Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm, James Louis Garvin, 1926     Letters to His Children from an Uncommon
Attorney David Roberts, 2014-08-22 This memoir was inspired by the author's daughter. He would tell her stories about incidents in his life so she persuaded him to write them down. You must write all this down, Dad, so they can be read by your grandchildren. And you must get on with it before you die. Some stories are brief, half a page; others are long, twelve pages. It is the sort of book to keep by the bedside and dip into one story at a time. Some stories cover events that occurred when the author was a small boy growing up in England during the war. Some cover incidents while he and his wife were travelling in China, Japan, France, in Canada and in other odd places; events that occurred in the neighbourhood in Caulfeild Cove where he and his wife have lived for fifty-two years. There are pieces about Haida Gwaii and some about his experiences practising law. The stories range from the funny to the harrowing.

Later Letters of John Stuart Mill 1849-1873 John Stuart Mill, 1972-12-15 The Earlier Letters of John Stuart Mill published in two volumes in 1963 were well received by critics and scholars alike. The publication of these four volumes of later letters completes this edition of Mill's personal correspondence. These volumes contain over 1,800 letters, most never before published, and some sixty earlier letters that have come to light since the publication of the first two volumes of correspondence. The letters have been assembled from widely dispersed collections in the libraries of fifty-eight institutions and of some thirty private collections in Britain and in other countries of the Commonwealth, Europe and North America. In addition, many personal letters of which no originals survived have been located in contemporary periodicals or biographies of Mill's correspondence.

Letters to the Shanghai General Chamber of Commerce Ferdinand Freiherr von Richthofen, 1872     The Speeches and Public Letters Joseph Howe, 1858     Letters from Joe Jim Morrison, 2005-03-01

Johan S. Opheim, commonly known as Joe, was inducted into the U.S. Army just a few days before Pearl Harbor in World War II. Having grown up on the plains of Eastern Montana and having experienced the struggles of the Great Depression and challenging family situations, he was well prepared for the hardships he endured. He served with his fellow members of the 3rd Infantry Division in the Mediterranean theater, starting first with North Africa, then on to Sicily, then the Italian mainland, and eventually on to the South of France where he met his untimely death. He was remembered for his jovial attitude towards life and his intellect, the latter of which he did not have the opportunity to develop more fully. Relatives had saved 165 of his letters that he had written to them from the mid-1930s and up through his last campaign. The author has reprinted these letters and developed Joe's biography by filling in the gaps of information about his life, which includes comments regarding the contents of the letters and narratives about his travels and his unit's experiences.
