Occupational Therapy for Older People

Christian Pozzi,Alessandro Lanzoni,Maud J. L. Graff,Alessandro Morandi,2020-01-31 This book focuses on evidence based occupational therapy in the care of older adults in different clinical settings from home to acute hospital from intensive care unit to rehabilitation centers and nursing homes Occupational therapy has progressively developed as a new discipline aiming to improve the daily life of individuals of different ages from children to older adults The book first reviews the interaction between occupational therapy and geriatrics and then discusses in depth how occupational therapy interventions are applied in the community in the acute hospital and in the nursing home. It highlights the key role of occupational therapy in the management of frail patients including critically ill older patients and persons with dementia and describes in detail how to maintain occupational therapy interventions across different settings to avoid the fragmentation of care. The ageing population requires new innovative approaches to improve the quality of life and as such this book provides clinicians with handy key information on how to implement occupational therapy in the daily clinical care of older adults based on the current scientific evidence.

Caring for Older People in the Community Angela Hudson, Lesley Moore, 2009-04-13

Caring for older people encompasses complex physical, social and psychological needs and poses many diverse challenges for nurses. Caring for Older People in the Community provides nurses with an up to date practical resource that explores these challenges. Throughout the book the use of reflection points and scenarios enable the reader to reflect on current issues and consider how underpinning theory supports practice. Each chapter is evidence based and fully referenced with full contact details of charities. This book will appeal to health and social care practitioners working in community settings and will help nurses meet the challenge of nursing and the ageing population with empathy and understanding of diverse needs.
