The Formation of the Sunni Schools of Law, 9th-10th Centuries C.E. Christopher Melchert, 2024-01-08 The Sunni schools of law are named for jurists of the eighth and ninth centuries but they did not actually function so early The main division at that time was rather between adherents of ra'y and adl No school had a regular means of forming students Relying mainly on biographical dictionaries this study traces the constitutive elements of the classical schools and finds that they first came together in the early tenth century particularly with the work of Ibn Surayj d 306 918 al Khallal d 311 923 and a series of anaf teachers ending with al Karkhi d 340 952 Malikism prospered in the West for political reasons while the hir and Jarir schools faded out due to their refusal to adopt the common new teaching methods In this book the author fleshes out these historical developments in a manner that will be extremely useful to the field while at the same time developing some new and highly original perspectives

The School of Hillah and the Formation of Twelver Shi'i Islamic Tradition Aun Hasan Ali, 2023-06-15 Against the background of long standing narratives in which Twelver Shi'ism is viewed as fundamentally authoritarian The School of Hillah and the Formation of Twelver Shi'i Islamic Tradition builds upon recent scholarship in the fields of Religious Studies Anthropology and History to argue that Twelver Shi'ism is better understood as a discursive tradition At a conceptual level this solves the basic problem of how to integrate the extraordinary diversity of Twelver Shi'ism across time and space into a single historical category without engaging in a normative assessment of its underlying essence Furthermore in light of this conception of tradition the School of Hillah stands out as a seminal period in the archive of Twelver Shi'ism though it has seldom been recognized as such in European language scholarship Insofar as it gave birth to a conversation that would prove capable of encompassing the dynamism of Twelver Shi'ism the School of Hillah should be considered the formative period of Twelver Shi'i tradition Moreover when the tradition is conceptualized in this manner it is a bulwark against the very authoritarianism by which Twelver Shi'ism has been characterized for so long

Anthropomorphic Depictions of God Zulfikar Ali Shah, 2012-01-01 This monumental study examines issues of anthropomorphism in the three Abrahamic Faiths as viewed through the texts of the Hebrew Bible the New Testament and the Qur'an Throughout history Christianity and Judaism have tried to make sense of God While juxtaposing the Islamic position against this the author addresses the Judeo-Christian worldview and how each has chosen to framework its encounter with God to what extent this has been the result of actual scripture and to what extent the product of theological debate or church decrees of later centuries and absorption of Hellenistic philosophy Shah also examines Islam's heavily anti anthropomorphic stance and Islamic theological discourse on

Tawhid as well as the Ninety Nine Names of God and what these have meant in relation to Muslim understanding of God and His attributes Describing how these became the touchstone of Muslim discourse with Judaism and Christianity he critiques theological statements and perspectives that came to dilute if not counter strict monotheism As secularism debates whether God is dead the issue of anthropomorphism has become of immense importance The quest for God especially in this day and age is partly one of intellectual longing To Shah anthropomorphic concepts and corporeal depictions of the Divine are perhaps among the leading factors of modern atheism As such he ultimately draws the conclusion that the postmodern longing for God will not be quenched by pre modern anthropomorphic and corporeal concepts of the Divine which have simply brought God down to this cosmos with a precise historical function and a specified location reducing the intellectual and spiritual force of what God is and represents causing the soul to detract from a sense of the sacred and thereby belief in Him

Islam and The English Enlightenment Zulfiqar Ali Shah, 2022-06-02 Never before to my knowledge has the cross fertilisation of Western and Islamic ideas been so encyclopedically documented as it is here In reading Islam and the English Enlightenment you will never see the relationship between Islam and the West in the same way again ROBERT F SHEDINGER Professor of Religion Luther College Dr Zulfiqar Ali Shah's Islam and the English Enlightenment is one of the most profoundly enlightening books I have read in years Dr Shah compellingly demonstrates that the thinkers of English Enlightenment were undeniably indebted to Islamic sciences and thought and that the foundational principles of rationalist thought scientific inquiry and religious toleration were deeply anchored in the Islamic tradition KHALED ABOU EL FADL Omar Azmeralda Alfi Distinguished Professor of Law UCLA School of Law This is a book that anyone interested in stepping outside a Eurocentric view of the rise of the West and of the modern age must read MICHAEL A GILLESPIE Professor of Political Science Philosophy Duke University Dr Shah convincingly demonstrates the central role that Islam played in shaping the values and ideas of the Enlightenment reformers such as John Locke and Isaac Newton who had helped to produce the modern world GERALD MACLEAN Emeritus Professor University of Exeter
