The pavement is made of large, flat stones with dark, recessed joints. The lighting is bright, casting a shadow of the plant onto the stones to its right.

Cadences Of Home Preaching Among Exiles:

Cadences of Home Walter Brueggemann, 1997-01-01 A powerful perspective about preaching Cadences of Home suggests that sermons must speak to those who are lost and searching for their rightful home Brueggemann argues for a dynamic transformation of preaching to proclaim to the world that there is a home for all people Christ in a Choppie Box Michael Sadgrove, 2015-10-01 An edited collection of sermons preached by Michael Sadgrove during his time as Dean of Durham 2003 2015 Thought provoking and inspiring Foreword by Justin Welby Claiming the Call to Preach Donna Giver-Johnston, 2021-05-25 Few debates divide the contemporary church more than the issue of call The question of who can be called to preach segregates denominations divides people within churches and undermines its public witness Yet curiously little homiletic attention has been paid to the issue of call Because the practice of call has not been subjected to critical inquiry it has taken on power Power lies hidden in the crevices of the question of who can be called to preach power lies in the institutional narrative and approved stories of call power lies in the discordant debates equally in the stifling silence Claiming the Call to Preach critically examines the dominant historical narrative that overtly or covertly has exercised its power to keep women from preaching Donna Giver Johnston here recovers the histories of four notable female preaching pioneers who affected change in the religious landscape of nineteenth century America Jarena Lee Frances Willard Louisa Woosley and Florence Spearing Randolph These women diverse in religion race class and culture each told their story of call in distinctive ways that articulated strong and effective rhetorical arguments for ecclesiastical sanction to give them a place in the pulpit Recovering their rhetorical witness helps to fill in the gaps in the history of preaching in America contribute to research and pedagogies in the field of homiletics and provide today s women and all candidates for ministry with different theological models and narrative strategies by which to effectively interpret and claim their calls to preach These women who spoke truth to power help us reimagine a church today that no longer questions the legitimacy of one s call to preach but endorses previously silenced voices and is therefore strengthened by women s voices from the pulpit A Biblical Theology of Exile Daniel L. Smith-Christopher, The Christian church continues to seek ethical and spiritual models from the period of Israel s monarchy and has avoided the gravity of the Babylonian exile Against this tradition the author argues that the period of focus for the canonical construction of biblical thought is precisely the exile Here the voices of dissent arose and articulated words of truth in the context of failed power Practicing Exile Marc H. Ellis, Faith and struggle pain and promise As a post Holocaust Jewish thinker Marc Ellis inhabits the land between homes that we call exile In this intensely personal work he explores how the religious landscape looks from the perspective of an exile and how religious searching continually leads away from the domestic comforts of received Jewish and Christian platitudes and into new struggles for religious authenticity At once a memoir and an examination of conscience Ellis s autobiographical starting points spark reflections on Jewish Christian relations liberation theology religion and politics and issues of justice in Israel and Palestine

His experiences also occasion meditations on solitude and solidarity gratitude and alienation memory and responsibility They exemplify how religiously committed persons though exiled forever from yesterday's certitudes can yet practice covenantal fidelity In the end for Ellis and for the reader there is no going back Exile is not simply a fact it is a religious imperative At stake is the integrity of the religious search as a truly ecumenical adventure The Sacred Place of Exile Carla Brewington,2013-02-01 The person of exile may be considered a wanderer a nomad a refugee or a rebel People of exile can be the marginalized the disenfranchised the outcast the left out and the pushed away Different terms are used but what defines them all is separation Exile is a dangerous and dominant theme that runs through Scripture through the lives of the people of Israel and through the universal church Women who have known the sacred place of exile are uniquely qualified to form a women's mission The case is made for a momentum shift in missiological thinking There is a desperate and aching need for a women's mission which could lead the way to a women's missionary movement The emergence of such a mission movement is indeed fraught with skepticism and suspicion from many of those inside the church and leaders in the missionary world But the radical disruptive costly following of Jesus to those outside the camp is our calling West Coast Mission Ross A. Lockhart,2024-10-15 Vancouver British Columbia now reports no religion as its leading religious identity putting it in the vanguard of a trend happening across North America What does this mean for the Christian communities that continue to worship work and witness in this mostly secular city West Coast Mission seeks to uncover where Christianity in Vancouver is headed now that it is a minority belief system in the broader culture Drawing on a five year study of fourteen sites including church plants congregations and para church agencies Ross Lockhart describes how Christians in Vancouver are organizing their communities shaping their beliefs and expressing themselves in mission He finds that rather than simply declining Christianity in the city is adapting in response to immigration decolonization pluralism and social crises Christians are focusing on friendship and social connection in a culture that identifies as spiritual not religious on affordable housing as a missional concern on the communal value of environmental stewardship and on sharing the gospel in light of the destructive legacies of colonialism and residential schools West Coast Mission explores the evolving spectrum of religious identity in Vancouver and the significant cultural shifts taking place in how Christian mission and witness are approached in a secular city Christian Faith and Violence 2,2019-12-30 Volumes 10 and 11 of Studies in Reformed Theology consist of the texts written for the fifth international conference of the International Reformed Theological Institute IRTI which was dedicated to the theme Christian Faith and Violence Specific theological questions were at the core of the discussions e g what does violence imply for the doctrine of God How to deal with biblical stories and commands that often contain an overwhelmingly violent character What about applying christian ethics in situations of violence that we are exposed to What is our calling in situations of oppression and a longing for liberation and justice The Bible in Asian America Tat-siong Benny Liew,2023-04-26 In this issue of the journal Semeia readers will find essays less concerned with what the Bible says about Asian American lives than by how Asian Americans read biblical texts Pulling together Asian American historians rhetoricians sociologists biblical scholars and theologians the collection questions assumed understandings and challenges accepted practices of established disciplines in ways that are both transgressive and transformative Essays in the first section deal with the Bible's role in constructing Asian American identity The second section delves into how the Bible is read and interpreted in Asian American literature and churches The third section includes a response Contributors include Antony W Alunkal Rachel A R Bundang Patrick S Cheng Peter Yuichi Clark Eleazar S Fernandez Mary F Foskett Jane Naomi Iwamura Russell M Jeung Eunjoo Mary Kim Jung Ha Kim Uriah Yong Hwan Kim Tat siong Benny Liew Leng Leroy Lim Fumitaka Matsuoka Russell G Moy Henry W Rietz Roy I Sano and Timothy Tseng
