Democracy And Regulation How The Public Can Govern Essential Services:

Democracy and Regulation Greg Palast, Jerrold Oppenheim, Theo MacGregor, 2003 Shows how the deregulation of public services in the US has been a success why it has failed elsewhere and what can be done to fix this An Insider's Memoir Gordon Bryant Brown, 2018-05-16 Do you wonder Why is there so much national debt Where has the middle class gone Why do my kids have less opportunity than I did If so this book is for you 97% of money is created by the banks not by governments The Federal Reserve is a private bank controlled by private banks Adam Smith did not say an invisible hand guides the markets Government debt was static until the mid 1970 s and has soared since Milton Friedman and Alan Greenspan both admitted to fundamental economic errors About 1/3 of an average persons spending goes to banks as interest Corporations are using treaties to overrule nations and democracy The TARP bank bailouts were the biggest theft in history Governing the Energy Challenge G. Bruce Doern, Burkard Eberlein, 2009-01-01 Governing the Energy Challenge is a comparative study between Canada and Germany that features essays by leading energy and public policy specialists from both countries The New Systems Reader James Gustave Speth, Kathleen Courrier, 2020-10-19 The recognition is growing truly addressing the problems of the 21st century requires going beyond small tweaks and modest reforms to business as usual it requires changing the system But what does this mean And what would it entail The New Systems Reader highlights some of the most thoughtful substantive and promising answers to these questions drawing on the work and ideas of some of the world's key thinkers and activists on systemic change Amid the failure of traditional politics and policies to address our fundamental challenges an increasing number of thoughtful proposals and real world models suggest new possibilities this book convenes an essential conversation about the future we want International Handbook on the Economics of Corruption Susan Rose-Ackerman, Tina Søreide, 2011-01-01 Volume Two of the International Handbook on the Economics of Corruption presents a comprehensive detailed and in depth analysis of corruption as well as its economic and policy implications It will be a valuable resource not only for experts and students of corruption studies but also for public officials NGO employees and scholars of economic and political development throughout the world Ararat L Osipian Journal of Economic Issues A companion volume to the International Handbook on the Economics of Corruption published in 2006 the specially commissioned papers in Volume Two present some of the best policy oriented research in the field They stress the institutional roots of corruption and include new research on topics ranging from corruption in regulation and procurement to vote buying and private firm payoffs Understanding the consequences of corrupt transactions requires one to know what is being bought with a bribe and how the behavior of public and private actors has been affected The contributors therefore emphasize how the economic analysis of corruption must take account of the broader context within which bribery and self dealing operate Several chapters offer new approaches to empirical research on corruption that range from individual level data to the macro economy Chapters with an explicit policy focus deal with the efficacy of anti corruption agencies multi stakeholder initiatives red flag warning systems and international conventions This cutting edge work will be an unmatched resource for scholars and students of corruption professionals in international aid and finance organizations and scholars and professionals with more general interests in economic and political development National Regulation and Trade

Liberalization in Services Markus Krajewski, 2003-01-01 Like tariffs and other border measures national regulatory barriers impede international trade Unlike tariffs however such barriers usually indicate an important domestic policy choice This conflict of interest has emerged as a crucial issue in international law particularly with regard to services such as telecommunications and health services This study is the first to analyze the potential impact of incompatibilities between national regulatory regimes and the rules and obligations imposed by the General Agreement on Trade in Services GATS In the process of arriving at his challenging concluding theses the author investigates such relevant concepts as the following the political and ideological dynamics of GATS negotiations services trade liberalization in regional integration systems particularly in EC law policies common to diverse national regulatory systems the notions of deregulation and privatization the human rights implications of international trade law the GATS obligations of market access national treatment and most favoured nation treatment the role of the WTO s dispute settlement organs GATS transparency obligations Professor Krajewski s study is of enormous significance to specialists in regulatory policies and instruments at all national and sectoral levels especially in the context of ongoing GATS negotiations As the author warns Unless GATS negotiators and national regulators have a thorough understanding of the relationship between GATS obligations and regulatory policies and instruments they cannot effectively use the flexible elements of GATS and could reach an agreement which they may later regret Hydro Jamie Swift, Keith Stewart, 2004 Nothing is going to go wrong Mike Harris 2001 Privatization of power soon became one of the biggest political disasters in Ontario history Hydro reveals a train wreck that was decades in the making First there was blind faith in the nuclear option steeped in ecological arrogance Then came the promise of marketplace magic Jamie Swift and Keith Stewart tell the tale of how it unfolded It s a dramatic story of the greed intrigue and resistance that led to the dismantling of Canada s largest crown corporation A crucial part of the story is how Ontario ignored thirty years of green arguments for conservation and renewable energy Based on interviews with former premiers Hydro insiders and grassroots activists Hydro will intrigue anyone wondering how to keep the lights on without frying the planet

Services of General Interest Beyond the Single Market Markus Krajewski, 2015-06-23 This is the first book ever to assess comprehensively the impact of EU international agreements on services of general interest Services of general interest remain high on the political and legal agenda of the European Union However the debates about the impact of EU law on services of general interest usually focus on internal market law such as the free movement of services competition law state aid rules and the law of public procurement The external and international dimensions of the European legal framework for services of general interest are often overlooked This book addresses the impact of international trade and investment agreements on public services and the role these services play in EU external relations It shows that the inherent tension between establishing and securing undistorted competition on markets and the logic of public services exists in international economic law in a similar way as in EU internal law Given the contentiousness of international trade and investment agreements as well as the EU's external policies the issues discussed in this volume are timely and relevant and contribute to the ongoing debate about the future of services of general interest in the EU with fresh ideas and perspectives Markus Krajewski is Professor of Public and International Law at the University of Erlangen Nuremberg Germany Legal Frameworks for Transparency in Water Utilities Regulation Mohamad Mova Al'Afghani, 2016-08-12 Transparency in the regulation of water utilities is essential in order to ensure quality and fairness This book explores and compares different regulatory arrangements in the water utilities sectors in three jurisdictions to determine which regulatory and ownership model is most transparent and why The three jurisdictions considered are England UK Victoria Australia and Jakarta Indonesia Following an introduction to the importance of transparency in water utilities regulation the book provides an overview of the three chosen jurisdictions and their legal and institutional frameworks Through a comparison of these the author explores the contested and difficult terrain of privatization as often opposed to public ownership in which it is shown that the relationships between transparency and ownership models are not as clear cut as might be assumed Chapters consider various aspects and outcomes of the regulatory process and the role of transparency including topics such as regulators internal governance mechanisms utilities corporate governance licensing and information flow freedom of information and transparency in tariffs and pricing as well as customer service The book concludes with a summary of lessons learned to inform the refinement of transparency in utilities regulation Capitalism, For and Against Ann E. Cudd, Nancy Holmstrom, 2011-01-06 Political philosophy and feminist theory have rarely examined in detail how capitalism affects the lives of women Ann Cudd and Nancy Holmstrom take up opposing sides of the issue debating whether capitalism is valuable as an ideal and whether as an actually existing economic system it is good for women In a discussion covering a broad range of social and economic issues including unequal pay industrial reforms and sweatshops they examine how these and other issues relate to women and how effectively to analyze what constitutes capitalism and women's interests Each author also responds to the opposing arguments providing a thorough debate of the topics covered The resulting volume will interest a wide range of readers in philosophy political theory women's studies and global affairs Rules, Rules, Rules, Rules G. Bruce Doern, Robert Johnson, 2006-01-01 Rules Rules Rules Rules considers various sectors where rule making spans all or most of the four levels of jurisdiction international federal provincial and city or local in areas such as food safety investment and trade forestry drinking water oil and gas and emergency management Making European Citizens R. Bellamy, D. Castiglione, J. Shaw, 2015-12-31 Making European Citizens examines the forms of transnational citizenship developing in Europe Active citizenship involves more than simply voting Achieving mobilization at a transnational level may involve new democratic techniques and skills The volume explores how far European citizens have acquired the requisite methods and qualities Regulatory Framework in India Sapna Chadah,2017-01-01 Since 1980s deregulation and contracting out of governmental functions services and responsibilities have reverberated around the world under the impact and influence of liberalization privatization and globalization LPG The shift of power from the public to the private sector has profound implications for public law There has been a shift in the perceived role of Government from acting as the principal vehicle for socio economic development to guiding and facilitating that development What we see is not that total retreat of the State but rather the substitution of one form of involvement by the state in the economy for another The book deals with legal and policy issues underpinning the development and strengthening of the regulatory and institutional framework for better governance Main thrust of book is to study and analyze the changes introduced under the impact of liberalization privatization and globalization on the system and sub systems of governance from the perspective of economy efficiency effectiveness ethics and equity The book is useful to legal professionals administrators academicians researchers and students Global Energy Justice Benjamin K. Sovacool,Michael H. Dworkin,2014-09-29 We need new ways of thinking about and approaching the world s energy problems Global energy security and access is one of the central justice issues of our time with profound implications for happiness welfare freedom equity and due process This book combines up to date data on global energy security and climate change with fresh perspectives on the meaning of justice in social decision making Benjamin K Sovacool and Michael H Dworkin address how justice theory can help people to make more meaningful decisions about the production delivery use and effects of energy Exploring energy dilemmas in real life situations they link recent events to eight global energy injustices and employ philosophy and ethics to make sense of justice as a tool in the decision making process They go on to provide remedies and policies that planners and individuals can utilize to create a more equitable and just energy future Privatisation against the European Social Model Marica Frangakis,Christoph

Hermann,Károly Lóránt,2009-11-05 This book addresses the EU as powerful driver of the wave of privatizations in the network industries and public services since the early 1990s Based on theoretical arguments and empirical studies it examines the impact of these policies on what is regarded as the normative pillars of the European Social Model
