The overall theological trajectory/theme of the book: divine blessing creating for blessing (Gen 1:1-11) moving towards blessing (Gen 12:1-4), experiencing the blessing (Gen 25:1-36) and being a blessing (Gen 37:1-50) is thus progressively developed. The specificity of these theological ideas for their respective texts makes possible a sequential homiletical movement through each pericope of the book, enabling the expositor to discover valid application for sermons. Simon, 2021-05-24 The letter to the Ephesians is missional to its core. It effectively exhorts its readers to understand, support, and participate in God's mission to rescue humanity and all creation from the damage and distortion of sin and so bring about a renewed creation filled with God's glorious fullness. Working at the creative intersection of biblical studies and missiology, this study adopts a missional hermeneutic to overcome the scholarly neglect of mission in Ephesians. The book systematically explores each passage in Ephesians, delving into the characterization of God and his mission, allusions to Old Testament missional texts in Ephesians, and the portrayal of the apostle Paul and believers as participants in God's mission. A multi-faceted vision of mission emerges which encompasses God's actions in salvation history, the church as mediator of God's glory, reconciliation and grace to the nations, prayer, ethical witness, and verbal proclamation of the gospel.

Reading Ephesians through this missional lens yields fresh insights into its purpose and context and the richness of its portrait of mission
