenship this volume brings together the work of Canadian and American curriculum scholars to trouble the existing canon of citizenship education Addressing themes as diverse as gender sexual orientation globalization agency ontology and interdisciplinarity the essays that make up this collection seek to enlarge and expand upon the ways educators curriculum developers and policymakers might approach teaching citizenship Sacrifice and Modern Thought Julia Meszaros, Johannes Zachhuber, 2013-09 Leading specialists in theology anthropology religious studies and history elucidate the modern debate about sacrifice from interest shown in the sixteenth century through to the present day Individual chapters discuss anthropological theories theological controversies philosophical interpretations and literary uses of sacrifice International Journal of Religious Education, 1939

From Culture Wars to Common Ground, 2000-01-01 What is the status of the American family How is it changing Are these changes making anything better What is the future of the family Does religion offer a positive answer Not since Habits of the Heart has one book confronted these important issues with such personal and societal impact This groundbreaking study argues for the creation of a new family ethic that must be central to the agendas of both contemporary society and the church The Family Culture and Religion series offers informed and responsible analyses of the state of the American family from a religious perspective and provides practical assistance for the family's revitalization Modern Christian Revivals Randall Herbert Balmer, 1993 Beginning with the Great Awakening in the American colonies and continuing through contemporary Latin America where revolution and revivalism have been central to sociopolitical change Modern Christian Revivals demonstrates the enduring relevance of Christian revivalism Half of the contributors focus on the United States from Puritan New England through the Old South to Billy Graham and Pat Robertson the others discuss revivalism in England Norway China and Canada chronicling influential as well as less frequently studied movements This volume explores long held assumptions about revivalism and illustrates its central role in the Christian tradition Pillar of Fire, 1927
