Choosing Motherhood Stories Of Successful Women Who Put Family First:

Choosing Motherhood: Stories of Successful Women Who Put Family First Lia Collings, 2013 Choosing Motherhood Elise Hahl, Lia Collings, Rosalyn C. Eves, 2013 Motherhood or a career Which one truly matters Both are important in their own way but in Choosing Motherhood learn how these bright young LDS women from the Yale community while their peers were putting off motherhood or forgetting it entirely decided to become mothers and make an eternal difference in the lives of their children and their communities Choosing Single Motherhood Mikki Morrisette, 2006-04 The first comprehensive resource book available for women who have chosen or are thinking of choosing single motherhood Based on extensive research advice from child experts and family therapists and conversations with more than one hundred thinkers and single mothers this book funnels twenty five years of hindsight into up to date insight on all aspects of the Choice Motherhood movement From how to answer a child's daddy questions to the pros and cons of using a known donor to how the children of pioneering Choice Moms feel about the lifestyle this book is the one resource needed by every woman who makes this decision Mothers on the Fast Track Mary Ann Mason, Eve Mason Ekman, 2007 Along with her daughter Mason has written a guide for young women who are facing the tough decision of when and if to start a family The result is a roadmap of new choices for women facing the sobering question of how to balance a successful career with family Successful Women Ceramic and Glass Scientists and Engineers Lynnette Madsen, 2016-02-01 Presents a diverse perspective of successful inspirational and progressive women in science and engineering Women of today from 29 countries provide overviews of their successful careers the challenges they faced and offer advice They have lived in the same era and perhaps also the same environment as you Successful Women Ceramic and Glass Scientists and Engineers 100 Inspirational Profiles features women born in the 1920 s to 1970 s Reflecting a diversity of backgrounds and different sectors of the workforce their profiles include Affiliation points of contact accomplishments most cited publication most prestigious recognitions awards etc personal insight on her best career moment Brief biography highlights of her successes images from her career Personal commentary on her own career and pointers for younger scientists building careers This book provides novelty inspiration motivation and a bright perspective for the next generation of scientists and engineers seeking exciting and fulfilling careers This book will be invaluable to mentors professors students and prospective students in science and engineering scholars of gender studies and scientific and engineering societies and organizations Lynnette Madsen has done a great service in writing this book not just for women but for society at large because in the twenty first century we can no longer underutilize or ignore that half of the best Rita Colwell Director United States National Science Foundation 1998 2004 Distinguished University Professor University of Maryland College Park and Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health The book shows that opportunities in science exist in many countries around the world Reading about the ways that took those women to their current positions is an exciting adventure Yury Gogotsi Professor Drexel University In addition to chronicling careers of great scientists this book presents an array of career paths to young women and men a must read Dr Rainer Waser Professor Aachen University Germany It is inspiring to see that the successful women highlighted in this work are approaching life with courage and joy they are changing paradigms and serving as voices for young girls They are passionate about making a difference and breaking barriers they are classy and fabulous Dr Olivia Graeve Professor University of California San Diego Mom the Chemistry Professor Kimberly Woznack, Amber Charlebois, Renée Cole, Cecilia Marzabadi, Gail Webster, 2018-07-28 When is the right time How can I meet the demands of a professorship whilst caring for a young family Choosing to become a mother has a profound effect on the career path of women holding academic positions especially in the physical sciences Yet many women successfully manage to do both In this second edition which is a project of the Women Chemists Committee WCC of the American Chemical Society ACS 40 inspirational personal accounts describe the challenges and rewards of combining motherhood with an academic career in chemistry The authors are all women at different stages of their career and from a range of institution types in both tenure and non tenure track positions The authors include women from different racial and ethnic backgrounds who became mothers at different stages of their career and who have a variety of family structures Aimed at undergraduate and graduate students of chemistry as well as postdoctoral fellows and early career faculty these contributions serve as examples for women considering a career in academia but worry about how this can be balanced with other important aspects of life The authors describe how they overcame particular challenges but also highlight aspects of the system which could be improved to accommodate women academics and particularly encourage more women to take on academic positions in the sciences Single by Chance, Mothers by Choice Rosanna Hertz, 2006-10-01 A remarkable number of women today are taking the daunting step of having children outside of marriage In Single By Chance Mothers By Choice Rosanna Hertz offers the first full scale account of this fast growing phenomenon revealing why these middle class women took this unorthodox path and how they have managed to make single parenthood work for them Hertz interviewed 65 women ranging from physicians and financial analysts to social workers teachers and secretaries women who speak candidly about how they manage their lives and families as single mothers What Hertz discovers are not ideologues but reluctant revolutionaries women who whether straight or gay struggle to conform to the conventional definitions of mother child and family Having tossed out the rulebook in order to become mothers they nonetheless adhere to time honored rules about child rearing As they tell their stories they shed light on their paths to motherhood describing how they summoned up the courage to pursue their dream how they broke the news to parents siblings friends and co workers how they went about buying sperm from fertility banks or adopting children of different races They recount how their personal and social histories intersected to enable them to pursue their dream of motherhood and how they navigate daily life What does it mean to be single in terms of romance and parenting How do women juggle earning a paycheck with parenting What creative ways have women devised to shore up these families How do they incorporate men into their child centered families This book provides concrete informative answers to all these questions A unique window on the future of the family this book offers a gold mine of insight and reassurance for any woman contemplating this rewarding if unconventional step Working Mother ,2002-10 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives Mothers of the Village C.J. Schneider,2016-03-08 So many mothers feel like something is out of joint something is missing and maybe the truth is that we re all just missing each other C J Schneider found herself in the middle of a perfect storm after giving birth to her third child and moving to a new neighborhood Conditions for misery and postpartum depression were ideal she was isolated lonely and exhausted with three young children at home As she started talking with other mothers she realized that she was not alone in her experience of feeling alone In her unique voice Schneider intelligently and compassionately offers practical advice on how to create the essential community that mothers need Given the many examples of communal mothering from the past and around the world as well as modern examples of communities in which mothers are thriving the research is clear since the beginning of womankind mothering has been a communal effort Mothers of the Village affirms that as mothers connect with each other and learn to work with each other despite the challenges they may find a piece of themselves that they have felt missing all along

Working Mother ,2006-02 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives

Motherhood by Choice Perdita Huston,1992 To honor the 40th anniversary of the International Planned Parenthood Federation journalist Perdita Huston travelled the world to gather this remarkable collection of oral histories of and about the often unknown leaders of a worldwide movement to bring women their reproductive rights Drawing on personal interviews Huston delineates the motivations strategies and heartaches of twelve pioneers eight women four men both from the developing world before and after colonial rule and from industrialized countries who braved scorn and abuse to raise the issues of family planning contraception and sex education and to fight for improved healthcare for women These moving testimonies reflect the personal leadership style of each pioneer from Dr Evangelina Rodriquez the first woman doctor in the Dominican Republic who defied church policies and the corrupt dictator Trujillo to promote family planning and fight the spread of venereak disease to Miyoski Ohba who contended with innumerable taboos in postwar Japan to introduce poor villagers to the use of condoms to Elsie Ottsen Jensen born in 1886 to a poor Norwegian family of 17 children who became acutely aware of the high rate of maternal mortality throughout turn of the century Scandinavia and went on to found the Swedish Association of Sex Educators in 1933 Motherhood by Choice stands as a significant historical document tracing the development of public health services sex education and contraceptive services that will inspire and inform all who are concerned about women s health and reproductive rights Working Mother ,2006-02 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives Phoenix Rising Donald G. Lett,Donald G Lett Jr,2008-02 In an age when the supply of gasoline to feed this modern American society has become both more expensive and more scarce questions are being pondered Inquires like How can a modern society scale back its dependence on gasoline as a motive source Are there genuine alternative power sources Are they the answer to a growing crisis Recent announcements of hybrids like those from Honda Toyota and Ford have really brought attention to this issue Hybrids that use both gasoline engines and electric motors Really though alternative power sources have been around for as long as the automobile has been The battle between and among the steam car the electric and the gas car was fought out in the first couple of decades of the twentieth century This book explores the ins and outs of that battle A struggle from which the gasoline car emerged completely victorious To such an extent that steam cars and electric cars virtually disappeared from the scene for many decades We will look over all three alternatives exploring their advantages and disadvantages We will also look over the obstacles to the steamers and the electrics Barriers that still exist to a certain extent Handicaps that caused their disappearance in the first place

Refiguring Motherhood Beyond Biology Valerie Renegar, Kirsti Cole, 2023-01-31 This book unpacks and interrogates dominant constructions of mothering making use of interdisciplinary ideological and theoretical perspectives to investigate how new rhetorics of mothering can expand the realm of maternal care givers beyond the biological definitions of motherhood This diverse collection is at the cutting edge of rhetoric feminism and motherhood studies and the chapters challenge the confines of biological parenting as heteronormative within the neo liberal nuclear family The contributors examine how despite the diversity of parental relationships many are excluded by the understanding of mothers biologically tied to their children The volume seeks to expose the underpinnings of biological primacy and argues that 21st century families and familial circumstances are ill served by biological ideology Topics include Re Imagining Queer Black Motherhood Chicana Feminist approaches to reproductive justice the commercialization and medicalization of infertility and ableism and motherhood This is a unique and fascinating book suitable for students and scholars in gender studies sexuality studies communication studies sociology and cultural studies

Representations of Children and Success in Asia Shih-Wen Sue Chen, Sin Wen Lau, 2022-09-28 This edited volume explores how success is conceptualized and represented in texts for young people in Asia The essays in this collection examine how success for children relates to education family gender race class community and the nation It answers the following questions How is success for children represented in literature cinema and popular media In what ways are these images grounded in the historical political and cultural contexts in which they are produced and consumed How does childhood agency influence ideas about success in Asia Highlighting the similarities and differences in how success is defined for children and young adults in Japan South Korea People's Republic of China Singapore Taiwan Indonesia Vietnam and India this volume argues that success is an important keyword in the literary and cultural study of childhood in Asia

psychotherapy and clinical psychology how to develop the case conceptualization and treatment planning skills necessary to help clients achieve change Author Pearl S Berman provides client interviews and sample case studies in each chapter along with detailed steps for practice and developing treatment plans Chapters conclude with questions that engage students in critical thinking about the complexity of human experiences The updated and expanded Fourth Edition includes cutting edge issues in trauma informed care responsiveness to development across the lifespan integration of issues relevant to intersectionality of oppression and evidence based practice

The Case for Single Motherhood Katherine Elizabeth Mack, 2023-12-05 Delves into the rhetorical work of elective single mothers ESMs in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries as they sought and continue to seek to legitimize their maternal identities and family formations Scholars of rhetoric have largely overlooked the inherent rhetoricity of family In The Case for Single Motherhood Katherine Mack posits family as a central concern of rhetorical studies by reflecting on how language is used by single mothers who seek to reenvision the personal social and political meanings of family Drawing on intersectional and rhetorical theories Mack demonstrates how the category of elective single motherhood emerged in response to the historically differential treatment of unwed mothers along racial and class lines Through her readings of a range of self sponsored ESM texts guidebooks memoirs and interactive digital media written by and primarily for other ESMs and from her perspective as an elective single mother herself Mack evaluates the rhetorical power as well as the exclusions and hierarchies that the ESM label effects She analyzes how ESMs envision motherhood visions that entail their musings about who can and should mother Ultimately Mack offers women who are considering nonnormative paths to motherhood a way to affirm their maternal identities and paths without disparaging others Scholars in the fields of rhetoric and feminist rhetorical studies will find in this volume an illuminating perspective on the rhetorical power of self sponsored texts in particular Crafting a methodology to identify and evaluate the goals and effects of legitimacy work and selecting sources that bring academic attention to varied genres of self sponsored writings Mack paves the way for future rhetorical studies of motherhood and family

Working Mother, 2006-05 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives

The 20th Century Go-N Frank N. Magill, 2014-03-05 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who's who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography
