Delta Thrissur Poem If:

Early Christianity in Contexts William Tabbernee, 2014-11-18 This major work draws on current archaeological and textual research to trace the spread of Christianity in the first millennium William Tabbernee an internationally renowned scholar of the history of Christianity has assembled a team of expert historians to survey the diverse forms of early Christianity as it spread across centuries cultures and continents Organized according to geographical areas of the late antique world this book examines what various regions looked like before and after the introduction of Christianity How and when was Christianity or a new form or expression of it introduced into the region How were Christian life and thought shaped by the particularities of the local setting And how did Christianity in turn influence or reshape the local culture The book's careful attention to local realities adds depth and concreteness to students understanding of early Christianity while its broad sweep introduces them to first millennium precursors of today's variegated globalized religion Numerous photographs sidebars and maps are included

Chicken Train Terry Minchow-Proffitt, 2016-05-01 A Personal Note About Chicken Train Poems from the Arkansas Delta My hope for this collection is big I want these poems to speak in a wholehearted way to where folks live whether they're from the Arkansas

Delta or Timbuktu I've never actually met anyone from Timbuktu But if a Timbuktuan were to climb aboard the Chicken Train I'm praying that the wild ride would carry him or her around the bend and more deeply into the human mystery with honesty and grace These poems clearly stem from the Arkansas Delta but I've sought to root them deeper still in a place perhaps more figurative than literal but nonetheless real that universal place of longing and belonging we all yearn for called home Praise for Chicken Train Each poem is part of a greater story a string of memories images and people but mainly a strong and stirring collection Of places places on the map places in the mind places in the lost and mysterious thing we call the past places from which we couldn't wait to leave and places to which we only wish we could return Read these poems as you would signs along the highway some quickly some slowly it doesn't matter Each one will spark your imagination or wake a forgotten memory and suggest a direction backward or forward but always toward a destiny a destination a place you will recognize Steve Cash Ozark Mountain Daredevils I am so grateful for your work for this work And it is indeed an honor to be included by the use of our lyrics Every region of the planet has its mystery its darkness and its light And every place especially a place like the Arkansas Delta needs its voice its champion and its guide Now for me when I think of who I am and where I come from that voice will be yours From the Foreword by John Dillon Ozark Mountain Daredevils The Delta and Other Poems Jerry Patterson, 1988-07-01 Delta Return Charles Greenleaf Bell, 1969 A series of poems arising from the author's June 1953 bus trip to visit his mother in his hometown of Greenville Mississippi Destiny; A Poem E.
