Information Sources in Law J.R. Winterton, Elizabeth M.

Moys, 2012-06-21 The aim of each volume of this series Guides to Information Sources is to reduce the time which needs to be spent on patient searching and to recommend the best starting point and sources most likely to yield the desired information. The criteria for selection provide a way into a subject to those new to the field and assists in identifying major new or possibly unexplored sources to those who already have some acquaintance with it. The series attempts to achieve evaluation through a careful selection of sources and through the comments provided on those sources. Criminal law between war and peace Stefano Manacorda, Adán Nieto Martín, 2009 If subjecting war to law is one of the most important legal achievements of the 20th century, progressing further in that direction is one of the most important challenges for the 21st century. The problems it poses are many: the term war has formally fallen into disuse and we talk about peacekeeping armies; today the product of cooperation between states and international organizations, private contractors increasingly participate in warlike activities as the case of the Iraq war demonstrates; and the lines between war and very serious forms of crime, terrorism, organized crime, are increasingly blurred. This volume compiles the contributions presented at XVth International Congress on Social Defence and tackle the criminal legal issues raised by these new scenarios. It constitutes an innovative volume gathering together the work of both academic and military authors who have drawn on their theoretical and practical experience. Catalogo Generale Della Libreria Italiana, 1910 Catalogo generale della libreria
