wide variety of questions about gifted children The Roeper School Don Ambrose,Bharath Sriraman,Tracy L.
Cross,2013-12-30 How can we design schools that energetically promote intellectual development while also attending to the social emotional and ethical growth of students In today s frenzied climate of accountability driven school reform it is difficult to establish anything more than achievement of superficial knowledge and skill Fortunately there is a vibrant example of holistic student centered education that engenders dynamic multidimensional student growth The Roeper School enables students to develop strong intrinsic motivation as they discover aspirations and develop talents consistent with those aspirations Simultaneously from a very young age students take considerable responsibility for their own actions and for the processes that go on in their school Following the Roeper philosophy each student generates a long term sense of purposeful direction a strong sense of intrapersonal awareness impressive creative and critical thinking skills and a finely tuned sense of ethical responsibility Upon graduation Roeper students are well prepared to find or create highly productive niches in the world of work and rewarding personal lives while serving as mature ethical citizens of a complex 21st century globalized society This book includes descriptions of the multidimensional education the Roeper School provides The perspectives in the volume are diverse coming from leading researchers and theorists in the field of gifted education as well as teachers administrators alumni and current students from the school itself Overall the book provides a beacon of hope for 21st century
