Part of Bradt's distinctive award winning series of Slow travel guides to UK regions the new thoroughly updated second edition of Bradt's Somerset Slow Travel celebrates this charming popular English county. Expert travel writer and local resident Norm Longley blends visitor information, history, culture and anecdote with coverage of wildlife, birdwatching, walking, cycling and other outdoor activities, making this guide perfect for visitors and locals alike. Accommodation and restaurants, plus local food and cider, feature prominently. Longley himself often spends weekends roaming the Somerset countryside in search of exciting and/or novel things to do or at the very least hunting down good food and drink. Somerset is consistently seductive: windswept marshes and wild moorland, enchanting uplands and iron flat lowlands, limestone gorges and a forty mile long stretch of coast with rocky coves, fossil filled cliffs and a tiny island. And of course there's Bath, a UNESCO World Heritage city with beautifully preserved Roman baths, graceful Georgian architecture and enticing gastronomic possibilities. Bradt's Somerset Slow Travel explores all this and more, from the world famous Glastonbury Festival to the American Museum and Gardens carnivals, to quirky local customs, the longest heritage railway in Britain, to England's first designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The Somerset Levels feature, as do the Quantock and Blackdown Hills, the coast and east and south Somerset. There's a seasoning of legend and myth too, from King Arthur at Avalon and Camelot to the country's third largest complex of standing stones at Stanton Drew. Divided into seven easy to explore geographical regions from Bath and north Somerset through Wells and the Mendips to Exmoor National Park and International Dark Sky Reserve, this is an indispensable companion for everyone, from culture devotees to outdoor adventurers, birders to beach lovers, transport enthusiasts to event goers, families to foodies. As well as being extensively updated throughout, this new edition features an expanded selection of walking itineraries, details of Crewkerne and Chard, deeper coverage of local produce including cheese, and wider treatment of wildlife, arts, culture, history and wet weather activities. The result provides an entertaining armchair read alongside a practical guide to exploring this rewarding county.
