Denis Dent E W Hornung,2020-12-23 Ernest William Hornung was born in Middlesbrough England on 7th June 1866 the third son and youngest of eight children Although spending most of his life in England and France he spent two years in Australia from 1884 and that experience was to colour and influence much of his written works The setting is an English village that stands on the site of an historic battle Some characters refer to the battle as a metaphor for the struggles of life hence the title Battle is the only one of the five Christmas Books that has no supernatural or explicitly religious elements One scene takes place at Christmas time but it is not the final scene The story bears some resemblance to The Cricket on the Hearth in two respects it has a non urban setting and it is resolved with a romantic twist It is even less of a social novel than is Cricket As is typical with Dickens the ending is a happy one It is one of Dickens s lesser known works and has never attained any high level of popularity a trait it shares among the Christmas Books with The Haunted Man

Hornung, 2016-12-26 Denis Dent A Novel By Ernest W. Hornung Denis Dent Ernest W. Hornung, Harrison Fisher, 2017-05-11 Ernest William Hornung 7 June 1866 – 22 March 1921 was an English author and poet known for writing the A. J. Raffles series of stories about a gentleman thief in late 19th-century London. Hornung was educated at Uppingham School; as a result of poor health, he left the school in December 1883 to travel to Sydney, where he stayed for two years. He drew on his Australian experiences as a background when he began writing, initially short stories and later novels. In 1898, he wrote In the Chains of Crime, which introduced Raffles and his sidekick Bunny Manders; the characters were based partly on his friends Oscar Wilde and his lover Lord Alfred Douglas and also on the characters of Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson created by his brother-in-law Arthur Conan Doyle. The series of Raffles short stories were collected for sale in book form in 1899 and two further books of Raffles short stories followed as well as a poorly received novel. Aside from his Raffles stories, Hornung was a prodigious writer of fiction, publishing numerous books from 1890 with A Bride from the Bush to his 1914 novel The Crime Doctor. The First World War brought an end to Hornung's fictional output. His son Oscar was killed at the Second Battle of Ypres in July 1915. Hornung joined the YMCA initially in England then in France where he helped run a canteen and library. He published two collections of poetry during the war and then afterwards one further volume of verse and an account of his time spent in France, Notes of a Camp Follower on the Western Front. Hornung's fragile constitution was further weakened by the stress of his war work. To aid his recuperation, he and his wife visited the south of France in 1921. He fell ill from influenza on the journey and died on 22 March 1921, aged 54. Although much of Hornung's work has fallen into obscurity, his Raffles stories continued to be popular and have formed numerous film and television adaptations. Hornung's stories dealt with a wider range of themes than crime; he examined scientific and medical developments, guilt, class, and the unequal role played by women in society. Two threads that run through a sizeable proportion of his books are Australia and cricket; the latter was also a lifelong passion.

Harrison Fisher, July 27, 1875 or 1877–January 19, 1934, was an American illustrator.
