Development Beyond Neoliberalism Governance Poverty Reduction And Political Economy:

Development Beyond Neoliberalism? David Alan Craig, Doug Porter, 2006-09-27 This book is among the first to take the poverty reduction paradigm as its central focus Offering a comprehensive introduction overview and critique it traces the emergence of the framework and illustrates its consequences with global case studies

Beyond Neoliberalism James Petras, Henry Veltmeyer, 2016-04-15 The world is at the crossroads of social change in the vortex of forces that are bringing about a different world a post neoliberal state This groundbreaking book lays out an analysis of the dynamics and contradictions of capitalism in the twenty first century These dynamics of forces are traced out in developments across the world in the Arab Spring of North Africa and the Middle East in Cuba and elsewhere in Latin America in the United States and in Asia The forces released by a system in crisis can be mobilized in different ways and directions The focus of the book is on the strategic responses to the systemic crisis As the authors tell it these dynamics concern three worldviews and strategic responses The Davos Consensus focuses on the virtues of the free market and deregulated capitalism as it represents the interests of the global ruling class The post Washington Consensus concerns the need to give capital a human face and establish a more inclusive form of development and global governance In addition to these two visions of the future and projects the authors identify an emerging radical consensus on the need to move beyond capitalism as well as neoliberalism

The Politics of Poverty Reduction Paul Mosley, 2012-03-29 Globally there is a commitment to eliminate poverty and yet the politics that have caused anti poverty policies to succeed in some countries and to fail in others have been little studied The Politics of Poverty Reduction focuses on these political processes Analysis is based partly on global comparisons and partly on case studies of nine countries that span the developing world Where governments are politically weak they need to make alliances with other groups to stay in power and where these have been with low income groups the result may be a lasting and effective pro poor strategy Often pro poor policies have been brought in not with progressive intentions but out of fear that the state will fall apart unless pro poor elements are incorporated into government and the most effective regimes in reducing poverty have seldom been the kindest and most benevolent The ability to provide the poor with access to key markets and in particular labour and capital is crucial and this in turn requires fiscal strength Two crucial elements in the story are the ability to frame labour intensive policies given that labour is often the only thing that poor people are able to sell and the design of effective tax and expenditure policies Aid donors can make a key contribution partly through reinforcing recipients fiscal capacity but much more through providing technical support of the right kind

Empire, Development & Colonialism Mark Duffield, Vernon Hewitt, 2013 This collection explores the similarities differences and overlaps between the contemporary debates on international development and humanitarian intervention and the historical artefacts and strategies of Empire It includes views by historians and students of politics and development drawing on a range of methodologies and approaches The parallels between the language of nineteenth century liberal imperialism and the humanitarian interventionism of the post Cold War era are striking The American military both in Somalia in the early 1990s and in the aftermath the Iraq invasion used ethnographic information compiled by British colonial administrators Are these interconnections which are capable of endless multiplication accidental curiosities or more elemental The contributors to this book articulate the belief that these comparisons are not just anecdotal but are analytically revealing From the language of moral necessity and conviction the design of specific aid packages the devised forms of intervention and governmentality through to the life style design and location of NGO encampments the authors seek to account for the numerous and often striking parallels between contemporary international security development and humanitarian intervention and the logic of Empire MARK DUFFIELD is Professor of Development Politics at the University of Bristol VERNON HEWITT is Senior Lecturer in Politics at the University of Bristol Southern Africa South Africa Botswana Lesotho Swaziland Zimbabwe and Namibia HSRC Press

International Intervention and Local Politics Shahar Hameiri, Caroline Hughes, Fabio Scarpello, 2017-08-11 International peace and state building interventions have become ubiquitous in international politics since the 1990s aiming to tackle the security problems stemming from the instability afflicting many developing states Their frequent failures have prompted a shift towards analysing how the interaction between interveners and recipients shapes outcomes This book critically assesses the rapidly growing literature in international relations and development studies on international intervention and local politics It advances an innovative approach placing the politics of scale at the core of the conflicts and compromises shaping the outcomes of international intervention Different scales local national international privilege different interests unevenly allocating power resources and political opportunity structures Interveners and recipients thus pursue scalar strategies and socio political alliances that reinforce their power and marginalise rivals This approach is harnessed towards examining three prominent case studies of international intervention Aceh Cambodia and Solomon Islands with a focus on public administration reform

The Post-Crisis Developmental State Tamás Gerőcs, Judit Ricz, 2021-05-14 The focus of this volume is on the role of the developmental state in a situation in which a series of major crises affects the semi periphery of the global economy The authors go beyond the established debate on developmental states in East Asia by highlighting a much broader understanding of development and a very different global economic context They also further the existing debate by covering new country cases At the same time they deepen our perspective on developmental states by looking at unusual sectors such as green industrial policy education and farming

After Critique Mitchum Huehls, 2016 Taking up four different political themes human rights the relation between public and private space racial justice and environmentalism After Critique suggests that the ontological forms emerging in contemporary U S fiction articulate a version of politics that might successfully evade neoliberal appropriation

Local Space, Global Life Luis Eslava, 2015-07-09 Local Space Global Life engages with the expansive ground level and intertwined operations of international law and the development project by discussing the current international focus on local jurisdictions Since the mid 1980s and through the discourse of decentralization municipalities and cities in emerging nations have become the preferred spaces in which to promote global ideals of human economic and environmental development Through an ethnographic study of Bogotá's recent development experience and the city's changing relation to its illegal neighbourhoods Luis Eslava interrogates this rationale and exposes the contradictions involved in the international turn to the local Attentive to historical and current transformations norms and praxis and both ideology and materiality he provides an innovative reading of the nature of international law and the development project and reveals their impact on local spaces and lives at the urban periphery of today's world order

The Routledge Handbook on Cities of the Global South Susan Parnell, Sophie Oldfield, 2014-03-26 The renaissance in urban theory draws directly from a fresh focus on the neglected realities of cities beyond the west and embraces the global south as the epicentre of urbanism This Handbook engages the complex ways in which cities of the global south and the global north are rapidly shifting the imperative for multiple genealogies of knowledge production as well as a diversity of empirical entry points to understand contemporary urban dynamics The Handbook works towards a geographical realignment in urban studies bringing into conversation a wide array of cities across the global south the ordinary mega global and peripheral With interdisciplinary contributions from a range of leading international experts it profiles an emergent and geographically diverse body of work The contributions draw on conflicting and divergent debates to open up discussion on the meaning of the city in or of the global south arguments that are fluid and increasingly contested geographically and conceptually It reflects on critical urbanism the macro and micro scale forces that shape cities including ideological demographic and technological shifts and constantly changing global and regional economic dynamics Working with southern reference points the chapters present themes in urban politics identity and environment in ways that re frame our thinking about cities The Handbook engages the twenty first century city through a southern urban lens to stimulate scholarly professional and activist engagements with the city

Development Ethics Nikos Astroulakis, Nikolaos Karagiannis, 2024-12-06 This book provides a fresh perspective on international development By integrating ethical concepts and moral philosophy with political economy Nikos Astroulakis and Nikolaos Karagiannis explore three levels of ethical analysis meta ethical normative ethical and applied ethical This approach underscores the importance of ethics in shaping development goals and strategies tailored to an individual society The book uses a framework rooted in heterodox political economy to redefine what it means to be a good society It challenges conventional economic models and proposes development ethics as a compelling alternative Readers will discover new ways to understand the purpose of development and innovative methods to evaluate its success Development Ethics explains how ethical principles can transform development policies making it an essential read for those committed to building a more just and equitable world

Europe's Relations with North Africa Adam Yousef, 2017-04-25 The rapid evolution of events in the European Middle Eastern and North African spheres has reinvigorated the debate on

Euro Mediterranean relations Since 1995 these relations have operated under the auspices of the Barcelona Process which laid the foundations for three initiatives that define European policy towards neighbouring states the Euro Mediterranean Partnership the European Neighbourhood Policy and the Union for the Mediterranean This book scrutinises these initiatives through a socioeconomic prism Adam Yousef reviews how appropriate these initiatives have been in promoting socioeconomic development in North African states projects the long term implications of these policies and investigates whether they can reduce the gap in social outcomes across the Mediterranean Basin over time Using Morocco as a case study this book employs a mixed methods approach combining qualitative and quantitative data as well as economic theory It reveals not only that the Barcelona Process has had a limited impact on promoting social outcomes in Morocco but crucially that it is also unlikely to do so in the future suggesting a new approach may be required

NGOs and Lifeworlds in Africa Melina C. Kalfelis, Kathrin Knodel, 2021-06-11 Non governmental organizations NGOs have become ubiquitous in the development sector in Africa and attracting more academic attention However the fact that NGOs are an integral part of the everyday lives of men and women on the continent has been overlooked thus far In Africa NGOs are not remote but familiar players situated in the midst of cities and communities By taking a radical empirical stance this book studies NGOs as a vital part of the lifeworlds of Africans Its contributions are immersed in the pasts presents and futures of personal encounters memories decision making and politics

Regulating Statehood S. Hameiri, 2010-07-14 Shahar Hameiri argues that state building interventions are creating a new form of transnationally regulated statehood Using case studies from the Asia Pacific he analyzes the politics of state building and the implications for contemporary statehood and the global order

Imperialism and Capitalism in the Twenty-First Century James Petras, Henry Veltmeyer, Humberto Márquez, 2016-05-13 We live in a time of dynamic but generally regressive regime change a period in which major political transformations and a rollback of a half century of legislation are accelerated under conditions of a prolonged and deepening economic crisis and a worldwide offensive against the citizenry and the working class Written by two of the world's leading left wing thinkers Imperialism and Capitalism in the Twenty First Century takes the form of a number of analytical probes into some of the dynamics of capitalist development and imperialism in contemporary conditions of a system in crisis It is too early to be definitive about the form that capitalism and imperialism and socialism might be or is taking as we are in but the early stages of a new developmental dynamic the conditions of which are too complex to anticipate or grasp in thought they require a closer look and much further study from a critical development and Marxist perspective The purpose of this book is to advance this process and give some form to this perspective

Social Policy Review 18 Bauld, Linda, Clarke, Karen, 2006-06-28 Social Policy Review provides students academics and all those interested in welfare issues with detailed analyses of progress and change in areas of major interest during the past year Bringing together a selection of commissioned papers the Review is organised in three parts First it concentrates on the main policy developments during

2005 in relation to five key areas of welfare provision both in the UK and internationally The second part this year concentrating on the theme of health and well being draws on current research to explore key policy issues and challenges The final section explores employment and later life an often neglected area of social policy yet one that will increasingly dominate the contemporary news agenda and that has long term implications for social policy Regional

Developmentalism through Law Jonathan Bashi Rudahindwa, 2018-05-20 Offering a study of regionalism in Africa and investigating the ways in which law can be used to address the issues raised by regional processes on the continent this book examines the African Economic Community considering that it has been entrusted to coordinate and to harmonize policies between various Regional Economic Communities RECs across the continent thereby influencing the continent's approach towards regional integration It seeks to identify how law can be used to strengthen the African RECs while ensuring that they achieve their goal of promoting regional development across the continent Drawing upon economic and political theories and using a critical doctrinal analysis of legal texts and norms the book uncovers the legal and economic underpinnings of the model of regional integration followed by the regional schemes operating under the banner of the AEC aiming to contribute to the search for effective methods to ensure the success of these various initiatives Proposing the concept of Regional Developmentalism Through Law as the most suitable conceptual framework to support the effective establishment of an African Economic Community this book will be of interest to researchers academics and policy makers interested in the correlation between law regional integration and development in Africa Interrogating the Social Fuyuki

Kurasawa, 2017-08-21 This book brings together a collection of work from emerging and established scholars who have put forth a vision of what critical sociology is and what it could be in the early decades of the 21st century Pushing beyond the theoretical outlines of sociological critique the authors demonstrate how critical sociology is practiced through conceptual innovation and empirical analyses interweaving the themes of society power and culture Interrogating the Social reinvents the project of critical sociology in two ways by reflecting upon society as an object of inquiry and by questioning the existing social order's self evident character and exclusionary effects In doing so it answers three related questions How should social relations and interactions be re thought today What new institutional and discursive configurations of power are emerging How do we make sense of contemporary cultural performances and movements This edited collection is suited to a wide and diverse audience across the disciplines of sociology political science social and political theory and cultural studies

Traveling Models and Practical Norms Jean-Pierre Olivier de Sardan, 2025-02-01 Public policies development projects and NGO interventions often have large gaps between the planning and execution Standardized public policies especially development ones ignore the multiple contexts in which they are implemented Local actors those targeted by public policies or responsible for implementing them play a major role in the implementation of planning and execution Their many strategies for circumventing official directives and protocols follow implicit practical norms that are ignored by international experts This book examines how different modes of governance that deliver services of general interest experience significant gaps between explicit rules and implicit practices between planned actions and daily routines in Africa and beyond A Research Agenda for Cities John Rennie Short, 2017-03-31 Elgar Research Agendas outline the future of research in a given area Leading scholars are given the space to explore their subject in provocative ways and map out the potential directions of travel They are relevant but also visionary This book provides a critical assessment of key areas of urban scholarship In twelve stimulating chapters expert contributors examine a range of important pressing topics from sustainability and gentrification to feminist interventions and globalization to security and food issues Six more regionally informed expert reviews examine recent urban research in sub Saharan Africa South America East Asia the Middle East Australia and Eastern Europe The chapters provide polemical assessments and signposts for future research The book will be an indispensable and accessible guide to urban research across the globe The New Scramble for Africa Padraig R. Carmody, 2013-04-26 Once marginalized in the world economy the past decade has seen Africa emerge as a major global supplier of crucial raw materials like oil uranium and coltan With its share of world trade and investment now rising and the availability of natural resources falling the continent finds itself at the centre of a battle to gain access to and control of its valuable natural assets China's role in Africa has loomed particularly large in recent years but there is now a new scramble taking place involving a wider range of established and emerging economic powers from the EU and US to Japan Brazil and Russia This book explores the nature of resource and market competition in Africa and the strategies adopted by the different actors involved be they world powers or small companies Focusing on key commodities the book examines the dynamics of the new scramble and the impact of current investment and competition on people the environment and political and economic development on the continent New theories particularly the idea of Chinese flexigemony are developed to explain how resources and markets are accessed While resource access is often the primary motive for increased engagement the continent also offers a growing market for low priced goods from Asia and Asian owned companies Individual chapters explore old and new economic power interests in Africa oil minerals timber biofuels food and fisheries and the nature and impacts of Asian investment in manufacturing and other sectors The New Scramble for Africa will be essential reading for students of African studies international relations and resource politics as well as anyone interested in current affairs
