Maternal Ambivalence Margo Lowy PhD,2025-03-25 Picture yourself as a young mother with a three year old daughter and a newborn at the playground In the moment you ve turned to the diaper bag your toddler disappears at first all you can feel is terror and then instinctively you look up and there she is at the top of the slide looking so proud of herself At this moment you might find yourself deluged with conflicting feelings including anger and relief and resentment and gratitude and fear and even flashes of hate you told her to wait for you before running off You re overwhelmed by these colliding feelings including the waves of guilt and self blame you feel for all the fuss when everything has turned out just fine This is the experience of maternal ambivalence In Maternal Ambivalence Dr Margo Lowy explores the complex emotional landscape of mothering and the taboo issue of maternal ambivalence arguing that it s actually these darker feelings that most powerfully fuel our love for our children in fact they are the key to being a mother Confronting the many moods of motherhood using them to understand ourselves and our children better and learning the language of ambivalence strengthens our love and leads to its own reward maternal wisdom Throughout her narrative Dr Lowy offers case studies from her professional practice cultural examples from classic and contemporary literature and film and anecdotes from her own experience of mothering children born over three separate decades Maternal Ambivalence both overturns the long held secretive misunderstandings of mothering and reshapes the maternal language of love and self acceptance with a transformative invaluable new point of view Christmas Days Derek McCormack,2005-10-01 What do the doors of Advent calendars conceal Chocolates sometimes or toys Sometimes there are illustrations of chocolates and toys And holly And snow Things that make Christmas Christmas in Canada Embark on a new Yuletide tradition with this Advent calendar in words and images wonderfully illustrated by Seth and with sharp prose by Derek McCormack that captures the Canadian Christmas

Beyond the Innocence of Childhood David Adams, Eleanor Deveau, 2020-11-25 Death is not a mere possibility but a certainty for all of us Yet today's society unrealistically portrays childhood as a time of unremittant joy and freedom Unfortunately the reality of life may suddenly bring children face to face with tragic circumstances such as the death of their pet the terminal illness of their parent their own struggle with life threatening disease the accidental death of their sibling or the suicide of a friend The gravity of any of these situations takes children beyond the innocence of childhood and plunges them into a world that is frightening and full of uncertainty Unfortunately our perceptions and attitudes toward death do not equip children with the tools to help them cope adequately with such overwhelming experiences Beyond the Innocence of Childhood is a collection of forty chapters which are divided into three separate volumes The overall purpose of this series is to answer the question How do we as educators clinicians other professionals and parents help children and adolescents deal with threat to their lives dying death and bereavement In this three volume set the editors have brought together a number of well known educators researchers and practitioners who share their knowledge and expertise concerning the care and well being of children and adolescents

SPECIFIC TO VOLUME 1 Children explore the world around them through spontaneous and later structured learning acquire knowledge learn to understand themselves establish their role in the family develop peer and adult relationships and find their place in the world However today's society does not include death as part of this developmental process Unfortunately such avoidance may negatively influence children's ability to acquire an understanding of the concepts of death and to develop positive attitudes toward death Highlights of this section include Answering children's questions Children and death past present and future Gender differences Teachable moments Perceptions of death cognitive development and children's artwork The second part of volume 1 examines influences in today's society that potentially impact on children and adolescents perceptions and attitudes toward life threatening illness and death This volume offers readers valuable insights into the various factors which ultimately affect children's ability to achieve a mature understanding of death Features include the following Violent death in a popular culture and the media Political conflict and war The epidemic of AIDS Cultural differences in the management of life threatening illness Death rituals and funeral ceremonies
