experience in the theory of non verbal communications and for lifelong psychotherapy practitioners She lays as groundwork recent research into the neurobiology of interaction and the foundations of non verbal communication in babyhood continuing throughout from a bodymind perspective that pays due attention to the physicality of the body Westland urges therapists to learn how to leave their comfort zone and try new ways of helping their clients Writing in a richly evocative lucid language Westland seeks to bring about change in both psychotherapist and client as they navigate both the verbal and non verbal aspects of embodied relating
