Witnessing to Christ Today Daryl M. Balia, Kirsteen Kim, 2010 The Centenary of the World Missionary Conference held in Edinburgh in 1910 is a suggestive moment for many people seeking direction for Christian mission in the twenty first century. Since 2005, an international group has worked collaboratively to develop an intercontinental and multid denominational project now known as Edinburgh 2010, and based at New College University of Edinburgh. Essential to the work of the Edinburgh 1910 Conference and of abiding value were the findings of the eight think tanks or commissions. These inspired the idea of a new round of collaborative reflection on Christian mission, but now focused on nine themes identified as being key to mission in the twenty first century. The study process is intended to contribute from a research perspective to the aim of Edinburgh 2010: witnessing together to Christ in the twenty first century and to the development of a new vision in terms of God's purposes for creation in Christ and a renewed spirituality and mission ethos in the life of churches worldwide. Witnessing to Christ Today contains a summary of what has been achieved through the study process up to the end of 2009 and forms the preparatory volume for the centenary conference to be held in Edinburgh on 2-6 June 2010. There, the material will be subjected to rigorous critique from various transversal perspectives and engaged with by church and mission delegates from around the world.

As a parent, you have a stewardship entrusted to you and are responsible to God for your actions toward your children. To keep your children on your team, you must assure them from the beginning that you are on theirs.

The Secrets Men Keep Stephen Arterburn, 2007-11-04 Every man has secrets. Whether they are sinful or simply not in your best interest, whether you wall them off or stuff them down deep, you are not alone. But as author Stephen Arterburn warns, secrets are also the most dangerous force within a man, so finding a way to deal with the unspoken fears and questions that threaten to undo you is among your most important tasks. In this book, the author of the million-selling Every Man's Battle series courageously exposes what nearly 4,000 men like you said they think, feel, and question about themselves, their work, their marriage, and family, their finances, and their faith, but don't dare to talk about. He also affirms again and again that the strength it takes to keep your secrets safe can be redirected to make a better life and a stronger you. Throughout these pages, Arterburn not only fleshes out each of twenty-five secrets but gives perspective on where those secrets come from, why they feel so important, and how to respond to them to make life, love, work, and leadership easier for you and for everyone who loves you.
