Democracy and Difference Through the Aesthetics of Film Richard Tahvildaran-jesswein, 2011-02-10 Democracy and Difference Through the Aesthetics of Film - Text Only Kendall Hunt Publishing Company, 2014-09-24 Crisis' Representations: Frontiers and Identities in the Contemporary Media Narratives, 2020-11-30 This book constitutes a sociological research on the current narrations of the economic and refugee crisis which has mobilized all the aspects of social storytelling during the last decade most particularly in the European South Because the different mass and social media reflect the dominant ideas and representations the research on the meaning of different media narratives becomes a necessary report for the understanding of the relation or inexistent dialogue between official political discourses and popular myths based on everyday life values of prosperity mostly promoted by the mass culture and the cultural industries products Despite the ongoing inequalities and difficulties the contemporary audiences seem to counterbalance misery by the dreams of happiness provided by this kind of products Contributors include Christiana Constantopoulou Amalia Frangiskou Evangelia Kalerante Laurence Larochelle Debora Marcucci Valentina Marinescu Albertina Pretto Maria Thanopoulou Joanna Tsiganou Vasilis Vamvakas and Eleni Zyga Film Theory Goes to the Movies Jim Collins, Ava Preacher Collins, Hilary Radner, 2012-10-02 Film Theory Goes to the Movies fills the gap in film theory literature which has failed to analyze high grossing blockbusters The contributors in this volume however discuss such popular films as The Silence of the Lambs Dances With Wolves Terminator II Pretty Woman Truth or Dare Mystery Train and Jungle Fever They employ a variety of critical approaches from industry analysis to reception study to close readings informed by feminist deconstructive and postmodernist theory as well as recent developments in African American and gay and lesbian criticism An important introduction to contemporary Hollywood this anthology will be of interest to those involved in the fields of film theory literary theory popular culture and women's studies Vulgar Beauty Mila Zuo, 2022-01-24 In Vulgar Beauty Mila Zuo offers a new theorization of cinematic feminine beauty by showing how mediated encounters with Chinese film and popular culture stars produce feelings of Chineseness To illustrate this Zuo uses the vulgar as an analytic to trace how racial gendered and cultural identity is imagined and produced through affect She frames the vulgar as a characteristic that is experienced through the Chinese concept of weidao or flavor in which bitter salty pungent sweet and sour performances of beauty produce non Western forms of sexualized and racialized femininity Analyzing contemporary film and media ranging from actress Gong Li's post Mao movies of the late 1980s and 1990s to Joan Chen's performance in Twin Peaks to Ali Wong's stand up comedy specials Zuo shows how vulgar beauty disrupts Western and colonial notions of beauty Vulgar beauty then becomes the taste of difference By demonstrating how Chinese feminine beauty becomes a cinematic invention invested in forms of affective racialization Zuo makes a critical reconsideration of aesthetic theory Ethics and Aesthetics in Contemporary African Cinema James S. Williams, 2019-03-21 Since the beginnings of African cinema the realm of beauty on screen has been treated with suspicion by directors and critics alike James S Williams explores an exciting new generation of African directors including Abderrahmane Sissako Mahamat Saleh Haroun Fanta Regina Nacro Alain Gomis Newton I Aduaka Jean Pierre Bekolo and Mati Diop who have begun to reassess and embrace the concept of cinematic beauty by not reducing it to ideological critique or the old ideals of pan Africanism Locating the aesthetic within a range of critical fields the rupturing of narrative spectacle and violence by montage the archives of the everyday in the afropolis the plurivocal mysteries of sound and language male intimacy and desire the borderzones of migration and transcultural drift this study reveals the possibility for new non conceptual kinds of beauty in African cinema abstract material migrant erotic convulsive queer Through close readings of key works such as Life on Earth 1998 The Night of Truth 2004 Bamako 2006 Daratt Dry Season 2006 A Screaming Man 2010 Tey Today 2012 The Pirogue 2012 Mille soleils 2013 and Timbuktu 2014 Williams argues that contemporary African filmmakers are proposing propitious ethical forms of relationality and intersubjectivity These stimulate new modes of cultural resistance and transformation that serve to redefine the transnational and the cosmopolitan as well as the very notion of the political in postcolonial art cinema

Music, Performance, and the Realities of Film Ben Winters, 2014-02-05 This book examines the relationship between narrative film and reality as seen through the lens of on screen classical concert performance By investigating these scenes wherein the performance of music is foregrounded in the narrative Winters uncovers how concert performance reflexively articulates music's importance to the ontology of film The book asserts that narrative film of a variety of aesthetic approaches and traditions is no mere copy of everyday reality but constitutes its own filmic reality and that the music heard in a film's underscore plays an important role in distinguishing film reality from the everyday As a result concert scenes are examined as sites for provocative interactions between these two realities in which real world musicians appear in fictional narratives and an audience's suspension of disbelief is problematised In blurring the musical experiences of onscreen observers and participants these concert scenes also allegorize music's role in creating a shared subjectivity between film audience and character and prompt Winters to propose a radically new vision of music's role in narrative cinema wherein musical underscore becomes part of a shared audio visual space that may be just as accessible to the characters as the music they encounter in scenes of concert performance

Negative Geographies David Bissell, Mitch Rose, Paul Harrison (Geographer), 2021-11 Negative Geographies is the first edited collection to chart the political conceptual and ethical consequences of how the underexplored problem of the negative might be posed for contemporary cultural geography Using a variety of case studies and empirical investigations these chapters consider how the negative through annihilations gaps ruptures and tears can work within or against the terms of affirmationism The collection opens up new avenues through which key problems of cultural geography might be differently posed and points to the ways that it might be possible and desirable to think theorize and exemplify negation

New Maricón Cinema Vinodh Venkatesh, 2016-09-27 Recent critically and commercially acclaimed Latin American films such as XXY Contracorriente and Plan B create an affective and bodily connection with viewers that elicits in them an emotive and empathic relationship with queer identities Referring to these films as New Maricón Cinema Vinodh Venkatesh argues that they represent a distinct break from what he terms Maricón Cinema or a cinema that deals with sex and gender difference through an ethically and visually disaffected position exemplified in films such as Fresa y chocolate No se lo digas a nadie and El lugar sin límites Covering feature films from Argentina Chile Cuba Ecuador Mexico Peru the United States and Venezuela New Maricón Cinema is the first study to contextualize and analyze recent homo trans intersexed themed cinema in Latin America within a broader historical and aesthetic genealogy Working with theories of affect circulation and orientations Venkatesh examines key scenes in the work of auteurs such as Marco Berger Javier Fuentes León and Julia Solomonoff and in films including Antes que anochezca and Y tu mamá también to show how their use of an affective poetics situates and regenerates viewers in an ethically productive cinematic space He further demonstrates that New Maricón Cinema has encouraged the production of gay friendly commercial films for popular audiences which reflects wider sociocultural changes regarding gender difference and civil rights that are occurring in Latin America

Untimely Bodies, Untimely Aesthetics Simone

Pfleger,2023-09-15 While heteronormativity continues to permeate nearly all threads of the socio cultural fabric several early twenty first century German films offer insight into how we might challenge that dominance and disrupt its linear construction of time Examining the fluidity of time in eight contemporary films of the Berlin School Untimely Bodies Untimely Aesthetics foregrounds how queer conceptualizations of temporality can engage notions of subjectivity relationality and intimacy in visual representations Each film depicts figures that grapple with an unattainable desire for connection placed in landscapes shaped by hegemonic heteronormative intimacies and a linear temporal organization of life that conforms to mainstream traditional rhythms and milestones Simone Pfleger proposes a new model for viewing non normative relationality and intimacies using the concept of untimeliness as an analytical framework for examining content and aesthetics In these films untimeliness provides an alternative to the romanticization of progress by charting how the filmic figures understand themselves and relate to one another in various spheres work love sex home family and self Ultimately Pfleger shows how the texts uncover a temporary promise of breaking free from restrictive social structures even as they make clear that this schism cannot and should not be permanent By proposing time as a critical lens through which to investigate our relationships and intimacies Untimely Bodies Untimely Aesthetics offers a new way to think about film and encourages moviegoers to turn the analysis back toward themselves and their own desires expectations assumptions and adherence to or deviation from normative narratives in their own lives Absorption Narratives Stephanie M. Pridgeon,2024-12-16

In Absorption Narratives Stephanie M Pridgeon explores cultural depictions of Jewishness Blackness and Indigeneity within a comparative inter American framework The dynamics of Jewishness interacting with other racial categories differ significantly in Latin America and the Caribbean compared with those in the United States and Canada largely due to long standing and often disputed concepts of mestizaje broadly defined as racial mixture As a result a comprehensive understanding of Jewishness and the construction of racial identities requires an exploration of how Jewishness intersects with both Blackness and Indigeneity in the Americas Absorption Narratives charts the ways in which literary works capture differences and similarities among Black Jewish and Indigenous experiences Through an extensive and diverse examination of fiction Pridgeon navigates the complex connections of these identity categories offering a comparative perspective on race and ethnicity across the Americas that destabilizes US centric critical practices Revealing the limitations of US focused models in understanding racial alterity in relation to Jewishness Absorption Narratives emphasizes the importance of viewing the narrative of race relations in the Americas from a hemispheric standpoint Equivocal Subjects Shelleen

Greene,2012-03-01 Equivocal Subjects puts forth an innovative reading of the Italian national cinema Shelleen Greene argues that from the silent era to the present the cinematic representation of the mixed race or interracial subject has served as a means by which Italian racial and national identity have been negotiated and re defined She examines Italy s colonial legacy histories of immigration and emigration and contemporary politics of multiculturalism through its cultural production providing new insights into its traditional film canon Analysing the depiction of African Italian mixed race subjects from the historical epics of the Italian silent golden era to the contemporary period this enlightening book engages the history of Italian nationalism and colonialism through theories of subject formation ideologies of race and postcolonial theory Greene's approach also provides a novel interpretation of recent developments surrounding Italy's status as a major passage for immigrants seeking to enter the European Union This book provides an original theoretical approach to the Italian cinema that speaks to the nation's current political and social climate

Roger Sandall's Films and Contemporary Anthropology

Lorraine Mortimer, 2019-09-12 A look at a prize winning documentarian whose work with aboriginal Australians and others united the fields of film and anthropology in the 1960s and 70s In Roger Sandall's Films and Contemporary Anthropology Lorraine Mortimer argues that while social anthropology and documentary film share historic roots and goals particularly on the continent of Australia their trajectories have tended to remain separate This book reunites film and anthropology through the works of Roger Sandall a New Zealand born filmmaker and Columbia University graduate who was part of the vibrant avant garde and social documentary film culture in New York in the 1960s Mentored by Margaret Mead in anthropology and Cecile Starr in fine arts Sandall was eventually hired as the one man film unit at the newly formed Australian Institute of Aboriginal Studies in 1965 In the 1970s he became a lecturer in anthropology at the University of Sydney Sandall won First Prize for Documentary at the Venice Film Festival in 1968 yet his films are scarcely known even in Australia now Mortimer demonstrates how Sandall's films continue to be relevant to contemporary discussions in the fields of anthropology and documentary studies She ties exploration of the making and restriction of Sandall's aboriginal films and his nonrestricted films made in Mexico Australia and India to the radical history of anthropology and the resurgence today of an expanded existential phenomenological anthropology that encompasses the vital connections between humans animals things and our environment

Shooting the Family Patricia Pisters, Wim Staat, 2005 Shooting the Family a collection of essays on the contemporary media landscape explores ever changing representations of family life on a global scale The contributors argue that new recording technologies allows families an unusual kind of freedom until now unknown to define and respond to their own lives and memories Recently released videos made by young migrants as they discover new homelands and resolve conflicts with their parents for example reverberate alongside the dark portrayals of family life in the formal filmmaking of Ang Lee This book will be a boon to scholars of film theory and media studies as well as to anyone interested in the construction of the family in a postmodern world

Migratory Settings Murat Aydemir, Alex Rotas, 2008 Migratory Settings proposes a shift in perspective from migration as movement from place to place to migration as installing movement within place Migration not only takes place between places but also has its effects on place in place In brief we suggest a view on migration in which place is neither reified nor transcended but thickened as it becomes the setting of the variegated memories imaginations dreams fantasies nightmares anticipations and idealizations of both migrants and native inhabitants that experiences of migration bring into contact with each other Migration makes place overdetermined turning it into the mise en scene of different histories Hence movement does not lead to placelessness but to the intensification and overdetermination of place its heterotopicality At the same time place does not unequivocally authenticate or validate knowledge but shot through with the transnational and the transcultural exceeds it ceaselessly Our contributions take us to the migratory settings of a fictional exhibition a staged political wedding a walking tour in a museum African appropriations of Shakespeare and Sophocles Gollwitz Germany Calais France the body after a heart transplant refugees family portraiture
