Democratization in Post-Suharto Indonesia Marco Bunte, Andreas Ufen, 2008-08-21 This book gives an overview of the difficult and multilayered process of democratization in Indonesia since the fall of its long term autocratic ruler Suharto

Routledge Handbook of Southeast Asian Democratization William Case, 2015-04-24 Southeast Asia an economically dynamic and strategically vital region seemed until recently to be transiting to more democratic politics This progress has suddenly stalled or even gone into reverse requiring that analysts seriously rethink their expectations and theorizing The Routledge Handbook of Southeast Asian Democratization provides the first book length account of the reasons for democracy's declining fortunes in the region today Combining theory and case studies it is structured in four major sections Stunted Trajectories and Unhelpful Milieus Wavering Social Forces Uncertain Institutions Country cases and democratic guises This interdisciplinary reference work addresses topics including the impact of belief systems historical records regional and global contexts civil society ethnicity women Islam and social media The performance of political institutions is also assessed and the volume offers a series of in depth case studies evaluating the country records of particular democratic hybrid and authoritarian regimes from a democratization perspective Bringing together nearly 30 key international experts in the field this cutting edge Handbook offers a comprehensive and fresh investigation into democracy in the region This timely survey will be essential reading for scholars and students of Democratization and Asian Politics as well as policymakers concerned with democracy's setbacks in Southeast Asia and the implications for the region's citizens Party Politics in Southeast Asia

Dirk Tomsa, Andreas Ufen, 2013 Contributing to the growing discourse on political parties in Asia this book looks at parties in Southeast Asia's most competitive electoral democracies of Indonesia Thailand and the Philippines It highlights the diverse dynamics of party politics in the region and provides new insights into organizational structures mobilizational strategies and the multiple dimensions of linkages between political parties and their voters The book focuses on the prominence of clientelistic practices and strategies both within parties as well as between parties and their voters It demonstrates that clientelism is extremely versatile and can take many forms ranging from traditional personalized relationships between a patron and a client to the modern reincarnations of broker driven network clientelism that is often based on more anonymous relations The book also discusses how contemporary political parties often combine clientelistic practices with more formal patterns of organization and communication thus raising questions about neat analytical dichotomies Straddling the intersection between political science and area studies this book is of interest to students and scholars of contemporary Southeast Asian politics and political scientists and Asian Studies specialists with a broader research interest in comparative democratization studies Political Parties and Democracy T. Inoguchi, J. Blondel, 2012-12-23 Well reputed political scientists residing and teaching in ten countries five in Asia and five in Europe comparatively examine the place of political parties in democracy and provide an empirically rigorous up to date comprehensive synthesis of the organization of political parties and their links with citizens in a democracy

Adolescents in Contemporary Indonesia Lyn Parker, Pam

Nilan, 2013-07-18 The youth demographic is a large and growing cohort in Indonesia and adolescents embody the currents of social change Throughout the twentieth century they were significant agents of social protest leading to social and political transformation This book looks at the importance of adolescents in contemporary Indonesia and how they are spearheading not just globalisation and a growing consumer youth culture but also the Islamisation movement The book explores both the inner worlds and social selves of Indonesian adolescents It presents an in depth knowledge of Indonesian society and culture in various parts of Indonesia and discusses national patterns and trends Grounded in two field sites the book enables an analysis of young people's local ethnic and religious identities and their commitment to the Indonesian nation state It goes on to look at the physical age bracket of youth the definitions used by the Indonesian state and other agencies and the perceptions of youth themselves about adolescence and adulthood Providing a comprehensive study of young people in contemporary Indonesia the book addresses gender relations the importance of education for youth and youth engagement with popular culture and the moral issue concerning the sexual propriety of young people It is a useful contribution for students and academics of Asian Studies Sociology and Cultural Studies

Animism in Southeast Asia Kaj Arhem, Guido

Sprenger, 2015-11-19 Animism refers to ontologies or worldviews which assign agency and personhood to human and non human beings alike Recent years have seen a revival of this concept in anthropology where it is now discussed as an alternative to modern Western naturalistic notions of human environment relations Based on original fieldwork this book presents a number of case studies of animism from insular and peninsular Southeast Asia and offers a comprehensive overview of the phenomenon its diversity and underlying commonalities and its resilience in the face of powerful forces of change Critically engaging with the current standard notion of animism based on hunter gatherer and horticulturalist societies in other regions it examines the roles of life forces souls and spirits in local cosmologies and indigenous religion It proposes an expansion of the concept to societies featuring mixed farming sacrifice and hierarchy and explores the question of how non human agents are created through acts of attention and communication touching upon the relationship between animist ontologies world religion and the state Shedding new light on Southeast Asian religious ethnographic research the book is a significant contribution to anthropological theory and the revitalization of the concept of animism in the humanities and social sciences

Religious Authority and Local Governance in Eastern Indonesia Jeremy J Kingsley, 2018-07-16

Religion plays a key role in everyday affairs in Indonesia including governance at the local regional and national level This book investigates the local governance landscape of the world's largest Muslim majority state Indonesia by providing a detailed account of local communities and religious authority on the eastern Indonesian island of Lombok one of the nation's most pious areas In particular this book considers the interaction of state and non state actors and institutions and how these institutions are interwoven into a fabric of governance Through an ethnographic case study of an Islamic boarding school

Darul Falah and the community committed to it this book trains its focus upon local Muslim religious leaders Tuan Guru who are central to local governance Drawing upon the notion of the fabric of governance this book shows how governance is woven from multiple strands which are made up of a combination of institutions rules and actors to be interpreted within dynamic social legal and political processes In doing so this book employs a new means to theorise governance frameworks and understand how religion and governance are tightly intertwined Religious Authority and Local Governance in Eastern Indonesia seeks to re orient discussions of Indonesian political and legal affairs from the ground up and use local governance as a means to speak to larger social legal and political issues Islamic Studies Series Volume 25

Decentralization of government and forestry in Indonesia Thung, P.H.,2019-06-03 The decentralization program that Indonesia embarked on in 1998 continues to unfold through manifold sometimes contradictory processes This working paper presents a concise and up to date overview of the aims dimensions and dynamics of decentralization

Party Politics and Democratization in Indonesia Dirk Tomsa,2008-09-03 Party Politics and Democratization in Indonesia Golkar in the Post Suharto Era provides the first in depth analysis of contemporary Indonesian party politics and the first systematic explanation why Golkar is still the strongest party in Indonesia Applying a multi dimensional conceptual framework of party institutionalization theory the book examines Golkar s organizational infrastructure its decisional autonomy and programmatic platform as well as the party s relations to the mass media Strengths and weaknesses in the individual dimensions of institutionalization are then contrasted with the corresponding levels of institutionalization reached by Indonesia s other major parties Tomsa argues that Golkar remains Indonesia s strongest party because it is better institutionalized than its electoral competitors However while highlighting the former regime party s strengths in key aspects of party institutionalization he also shows that Golkar also has some considerable institutional weaknesses which in 2004 prevented the party from achieving an even better result in the general election As an empirical study on Golkar and Indonesia s other major political parties this book will be of huge interest to students and scholars of Southeast Asian politics political parties and elections and democratization

Salverda,2012-12-28 Offering insightful anthropological historical contributions to the understanding of elites worldwide this book helps us grasp their ways of life and role in times of contested global inequalities Case studies include the Polish gentry the white former colonial elite of Mauritius professional elites and transnational financial elites

Presidentialism and Democracy in East and Southeast Asia Marco Bunte,Mark R. Thompson,2022-11-03 Presidentialism and Democracy in East and Southeast Asia examines the impact of presidential systems on democracies by examining three distinct literatures the perilousness of competing legitimacies of the executive and legislative branches issues of institutional design particularly regarding semi presidentialism and the rise of executive aggrandizement Despite often intense political conflict and temporary instability in the East and Southeast Asia presidential systems of various types from relatively pure forms to semi presidentialism and other hybrids have largely been resilient

Although there are signs of growing autocratization in several cases presidentialism associated with both accommodation and conflict has usually not driven it This book s contributions to presidentialism debates will be of interests to students and scholars of comparative politics while it also offers detailed analysis of the presidency in these East and Southeast Asian cases

Security Sector Reform in Southeast Asia F. Heiduk,2014-03-07 Successful reform of the security sector has been regarded as pivotal for a successful transition from authoritarianism to democracy by Western donors A global cast of contributors examines SSR in a variety of policy fields in Southeast Asia paying specific attention to the adaption of Western reform concepts by local actors

The Indonesian Way Jürgen Rüländ,2017-12-12 On December 31 2015 the ten member Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN ushered in a new era with the founding of the ASEAN Community AC The culmination of 12 years of intensive preparation the AC was both a historic initiative and an unprecedented step toward the area s regional integration Political commentators and media outlets however greeted its establishment with little fanfare Implicitly and explicitly they suggested that the AC was only the beginning Southeast Asia they seemed to say was taking its first steps on a linear process of unification that would converge on the model of the European Union In The Indonesian Way J rgen R land challenges this previously unquestioned diffusion of European norms Focusing on the reception of ASEAN in Indonesia R land traces how foreign policy stakeholders in government civil society the legislature academe the press and the business sector have responded to calls for ASEAN s Europeanization ultimately fusing them with their own distinctly Indonesian form of regionalism His analysis reframes the nature of ASEAN as well as the discipline of international relations more broadly writing a narrative of regional integration and norm diffusion that breaks free of Eurocentric thought

Chinese Indonesians in Post-Suharto Indonesia Wu-Ling Chong,2018-10-02 Selfish obscenely rich insular and opportunistic these remain how Chinese minorities in Indonesia are perceived by the indigenous population However far from being passive victims of discrimination and marginalisation Chong presents a forceful case in which Chinese Indonesians possess the agency to shape their future in the country particularly in the changing political business and socio cultural environment after the fall of Suharto While a lack of good governance that promotes the rule of law and accountability allows or even encourages some Chinese to maintain the status quo by perpetuating corrupt business practices inherited from Suharto s New Order regime there are other Chinese Indonesians who make full use of the democratic space opened up under the new administrations acting as agents of reform by participating in electoral politics and establishing inter ethnic socio cultural organisations Building on Anthony Giddens s structure agency theory and Pierre Bourdieu s notions of habitus and field Chong shows that the Chinese minorities have played an active role in the democratic process even though they continue to occupy an ambivalent position in Indonesia The Chinese Indonesians diverse strategies to safeguard their personal interests and cultural identities make a stimulating case study of what an ethnic minority could do to make a difference Backed by formidable research Chong has produced an intriguing and original view of the political social and economic activity of the still precariously placed Chinese minority in Indonesia Donald L Horowitz Duke University author of Constitutional Change and Democracy in Indonesia In this illuminating study Chong traces the political economy of Indonesia's ethnic Chinese minority as they navigate the country's post 1998 politics which is more free but still lacks strong rule of law Focusing especially on Medan and Surabaya she analyses how some have strongly supported reforms while many continue old practices of surviving and profiting by participating in massive corruption and extortion Jeffrey A Winters Northwestern University author of Oligarchy

Oligarchic Cartelization in Post-Suharto Indonesia Boni Hargens, 2021-12-20 Oligarchic Cartelization in Post Suharto Indonesia By Boni Hargens As detailed in Oligarchic Cartelization in Post Suharto Indonesia a few ruling individuals from party organizations overpowered Indonesia's post authoritarian representative democracy The legislative process of the 2017 Election Act was the case study employed to examine this assumption The underlying thinking was that there was a contest between wealth power oligarchy and participation power democracy The power of wealth controls the party and government institutions Notwithstanding the presence of participation power there was however no balance between wealth power and participation power because the formal control of politics was in the hands of party oligarchs This study is purposed to bridge the gap in knowledge by exploring how the party oligarchs maintain the policymaking reputedly using cartelized strategies to defend the status quo By employing the oligarchy and cartelization concepts the central question of this inquiry focused on how the party oligarchs mastered the policy process in post Suharto Indonesia Qualitative findings indicated that the party oligarchs engineered the legal process in parliament applying cartelized strategies to defend privileges they obtained from collusive interpenetrations with the state Understanding the oligarchic cartelization theoretical postulate is a fundamental step for party members to improve their performance in public offices The results of this study can also be a useful reference for pro democracy activists to defend the ontological essence of public participation in implementing representative democracy at an appropriate level

Democracy for Sale Edward Aspinall, Ward Berenschot, 2019-04-15 Democracy for Sale is an on the ground account of Indonesian democracy analyzing its election campaigns and behind the scenes machinations Edward Aspinall and Ward Berenschot assess the informal networks and political strategies that shape access to power and privilege in the messy political environment of contemporary Indonesia In post Suharto Indonesian politics the exchange of patronage for political support is commonplace Clientelism argue the authors saturates the political system and in Democracy for Sale they reveal the everyday practices of vote buying influence peddling manipulating government programs and skimming money from government projects In doing so Aspinall and Berenschot advance three major arguments The first argument points toward the role of religion kinship and other identities in Indonesian clientelism The second explains how and why Indonesia's distinctive system of free wheeling clientelism came into being And the third argument addresses variation in the patterns and intensity of clientelism Through these arguments and with comparative leverage from political practices in India and Argentina Democracy for Sale provides compelling evidence of the importance of informal networks and relationships rather than formal parties and institutions in contemporary Indonesia

Democratization and Civilian Control in Asia A. Croissant, D. Kuehn, P. Lorenz, P. Chambers, 2015-12-04 How can civilians in newly democratized countries ensure their control over the military While establishing civilian control of the military is a necessary condition for a functioning democracy it requires prudent strategic action on the part of the decision makers to remove the military from positions of power and make it follow their orders
