Democracy Education And Multiculturalism Dilemmas Of Citizenship In A Global World:

Democracy, Education, and Multiculturalism Carlos Alberto Torres, 1998-10-29 This important book looks at developments that are changing our understanding of the role of education in citizenship and the possibilities of democratic participation The first chapter reviews theories of citizenship and education based on the classical contributions to political theory of C B MacPherson and T H Marshall The second chapter challenges educators to think more politically about education It is based on a seminal analysis that shows the role education plays in the liberal neoliberal and neoconservative state incorporating critical perspectives from neo Marxism postmodernism and feminism In chapter three Professor Torres analyzes the transition from the welfare state to the neoliberal state including the role of international organizations in promoting educational reform and privatization policies In the concluding chapter Torres draws on Hobbes Locke Jefferson Kant Hegel Marx and other writers such as C Mouffe and C Pateman to outline contemporary approaches to multiculturalism in education and citizenship

Citizenship and Education in Liberal-Democratic Societies Kevin McDonough, Walter Feinberg, 2003-08-28 The essays in this volume address the educational issues which arise when national sub national and supra national identities compete How can we determine the limits of parental educational rights when the concern of liberalism to protect and promote children s autonomy conflicts with the desire to maintain communal integrity Given the advances made by the forces of globalization can the liberal democratic state morally justify its traditional purpose of forging a cohesive national identity Or has increasing globalization rendered this educational aim obsolete and morally corrupt Should liberal education instead seek to foster a sense of global citizenship even if doing so would suppress patriotic identification In addressing these and many other questions the volume examines the theoretical and practical issues at stake between nationalists multiculturalists and cosmopolitans in the field of education The fifteen essays plus an introductory essay by the editors provide a genuine productive dialogue between political and legal philosophers and educational theorists

The Educational Challenge of Cultural Diversity in the International Context Christos Govaris, Stavroula Kaldi (ed.), 2010 The book contributes to the promotion of intercultural scientific discourse concerning the issue of managing the worldwide common challenge of cultural diversity in different education systems Considering the diversity in the school student population as an educational challenge the aim of this volume is to present theoretical and research works associated to the scientific discourse about intercultural education and its importance to education on a national level and to the educational policies regarding school integration of pupils with immigrant background in different education systems The examples about the effective management of diversity of student population on a national level and the open scientific questions that are presented can contribute to broaden our perspective regarding the width both of dimensions of this educational challenge and of the possibilities to manage the diversity of student population effectively

Ecopedagogy Greg William Misiaszek, 2020-10-15 To stop the downward spiral of intensifying environmental violence that inevitably leads to social violence we as humans need to better understand what is at stake and to determine how to make changes at the root levels Ecopedagogy is centered on understanding the struggles of and connections between human acts of environmental and social violence Greg W Misiasek argues that ecopedagogies grounded in critical Freirean pedagogies construct learning that leads to human actions geared towards increased social and environmental justice and planetary sustainability Throughout the book he discusses the need for teaching reading and researching through problematizing the causes of socio environmental violence including oppressive processes of globalization and constructs of development economics and citizenship to name a few that emerge from socio historical oppressions e g colonialization racism patriarchy neoliberalism xenophobia epistemicide and dominance over the rest of nature Misiasek concludes with ecopedagogies challenges within the current post truth era and possibilities of reimagining UNESCO s Sustainable Development Goals SDGs

Global Constructions of Multicultural Education Carl A. Grant, Joy L. Lei, 2001-06-01 This book tells us how various global regions are dealing with three major concerns within the field of multicultural education the conceptualization and realization of difference and diversity the inclusion and exclusion of social groups within a definition of multicultural education and the effects of power on relations between and among groups identified under the multicultural education umbrella All of the chapter authors pay attention to these themes but at the same time they bring their particular interests and perspectives to the book addressing issues such as linguistic racial ethnic and religious diversity class educational inequalities teacher education conceptualizations of citizenship and questions of identity construction In addition the authors offer both historical and social contexts for their analytical discussion of the ideals and practices of multicultural education in a particular region This is not a book that tells us about multicultural education with an international twist it provides readers with different ways to think talk and do research about issues of diversity difference and the effects of power as they relate to education

Teaching Comparative Education Patricia K. Kubow, Allison H. Blosser, 2016-03-01 With chapter contributions from seminal scholars in the field of comparative and international education CIE this book examines the ways in which comparative education is being taught or advocated for in teacher education within higher education institutions worldwide A particular concern raised by the authors in locations as diverse as Germany Singapore the United Kingdom and the United States is the utilitarian approach in teacher education where that which is valued is that which is measurable The implications for what and how CIE should be taught is examined in light of the ideological sociocultural political and economic trends influencing education worldwide The main questions posed in the book include What are the challenges and opportunities for CIE and its practice now and in the future

European and Latin American Higher Education Between Mirrors António Teodoro, Manuela Guilherme, 2014-05-05 This book aims to deepen the discussion about the goals envisioned the roles undertaken and constraints found in higher education institutions both in Europe and Latin America in current times This book addresses the controversies and challenges regarding globalising ideologies policies and practices at place It questions leading concepts epistemological axioms and sweeping transnational policies which are shaking core principles traditional routines and local commitments of European and Latin American higher education institutions It focuses on the motivations and consequences of transnational networking in academic life on the impacts of the Bologna process both its vision and implementation in higher education in Europe and its exportation to Latin America This book also examines the definitions translations and implications of concepts such as equality and difference equity and solidarity governance and citizenship and their significance in organizational geographical and global contexts of contemporary higher education both in Europe and Latin America

Citizenship Education in the Era of Globalization, 2008-01-01 This collection of timely articles is the first to explore the dynamics between globalization and education from a specifically Canadian perspective The articles engage with emergent debates and new discourses around global orientations to citizenship education currently defining scholarly work and teaching practices in Canada This book will therefore be of great interest to Canadian teacher educators who are seeking to infuse a global perspective into their pre service programs as well as to globally oriented undergraduate and graduate course instructors from a range of scholarly disciplines both in Canada and elsewhere The Canadian perspective proves to be not surprisingly global in essence The articles contained in Citizenship Education in the Era of Globalization Canadian Perspectives map the history of citizenship education and global studies and probe the notion of global citizenship for its possibilities and impossibilities Recognizing the importance of engaging with the lives of students and teachers the contributions also include articles reporting on research and theory about such topics as the complexities of second generation youth identity and the extent to which mainstream teachers can bring global citizenship education into their classrooms The collection presents an engaging look into the theory and practice of citizenship education in Canada during a time when bringing global issues to the classroom is an imperative of democratic schooling

The Subaltern Speak Michael W. Apple, Kristen L. Buras, 2013-01-11 The question of whose perspective experience and history is privileged in educational institutions has shaped curriculum debates for decades In this insightful collection Michael W Apple and Kristen L Buras interrogate the notion that some knowledge is worth more than others The Subaltern Speak combines an analysis of the ways in which various forms of power now operate with a specific focus on spaces in which subaltern groups act to reassert their own perceived identities cultures and histories

Pains and Gains of Ethnic Multilingual Learners in China Ge Wang, 2016-04-18 This book introduces an ethnographic case study of two English majors of ethnic minority at YUN a local university of nationalities in southwest China Drawing on the theories of post structuralism and critical multiculturalism this book mainly studies two female multilingual individuals in Yunnan China By scrutinizing university policies curriculum personal learning histories and by discussing the unequal power relationship between national policies school curricula and ethnic multilingual learners this book provides information at a micro level on how the two ethnic minority students who have acquired three languages L1 native L2 Mandarin Chinese and L3 English successfully navigate the Chinese higher education system as multilingual learners despite various tensions difficulties and challenges How these students construct their multiple identities as well as significant factors affecting such identity construction is also discussed This book will contribute to the scholarship of policy and practice in ethnic multilingual education in China by addressing the challenges for tertiary institutions and ethnic multilingual learners The author also points out that multiculturalism as a discourse of education might help ease the tension of being an ethnic minority and a Chinese national and reduce the danger of being assimilated or being marginalized

Minority Student Retention Alan Seidman, 2019-05-23 Student retention continues to be a vexing problem for all colleges and universities In spite of the money spent on creating programs and services to help retain students until they achieve their academic and personal goals and graduate the figures have not improved over time This is particularly true for minority students who have a greater attrition rate than majority students Demographic information shows that the minority population in the United States is growing at a faster rate than the majority It is imperative that educational institutions find ways to help improve retention rates for all students but particularly minority students Retention rates should not differ appreciably among different racial ethnic groups The Journal of College Student Retention Research Theory and Practice is the only scholarly peer reviewed journal devoted solely to college student retention It has published many articles on minority student retention and this topic continues to garner much attention This book is a compilation of the very best of these articles selected on the basis of reviews by a cadre of experts in the education field The articles discuss African American Latino Latina Asian and Asian Pacific Native American and biracial students and institutional commitments to retaining a diverse student population For those interested in this vital area the collection will teach and inspire them to achieve greater heights and pay additional attention to retaining minority students in our colleges and universities

The Routledge International Companion to Multicultural Education James A. Banks, 2009-09-10 This volume is the first authoritative reference work to provide a truly comprehensive international description and analysis of multicultural education around the world It is organized around key concepts and uses case studies from various nations in different parts of the world to exemplify and illustrate the concepts Case studies are from many nations including the United States the United Kingdom Canada Australia France Germany Spain Norway Bulgaria Russia South Africa Japan China India New Zealand Malaysia Singapore Indonesia Brazil and Mexico Two chapters focus on regions Latin America and the French speaking nations in Africa The book is divided into ten sections covering theory and research pertaining to curriculum reform immigration and citizenship language religion and the education of ethnic and cultural minority groups among other topics With fortynewly commissioned pieces written by a prestigious group of internationally renowned scholars The Routledge International Companion to Multicultural Education provides the definitive statement on the state of multicultural education and on its possibilities for the future      Refugee Women, Representation and Education Melinda McPherson,2014-10-07 Even with increased attention to refugee women s issues in the late 20th century post colonial discourses have nurtured limiting representations of refugee women predominantly as subjects of charity and as victims Adding to a growing body of work in the field the author challenges this preconception by offering an opportunity for women s voices      The Palgrave Handbook on Critical Theories of Education Ali A. Abdi,Greg William Misiaszek,2022-09-13 This handbook brings together a range of global perspectives in the field of critical studies in education to illuminate multiple ways of knowing learning and teaching for social wellbeing justice and sustainability The handbook covers areas such as critical thought systems of education critical race and racialization theories of education critical international global citizenship education and critical studies in education and literacy studies In each section the chapter authors illuminate the current state of the field and probe more inclusive ways to achieve multicentric knowledge and learning possibilities      Asian Perspectives on Teacher Education Shin'ichi Suzuki,Edward R. Howe,2013-09-13 Research into teacher education is dominated by Anglophone literature with the inevitable result that teacher education in non English speaking regions of the world largely remains unexamined This book fills the gap in the existing literature and comprises twelve invited contributions from an international panel of educationists To provide the reader with a clear structure the book offers a detailed introduction and afterword which brings together the various themes examined in each chapter The contributions offer perspectives on teacher education in the Asian region perspectives which until now have been missing from contemporary debate on teacher education Presenting research from Australia Japan the USA the People s Republic of China the Republic of Korea and Vietnam this book examines the varied situations teacher educators experience in their own countries in so doing the researchers identify resonances and dissonances in comparison with the dominant Anglophone research literature on the same subjects This book is an important contribution to the comparative study of teacher education in the first decade of the twenty first century giving a voice to an important sector of the international community of teacher educators This book was published as a special issue of Journal of Education for Teaching International research and pedagogy      Citizenship in Diverse Societies Will Kymlicka,Wayne Norman,2000-03-16 Is it possible in a modern pluralistic society to promote common bonds of citizenship while at the same time accommodating and showing respect for ethnocultural diversity Citizenship and diversity have been two of the major topics of debate in both democratic politics and political theory over the past decade Much has been written about the importance of citizenship civic identities and civic virtues for the functioning of liberal democracies and the need to accommodate the ethnocultural linguistic and religious pluralism that is a fact of life in most modern states By and large however these two topics have been largely discussed in mutual isolation Much of the writing on the issues of both citizenship and diversity remains rather abstract and general and disconnected from the specific issues of public policy and institutional design Citizenship in Diverse Societies examines the specific points of conflict and convergence between concerns for citizenship and diversity in democratic societies and reassesses and refines existing theories of diverse citizenship by examining these theories in the light of actual practices and policies of pluralistic democracies
