Nasser in the Egyptian Imaginary Omar Khalifah, 2016-10-27 The late President of Egypt Gamal Abdel Nasser 1918-1970 has been represented in many major works of Egyptian literature and film and continues to have a presence in everyday life and discourse in the country Omar Khalifah's analysis of these representations focuses on how the historical character of Nasser has emerged in the Egyptian imaginary He explores the recurrent images of Nasser in literature and film and shows how Nasser constitutes a perfect site for plural interpretations He argues that Nasser has become a rhetorical device a figure of speech a trope that connotes specific images constantly invoked whenever he is mentioned His study makes a case for literature and art to be seen as alternative archives that question erase distort and add to the official history of Nasser

The Mirage Naguib Mahfouz, 2012-02-14 A stunning example of Nobel Prize winning Egyptian author Naguib Mahfouz's psychological portraiture The Mirage is the story of an intense young man who has been so dominated by his mother that her death sets him dangerously adrift in a world he cannot manage alone Kamil Ru'ba is a tortured soul who hopes that writing the story of his life will help him gain control of it Raised by a mother who fled her abusive husband and became overbearingly possessive and protective toward her young son he has long been isolated emotionally and physically Now in his twenties Kamil seeks to escape her posthumous grasp Finding and successfully courting the woman of his dreams seems to promise salvation until his ignorance of mature love and his fear and jealousy lead to tragedy The Harafish Naguib Mahfouz, 2016-06-15 Winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1988 Naguib Mahfouz is perhaps the best known living Arab writer His books have had great success in this country particularly The Cairo Trilogy Fans of the famed trilogy will be delighted with The Harafish an epic novel that chronicles the dramatic history of the al Nagi family a family that moves over many generations from the height of power and glory to the depths of decadence and decay The Harafish begins with the tale of Ashur al Nagi a man who grows from humble beginnings to become a great leader a legend among his people Generation after generation however Ashur's descendants grow further from his legendary example They lose touch with their origins as they amass and then squander large fortunes marry prostitutes when they marry at all and develop rivalries that end in death The community's upper class keeps a watchful eye on the descendants of al Nagi for fear of losing their privileges but they find no threat of another such as Ashur Not that is until the al Nagi who like his noble ancestor finds his power once again from among The Harafish or the common people Through the strength of their numbers and their passion the glory of the name of al Nagi is restored Of all Mahfouz's experiments in recent decades this is the one which owes least to western inspiration and is probably the most successful The Harafish fluently translated by Catherine Cobham makes accessible and engrossing reading The Washington Post Book World Children of the Alley Naguib Mahfouz, 2016-06-15 The tumultuous alley of this rich and intricate novel first published in Arabic in 1959 is inhabited by a delightful Egyptian family but is also the setting for a second hidden and more daring narrative the spiritual history of humankind The men and women of a modern Cairo neighborhood unwittingly reenact the lives of their holy ancestors from the feudal lord who disowns one son for diabolical pride and puts another to the test to the savior of a succeeding generation who frees his people from bondage This powerful novel confirms again the richness and variety of Mahfouz's storytelling and his status as the single most important writer in modern Arabic literature Newsweek The Time and the Place Naguib Mahfouz, 2016-06-15 Selected and translated by the distinguished scholar Denys Johnson Davies these stories have all the celebrated and distinctive characters and qualities found in Mahfouz's novels The denizens of the dark narrow alleyways of Cairo who struggle to survive the poverty melancholy ruminations on death experiments with the supernatural and witty excursions into Cairene middle class life The Beginning and the End Naguib Mahfouz, 2016-06-15 First published in 1956 this is a powerful portrayal of a middle class Egyptian family confronted by material moral and spiritual problems during World War II
