Film Policy in a Globalised Cultural Economy John Hill, Nobuko Kawashima, 2018-12-07 The past two decades have witnessed major changes in film industries worldwide in response to both economic globalisation and technological developments The dominant position of Hollywood movies in the global film market has remained largely uncontested but Hollywood itself has become increasingly international in its operations whilst regional screen industries such as those in East Asia and in the Indian subcontinent have re emerged and developed new forms of

collaboration The advent of digital technologies has also transformed the content of films and the ways in which they are made and consumed Such changes in turn have posed new economic and cultural challenges for policy makers around the world and led to a degree of rethinking of how film policy objectives are to be conceived defined and implemented This collection brings together a range of international scholars from the USA Europe and Asia to consider how film policy has responded to the various economic technological and political shifts shaping the global film industry and to identify the many tensions between global and local economic and cultural and public and private policy objectives that have been the result of these changes This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Cultural Policy The De Gruyter Handbook of Automated Futures Vaike Fors,Martin Berg,Meike Brodersen,2024-09-23 How does automation affect us our environment and our imaginations What actions should we take in response to automation Beyond grand narratives and technology driven visions of the future what more can automation offer With these questions in mind The De Gruyter Handbook of Automated Futures provides a framework for thinking about and implementing automation differently It consolidates automated futures as an inter and transdisciplinary research field embedding the imaginaries interactions and impacts of automation technology within their social historical societal cultural and political contexts Promoting a critical yet constructive and engaging agenda the handbook invites readers to collaborate with rather than resist automation agendas It does so by pushing the agenda for social science humanities and design beyond merely assessing and evaluating existing technologies Instead the handbook demonstrates how the humanities and social sciences are essential to the design and governance of sustainable sociotechnical systems Methodologically the handbook is underpinned by a pedagogical approach to staging co learning and co creation of automated futures with rather than simply for people In this way the handbook encourages readers to explore new and alternative modes of research fostering a deeper engagement with the evolving landscape of automation Unveiling the Local Artscape Barrett Williams,ChatGPT,2025-03-04 Unveiling the Local Artscape Your Gateway to the World of Community Creativity Immerse yourself in the vibrant world of local arts with Unveiling the Local Artscape This eBook is your comprehensive guide to exploring and engaging with the rich tapestry of community creativity Whether you re an art enthusiast or simply curious about the artistic movements shaping your local landscape this book offers a captivating journey through the often overlooked gems of the art world Begin by understanding the crucial role that local arts play in shaping communities Discover how art not only reflects cultural heritage but also fosters a sense of belonging and community pride Journey through the hidden artistic gems that reside off the beaten path as you explore the underground artists the vital role of local galleries and grassroots movements invigorating the scene Unveiling the Local Artscape takes you behind the scenes to offer insights into the lives of local artists and the spaces they operate in Learn about the challenges and triumphs faced by curators and nonprofits and the passion that fuels their daily lives For those eager to support local arts this eBook provides practical guidance on getting involved be it attending events purchasing artwork or participating in mentorship programs Delve into the diverse mediums of local art from performance to music and dance as well as the power of public art installations Technology's influence on art is also explored revealing how digital platforms and virtual exhibitions are reshaping accessibility and promotion Understand the pivotal role of education in nurturing future talents and the strategies for overcoming common challenges within the arts community Conclude your journey with stories of transformation and envision how you can become an integral part of a culturally enriched future Unveiling the Local Artscape invites you to not only witness but also actively participate in the vibrant world of local arts Embrace your creative potential and connect deeply with the artistic soul of your community

Uncovering the Cultural Dynamics in Mentoring Programs and Relationships Frances K. Kochan, Andrea M. Kent, André M. Green, 2014-12-01

Although cultural issues have a powerful influence on the failure and success of mentoring programs and relationships there is scant research on this area and little in the way of guidelines that practitioners can use to help assure mentoring success This book seeks to expand our knowledge and understanding of this topic and to foster the use of this information to enhance practice and research The book is unique in a number of ways and will be an important resource for all those engaged in mentoring endeavors and for those conducting research in this area First it presents research findings on the cultural impact of mentoring at the individual relational level at the organizational level and within the structures of the society Secondly the chapters describe mentoring from an international perspective including programs from Africa Australia Canada Finland India Ireland Korea Scotland Sweden and the United States Third the book is research based and yet can be easily applied to practice Chapters provide information on lessons learned and also include reflective questions to enable the reader to delve more deeply into the constructs and findings in order to apply them to their own practice and research This makes the book an ideal resource for training mentors and mentees for designing mentoring programs for teaching about mentoring and for establishing and maintaining mentoring relationships It also will be of value to those who are engaged in conducting research on how to create and maintain successful mentoring relationships and programs Endorsements All mentoring relationships are diverse Indeed it is the difference between mentor and mentee that creates the potential for co learning Mentoring that bridges cultural gaps opens the way to an exchange of understanding about both internal and external assumptions and perspectives how each of us thinks and how the world functions for each of us In this book the editors and contributors demonstrate the diversity of diversity with particular focus on education in different societies I recommend it as essential background reading for anyone designing mentoring programmes in which cultural diversity will be a significant dynamic Dr David Clutterbuck Special Ambassador European Mentoring and Coaching Council In this boundary spanning volume the authors pull back the curtain on the latest evolution of mentoring theory and practice revealing that all mentoring relationships are intrinsically cultural Not only that the researchers present creative empirically sound ideas for mentoring at different scales personal encounters networked communities and loose collectives This book is robustly inclusive of structural layers of mentoring differentiated by context whether higher education schools or collegial communities making meaning of cultural diversity as part of one's inner core of relational and systematic mentoring Practitioners of mentoring and researchers of mentoring alike should find this work important for understanding the breadth and depth of mentoring in different cultural contexts while allowing its essence to remain unfolding rather than simply told All mentoring professionals can gain insight and value from the diversity of theoretical orientations that capture as well as map the impact of global and cultural influences of mentoring in everyday worlds A must read for all who care about the quality of educational relationships and about making a difference in learning settings Dr Carol A Mullen Professor of Educational Leadership Virginia Tech University Council for Educational Administration UCEA Plenary Session Representative PSR Ideas for the Animated Short Karen Sullivan, Gary Schumer, 2013-03-20 Follow from start to finish the creation of an animated short from the pre production thought process to story development and character design Explore the best practices and avoid the common pitfalls of creating two to five minute shorts Watch a specially created animated short demonstrating the core techniques and principles at the companion website Packed with illustrated examples of idea generation character and story development acting dialogue and storyboarding practice this is your conceptual toolkit proven to meet the challenges of this unique art form The companion website includes in depth interviews with industry insiders 18 short animations many with accompanying animatics character designs and environment designs and an acting workshop to get your animated short off to a flying start With all NEW content on script writing acting sound design and visual storytelling as well as stereoscopic 3D storytelling further enhance your animated shorts and apply the industry best practices to your own projects and workflows
