Defending the Gospel in Legal Style John Warwick Montgomery, 2017-10-25 Traditional apologetics is either focused on obscure quasi Thomist philosophical arguments for God s existence or on 18th century style answers to alleged biblical contradictions But a new approach has recently entered the picture the juridical defence of historic Christian faith with its particular concern for demonstrating Jesus s deity and saving work for humankind The undisputed leader of this movement is John Warwick Montgomery emeritus professor of law and humanities University of Bedfordshire England and director International Academy of Apologetics Evangelism and Human Rights Strasbourg France His latest book of more than sixty published during his career shows the strength of legal apologetics its arguments drawn from secular legal reasoning can be rejected only at the cost of jettisoning the legal system itself on which every civilised society depends for its very existence The present work also includes theological essays on vital topics of the day characterised by the author s well known humour and skill for lucid communication

Making Bible Study Formal Stephen Wuest, 2020-01-16 Making Bible Study Formal By Stephen Wuest Making Bible Study Formal is aimed at conservative Christians aggressive readers and those who have an interest in catechism in Christian congregations It is an exploration of how formal reasoning can be incorporated into Bible study and apologetics Although author Stephen Wuest focuses on formal reasoning he points to a wide horizon of intellectual disciplines that Christians have historically integrated into their faith

Freedom Unlimited Jeffrey S. Hocking, 2010-10-18 This volume deals with the varied forms of shame reflected in biblical theological psychological and anthropological sources Although traditional theology and church practice concentrate on providing forgiveness for shameful behavior recent scholarship has discovered the crucial relevance of social shame evoked by mental status adversity slavery abuse illness grief and defeat Anthropologists sociologists and psychologists have discovered that unresolved social shame is related to racial and social prejudice to bullying crime genocide narcissism post traumatic stress and other forms of toxic behavior Eleven leaders in this research participated in a conference on The Shame Factor sponsored by St Mark s United Methodist Church in Lincoln NE in October 2010 Their essays explore the impact and the transformation of shame in a variety of arenas comprising in this volume a unique and innovative resource for contemporary religion therapy ethics and social analysis
