Co Education In Islam:

Islam, Education and Radicalism in Indonesia Tim Lindsey, Jamhari Makruf, Helen Pausacker, 2023-02-24 This book explores the connections between traditional Islamic education rising religious intolerance religious attitudes to gender campaigns for curricula innovation and modernisation and politics and society in Indonesia Drawing on extensive original research and the deep experience of the authors the book highlights tensions between traditional Islamic educators and modernisers and between different understandings of Islam emphasising the importance of these issues for the future of Indonesia

Madrasas and the Making of Islamic Womanhood Hem Borker, 2018-06-26 This in depth ethnography looks at the everyday lives of Muslim students in a girls madrasa in India Highlighting the ambiguities between the students espousal of madrasa norms and everyday practice Borker illustrates how young Muslim girls tactically invoke the virtues of safety modesty and piety learnt in the madrasa to reconfigure normative social expectations around marriage education and employment Amongst the few ethnographies on girls madrasas in India this volume focuses on unfolding of young women s lives as they journey from their home to madrasa and beyond and thereby problematizes the idealized and coherent notions of piety presented by anthropological literature on female participation in Islamic piety projects The author uses ethnographic portraits to introduce us to an array of students many of whom find their aspirational horizon expanded as a result of the madrasa experience Such stories challenge the dominant media s representations of madrasas as outmoded religious institutions Further the author illustrates how the processes of learning unlearning and alternate visions of the future emerge as an unanticipated consequence of young women s engagement with madrasa education

Islam and Politics in the Middle East Mark Tessler, 2015-06-22 Some of the most pressing questions in the Middle East and North Africa today revolve around the proper place of Islamic institutions and authorities in governance and political affairs Drawing on data from 42 surveys carried out in fifteen countries between 1988 and 2011 representing the opinions of more than 60 000 men and women this study investigates the reasons that some individuals support a central role for Islam in government while others favor a separation of religion and politics Utilizing his newly constructed Carnegie Middle East Governance and Islam Dataset which has been placed in the public domain for use by other researchers Mark Tessler formulates and tests hypotheses about the views held by ordinary citizens offering insights into the individual and country level factors that shape attitudes toward political Islam

Women, Education, and Science within the Arab-Islamic Socio-Cultural History Zakia Belhachmi, 2008-01-01 From a rationale of multiculturalism and a based on systemic approach grounded in the Arab Islamic tradition this book integrates history education science and feminism to understand the implications of culture in social change cultural identity and cultural exchange Dr Belhachmi s praxis maintains the relationship between socio political movements and their corollary scientific movements to explain women s role in social change of the Arab Islamic world thus linking the region s past and the present in a historical continuum In one masterful move she immediately engages into a discovery journey of the 13 century old Arab Islamic socio cultural and intellectual history thus exploring the independent Arab Islamic Worldview of development modernism science education and discusses the corollary socio political and reform movements that integrated women in the region s governance over time Thus she not only highlights women s involvement in social change as a recurrent cyclical phenomenon in the region but also chronicles the women led independent 120 years of Arab Islamic feminist science Above all Dr Belhachmi offers an innovative operational three levelled model of analysis of education and feminist practice that reconciles particularism and universalism and yields to systemic analyses of women in education cross culturally In doing so the book shifts focus from the woman s question into the more radical issues of women s science in the Arab Islamic culture illustrating with the work of al Sa dawī Egypt and Mernissi Morocco As such this study is both a groundbreaking epistemological study on the role Arab Muslim women and social change over time and an essential textbook on women in contemporary Arab Islamic education and social sciences In a tour de force Dr Belhachmi reclaims Arab Islamic feminist scientific legacy as organic to the region s institutional memory and its collective cultural reference while restoring to Arab Muslim women feminists including herself their epistemic space within the contemporary multi discursive practice space of international feminism thus offering us a timely pioneering book on Arab Islamic feminist epistemology Equally she provides us with a new scientific framework for self representation and cultural exchange much needed both in international education and a new feminist international order In brief this is an original scholarly work that provides us with creative empowerment methods qualitative methodologies and holistic conceptual tools thus enabling us to re think our rapport to knowledge and the place of knowledge itself and how its related research strategies can move us beyond the pitfalls of cultural relativism and scientism As such this is an invaluable addition to the literature on the Middle East and North Africa region MENA that will benefit the layman tremendously and a must reference for specialists and students alike

The Different aspects of Islamic culture Ali, Abdulrahim, Thiam, Iba Der, Talib, Yusof A., 2016-10-17 This series of volumes on the manifold facets of Islamic culture is intended to acquaint a very wide public with the theological bases of its faith the status of the individual and of society in the Islamic world its expansion since the Revelation its cultural manifestations in literature and the arts and finally Islam today between loyalty to its past and the new challenges of modernity The last 100 years of Islamic history are examined in the final volume although the approach is thematic rather than historical The period considered has seen European colonialism in most of the Islamic world and Islam has played a major role in the initiation and organization of resistance movements We survey the groupings and forms of co operation that have arisen since liberation from colonialism and investigate the political necessity and the moral stand that underlie the unity of the Islamic peoples. Social and economic progress is reviewed and space is devoted to such topics as the ongoing problem of Palestine moves towards educational reform and the status of women in Islam. As the Islamic world cannot be imagined in isolation, this volume examines the attitude of contemporary Islam towards other religions and cultures and considers efforts aimed at achieving mutual understanding and coexistence in both Muslim and non-Muslim countries.

The Struggle of Islam in Modern Indonesia B.J. Bolland, 2014-10-22 Regional and national history

Woman's Status & Islam Sabir Ali Khan Tahirkheli, 2016-09 Some critics are regularly propagating the impression that Islam usurped the rights of women and imposed restrictions on their freedom. This propaganda appears to be serving its purpose and some Muslim women are easily influenced by this misconception. They feel that their rights are less than western women. This is definitely incorrect. Due to above reasons some Muslim women who are not yet aware of their real rights in Islamic society stand up and join such negative sponsored movements. They either voice their demands for freedom equal to western women or start feeling psychological backwardness. This depressive impression has absolutely no basis. Muslim women in actual sense have better rights. Some of them are of course easily misguided. But if this situation is thoroughly studied it would transpire that such misguided women alone are not responsible for this state of affairs.

Islam, Religions, and Pluralism in Europe Ednan Aslan, Ranja Ebrahim, Marcia Hermansen, 2016-04-13 Religious and ethnic diversity have become crucial and pressing concerns in Europe. In particular the presence of Muslims, their integration, citizenship and how to deal with the influx of refugees. Can we draw on the resources of religions and their leaders for models of peaceful coexistence or do religious identities constitute obstacles to cooperation and unity. This volume treats Islam, Religions and Pluralism in Europe based on a 2014 conference in Montenegro. Experts analyze Islam and Muslim issues as well as Christian perspectives and state social policies. Case studies drawn from Western and Eastern Europe including the Balkans constructively review and interrogate diverse theological, philosophical, pedagogical, legal and political models and strategies that deal with pluralism.

Islam in the Era of Globalization Johan Meuleman, 2005-09-30 Globalization, modernity and identity are fundamental issues in contemporary Islam and Islamic Studies. This collection of essays reflects the wide diversity that characterises contemporary Islamic Studies. The case studies cover regions stretching from China and Southeast Asia to diaspora communities in the Caribbean and Tajikistan. There is significant participation of intellectual voices from all areas concerned, providing a real contribution to the academic exchange between the Muslim and the Euro-American worlds.

The Role of Islam in the Legal System of Pakistan Martin Lau, 2006 Starting in 1947 this volume examines the way Pakistani judges have dealt with the controversial issue of Islam in the past 50 years. The book's focus on reported case law offers a new perspective on the Islamisation of Pakistan's legal system in which Islam emerges as more than just a challenge to Western conceptions of human rights.

Education, Leadership and Islam Saeeda Shah, 2015-07-03 Educational institutions are undergoing complex and sensitive changes in the context of immigration international mobility globalisation and shifting economic scenarios making highly challenging demands on educational leaders Leadership is increasingly being perceived and theorised as pivotal to students achievement and institutional performance In this book Saeeda Shah considers educational leadership from an Islamic perspective to debate theoretical positions underpinned by Islamic texts and teachings and the resulting conceptualisations and interpretations While educational leadership literature and research have flourished in recent years this is predominantly informed by Western ideologies concepts theories and practices Education Leadership and Islam focuses on contemporary educational settings and practices drawing on research and empirical evidence from multicultural contexts in order to enrich theory and inform policy and practice in relevant frameworks particularly in relation to the growing Muslim population in the West Chapters also discuss gender in Islam educational expectations and Islamic faith schools to comprehensively explore education in relation to Islamism Situating Muslims within contemporary societies this book extends debates regarding educational philosophy and leadership endorsing diversity and plurality through an appreciation of difference Education Leadership and Islam will appeal to education researchers as well as social and political scientists attempting to understand Muslim educational issues in contemporary life both in the east and in the west This book offers critical insight into educational theory and practice and as such will be key reading for policy makers and educational leaders

The Concept, 1982 Islam and the Limits of the State R. Michael Feener, David Kloos, Annemarie Samuels, 2015-10-27 This book examines the complex relationships between the state state implementation of Shari'a and diverse lived realities of everyday Islam in contemporary Aceh Indonesia Muslim Women (RLE Women and Religion) Freda Hussain, 2020-07-26 The history of Islam and the changing role performance of Muslim women given the various interpretations of the belief system of Islam are described It is the contention of the authors that it is these various interpretations which have given rise to the conflict between the ideal and contextual realities This book also includes papers which investigate the problems of feminism and employment for Muslim women as well as the educational and legal aspects of their lives in contemporary Islamic society First published in 1984 Routledge Library Editions: Women and Religion Various, 2022-07-30 RLE Women and Religion gathers in one place a collection of previously out of print titles from a variety of historic imprints Encompassing a range of experiences the set provides an essential reference source on some of the key points in the field of women and religion Islamic Education and the Public Sphere Florian Pohl, Islam and Women's Income Farah Chowdhury, 2016-12-01 This book examines the interrelationship between law culture patriarchy and religion in the context of contemporary Bangladesh It explores the role of Islam in society and politics generally and its influence on gender equality in particular The work focuses on the situation of married women Taking a socio legal approach it analyses the changing nature of the dowry practice and its relation to women's increasing paid labour force activity Despite anti dowry legislation it is argued here that the dowry system continues in the form of the appropriation of wives income The work calls for legal recognition of this action and the amendment of the Dowry Prohibition Act 1980 as a result of the changing social realities that are taking place in the lives of Bangladeshi women. An Islamic approach is applied to equality between men and women in addressing and analysing these issues. The book includes international comparisons on gender equality and discusses the role of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW) as well as the dowry system in South Asia. The book will be of interest to academics and researchers working in the areas of law and religion, gender studies and international development.

Electoral Participation of Muslim Women in India

Vasundhara Mohan, 2018-01-01. The aim of the research was to study the status of political participation of Muslim women in two culturally different settings in the States of Karnataka in the South and Uttar Pradesh in the North and understand the views of the Muslim community on religious restrictions if any on the political participation of Muslim women. Do the Indian Muslim women have political aspirations? Do they fight elections as nominees of political parties or as independents? While the political participation of Indian women per se has been extensively studied, the status of Muslim women has not received much attention. This study is based on extensive fieldwork in 9 districts of Uttar Pradesh and 6 districts of Karnataka. Besides over 200 individual Muslim women, the views of a number of Islamic scholars, Muslim academicians, professional and students were collected in the form of written replies to questionnaire and during the course of personal interviews.

Woman's Identity and Rethinking the Hadith Nimat Hafez Barazangi, 2016-03-09. The Prophet Muhammad's reported traditions have evolved significantly to affect the social, cultural and political lives of all Muslims. Though centuries of scholarship were spent on the authentication and trustworthiness of the narrators, there has been less study focused on the contents of these narratives known as Hadith or Sunnah and their corroboration by the Qur'an. This book is a first step in a comprehensive attempt to contrast Hadith with the Qur'an in order to uncover some of the unjust practices by Muslims concerning women and gender issues. Using specific examples, the author helps the reader appreciate and understand the magnitude of the problem. It is argued that the human rights and the human development of Muslim women will not progress in a meaningful and sustainable manner until the Hadith is re-examined in a fresh new approach from within the Islamic framework, shifting the discourse in understanding Islam from a dogmatic religious law to a religious-moral-rational worldview. The author argues that such re-examination requires the involvement of women in order to affirm their authority in exegetical and practical leadership within Muslim societies and she encourages Muslim women to stand up for their rights to effect change in understanding the role of sunnah in their own life.
