Information Modelling and Knowledge Bases XXX T. Endrjukaite,A. Dudko,H. Jaakkola,2019-01-03

Information modeling and knowledge bases have become essential subjects in the last three decades not only in academic communities related to information systems and computer science but also in the areas of business where information technology is applied. This book presents the proceedings of the 28th International Conference on Information Modelling and Knowledge Bases EJC2018 held in Riga, Latvia, from 4-8 June 2018. The aim of the conference was to bring together experts with a common interest in the understanding and solving of problems on information modelling and knowledge bases as well as those from different areas of computer science and other disciplines who apply the results of research to practice. The 39 accepted papers collected here cover a variety of topics including conceptual modeling, knowledge and information modeling and discovery, linguistic modeling, cross-cultural communication and social computing, multimedia data modeling and systems and environmental modeling and engineering. The book will be of interest to researchers and practitioners alike and to anyone wanting a better understanding of current advances in information technology.
