initiatives concerning protection of economic migrants between 1919 and 2018      Good Practices in Resettlement Hari Mohan Mathur, 2024-11-15 In this collection well known resettlement and development practitioners examine successful resettlement practices based on examples from Bangladesh Bhutan China Colombia Costa Rica Democratic Republic of Congo Ghana India Indonesia Japan Mexico the Philippines Russia and Vietnam      Human Rights Discourse on Dams, Displacement and Resettlement Namita Gupta, 2023-05-10 Since the 1990s development induced displacement has emerged as a major human rights concern At the heart of this debate lie the issues of equity governance justice and power There are many examples of dam induced displacement and resettlement being mismanaged and thus leading to enormous social and environmental costs The developing impasse necessitated fresh insights into the lives of affected people and a review of assumptions questions and options in social engineering a challenge that was taken up in sociological and anthropological research This book is an endeavour to fill this gap by providing a comprehensive outlook on the human rights issues involved in development induced displacement This book is a sincere effort to provide a critical analysis of the environmental social and economic impacts of development projects It further calls for a serious deliberation on the human rights aspects of development induced displacement      Everyday Practices of State Building in Ethiopia Davide Chinigò, 2022-07-28 Everyday practices of state building interrogates the question about how to reinstate movement to our conceptualisation of state formation in Africa at a time in which the continent witnesses profound social and political transformations inscribed in increasingly globalised and localised dynamics The book revisits key theories of the state adopting a detailed empirical approach that studies how state power operates in the everyday It locates the mutual constitution of state and society in the wide set of scalar processes that articulate how state power structures social life and simultaneously creates the conditions of possibility for new openings and social formations Drawing on five qualitative fieldworks in Ethiopia between 2006 and 2018 the book identifies some important challenges that the ruling Ethiopian Peoples Revolutionary Democratic Front EPRDF has encountered in institutionalising power through the developmental state an ambitious model of state mediated economic liberalisation intended to fulfil the broader re organisation of the Ethiopian state along Ethnic Federalism since 1991 The case studies discuss how policies of resettlement decentralisation agriculture commercialisation entrepreneurship and industrialisation inscribed dynamics of inclusion and exclusion in both rural and urban areas Against these profound transformations beneficiaries casted new meanings to land place and work along struggles to secure reproduction Interrogating the notions of scale and performativity the book revisits dominant approaches that in African studies read state formation along centre periphery relations and ascribe cultural interpretations to the work of state power in the everyday ultimately contributing to important discussions about authoritarianism and ethnonationalism in contemporary Ethiopia Oxford Studies in African Politics and International Relations is a series for scholars and students working on African politics and International Relations and related disciplines Volumes concentrate on contemporary developments in African political science political economy and International Relations such as electoral politics democratization decentralization the political impact of natural resources the dynamics and consequences of conflict and the nature of the continent's engagement with the East and West Comparative and mixed methods work is particularly encouraged Case studies are welcomed but should demonstrate the broader theoretical and empirical implications of the study and its wider relevance to contemporary debates The series focuses on sub Saharan Africa although proposals that explain how the region engages with North Africa and other parts of the world are of interest Series Editors Nic Cheeseman Professor of Democracy and International Development University of Birmingham Ricardo Soares de Oliveira Professor of the International Politics of Africa University of Oxford Peace Medie Senior Lecturer School of Sociology Politics and International Studies University of Bristol Urban

Resettlements in the Global South Raffael Beier, Amandine Spire, Marie Bridonneau, 2021-09-09 Urban Resettlements in the Global South provides new perspectives on resettlement through an urban studies lens To date resettlement has been theorised through development studies and refugee studies but urban resettlement is also a major dimension of urban development in the Global South and may help to rethink contemporary urban dynamics between spectacular new town developments and rising incidences of eviction and displacement Conceptualising resettlement as a binding notion between production regeneration and destruction demolition of urban space helps to illuminate interdependencies and to underline significant ambiguities within affected people's perspectives towards resettlement projects This volume will offer an interesting selection of ten different case studies with rich empirical data from Latin America North and Sub Saharan Africa and Asia focused on each stage of resettlement before during after relocation through different timescales By offering a frame for analysing and rethinking resettlement within urban studies it will support any scholar or expert dealing with resettlement displacement and housing in an urban context seeking to improve housing and planning policies in and for the city Financial Schemes for Resilient Flood Recovery Lenka Slavíková, Thomas Hartmann, Thomas Thaler, 2021-08-26

Financial schemes for flood recovery if properly designed and implemented might increase flood resilience However options for the increase of flood resilience during the recovery phase are to a large extent overlooked and the diversity of existing schemes shows that there has been a lack of consensus on how to achieve resilient flood recovery Financial Schemes for Resilient Flood Recovery investigates how the implementation of financial schemes government relief subsidies insurance schemes buy outs etc might increase flood resilience The chapters included in this edited volume address the following questions Shall government relief subsidies exist when there is flood insurance in place and if so how might they both be coordinated Where or how to decide about build back better incentives and where to go for planned relocation programs What is the distributional equity of financial schemes for flood recovery and has it been sufficiently treated The book covers different approaches to flood recovery schemes with specific intervention rationales in different countries Empirical evidence provided clearly shows the great diversity of financial flood recovery schemes This diversity of state funded schemes private based insurance schemes and hybrids as well as planned relocation schemes indicates a lack of a consistent and strategic approach in flood risk management and flood resilience about flood recovery The chapters in this book were originally published in the Environmental Hazards

From the City to the Desert Raffael Beier,2019-08-23 In recent years large scale housing and resettlement projects have experienced a renaissance in many developing countries and are increasingly shaping new urban peripheries One prominent example is Morocco s Villes Sans Bidonville cities without shantytowns programme that aims at eradicating all shantytowns in Morocco by resettling its population to apartment blocks at the urban peripheries Analysing the specific resettlement project of Karyan Central a 90 year old shantytown in Casablanca this book sheds light on both process and outcome of resettlement from the perspective of affected people It draws on rich empirical data from a structure household survey n 871 qualitative interviews with different stakeholder document analysis and non participant observation gathered during four months of field research The author emphasises that the VSB programme although formally part of anti poverty and urban inclusion policies puts primary focus on the clearance of the shantytown Largely based on ill informed policy assumptions stigmatisation rent seeking and opaque implementation practices the VSB programme interpreted adequate housing in a narrow sense By showing how social interactions employment patterns and access to urban functions have changed because of resettlement the book provides sound empirical evidence that housing means more than four walls and a roof

The Routledge Handbook of Heritage Destruction José Antonio González Zarandona,Emma Cunliffe,Melathi Saldin,2023-08-10 The Routledge Handbook of Heritage Destruction presents a comprehensive view on the destruction of cultural heritage and offers insights into this multifaceted interdisciplinary phenomenon the methods scholars have used to study it and the results these various methods have produced By juxtaposing theoretical and legal frameworks and conceptual contexts alongside a wide distribution of geographical and temporal case studies this book throws light upon the risks and the realizations of art and heritage destruction Exploring the variety of forces that drive the destruction of heritage the volume also contains contributions that consider what forms heritage destruction takes and in which contexts and circumstances it manifests Contributors including local scholars also consider how these drivers and contexts change and what effect this has on heritage destruction and how we conceptualise it Overall the book establishes the importance of the need to study the destruction of art and cultural heritage within a wider framework that encompasses not only theory but also legal military social and ontological issues The Routledge Handbook of Heritage Destruction will contribute to the development of a more complete understanding and analysis of heritage destruction The Handbook will be useful to academics students and professionals with interest in heritage conservation and preservation history and art history archaeology anthropology philosophy and law
