Curiosity's Cats Bruce Joshua Miller, 2014 Thirteen writers including historians journalists novelists a scriptwriter and more offer powerful arguments for the value of hands on research

Curiosity's Cats Bruce Joshua Miller, 2014-04-15 Each morning I would strike out for this temple of learning in the crisp autumn air with a sense of purpose and the conviction that this was where I belonged Marilyn Stasio from My Research Project Inspired partly by Richard Altick's The Scholar Adventurers the thirteen writers in Curiosity's Cats offer powerful arguments for the value of hands on research be it chasing documents cracking mysteries interviewing long lost subjects or visiting exotic and not so exotic locales Alberto Martinez explains how diligence with dates can provide clues to unlock the most difficult historical puzzles Jan Reid explores the difference between research for an epic novel and research to write the epic biography of a friend Margot Livesey suspects that she continues to write novels simply to do the research But every essay testifies to the fact that research is valuable not only because of the product that may result from it but because the process itself fulfills a basic human need Contributors include Philip J Anderson Annette Kolodny Theodore Kornweibel Jr Margot Livesey Alberto A Martinez Bruce Joshua Miller Katherine Hall Page Jan Reid Ali Selim Marilyn Stasio Ned Stuckey French Bruce White and Steve Yates Bruce Joshua Miller has edited two books and written for public radio the Chicago Tribune and other publications He has worked in the book industry for thirty five years

Paul Smeyers,Marc Depaepe,2021-11-01 Is educational research chasing the trends one can observe in big sciences mimicking what happens some would say successfully elsewhere in academia The question in the title of this edited collection took its inspiration from a verse by Goethe Wer Gro es will muss sich zusammenraffen In der Beschr nkung zeigt sich erst der Meister Such confinement or limitation that may show mastery does not characterize at all the present state of the educational research publication scene Instead there have never been more of such publications which follow each other with an increasing speed It may therefore be interesting to delve into the reasons of this development that is characteristic of what is published in this field as in many or almost all fields of scholarly work The chapters in this collection address aspects of the re presentation dissemination and reception and the production and acceleration of educational research An international group of scholars philosophers and historians of education address questions such as Why publish The lust for academic fame Why educational historiography is not an unnecessary luxury and Ways of knowing The twelve chapters are preceded by an introduction where issues of plurality and diversity in the study of education are at centre stage and followed by an Epilogue written by the Editors of the Springer Series Educational Research Paul Smeyers and Marc Depaepe offer some final reflections after a journey of two decades that took them and the colleagues participating in the Research Community from 1999 till 2018 floating on the current of the Zeitgeist that carried the Discipline of Education They claim finally that mastery in the study of education requires restraint Essentials of Research Methods in Health, Physical Education, Exercise Science, and Recreation Kris E. The Nine Emotional Lives of Cats Jeffrey Moussaieff Masson,2002-10-29 In the hugely popular New York Times bestseller Dogs Never Lie About Love provocative psychoanalyst Jeffrey Moussaieff Masson brilliantly navigated the inner landscape of man's best friend Now he delves deep into the secretive playful world of cats revealing emotions debunking myths and honoring the feline's evolution from solitary jungle creature to human companion Drawing from literature history animal behavioral research and the wonderful true stories of cat experts and cat lovers around the world Jeffrey Masson vividly explores the delights and mysteries of the feline heart But at the core of this remarkable book are Masson's candid often amusing observations of his own five cats Their mischievousness aloofness and affection provide a way to examine emotions from contentment to jealousy from anger to love Consider the question Are cats selfish While human egocentricity is defined by how little a person cares about others the cat s narcissism is not like that at all Cats may appear self centered but they watch us all the time taking us in They see us they notice us a far cry from vanity Cats are curious a trait that rarely kills them On the contrary it gives them the chance to assess in their own idiosyncratic way whether we are worthy of their attention Cats are happy to be themselves What they think of us is a different question entirely We need cats to need us notes Masson It unnerves us that they do not However if they do not need us they nonetheless seem to love us The Nine Emotional Lives of Cats will captivate readers with its surprises and insights offering a new perspective on the deep connection shared by humans and their feline friends This is the book that Masson s many fans and cat lovers everywhere have been waiting for The Spiral Guide to Research Writing
