Sanctified Imagination Ivan L. Hartsfield, 2023-07-14 The first of its kind this seminal work charts the unlikely theological quest for Christian holiness by founder Charles Harrison Mason and the Wesleyan Holiness Pentecostal tradition known as the Church of God in Christ COGIC the largest Pentecostal denomination in the United States Through fresh research and critical analysis this book challenges existing assumptions by scholars and reveals how little known black renewal movements informed Mason's theological understanding and that of the movement The rich theological resources of this historically marginalized movement are not primarily accessible in academic journals position papers or theological treatises Instead these resources function as lived religion where the theological presuppositions are embedded in primitive worship ecstatic religious practices and countercultural distinctives By unpacking the lived religion of this self-professed sanctified church this book explores how sanctification and the practice of Christian holiness shaped and empowered the COGIC its people and its practices in creative and profound ways resulting in a radical holiness ethic that emerged from an inexhaustible exilic vitality with personal social and political implications Given the challenge of Christian nationalism today this book provides a framework that informs Christian identity and faithful living for the broader Christian community

Deacon Training Kate Ward-Turner, 2008-05 Indifference toward deacon development places the church in a precarious state By and large congregations stand to be weakened by deacons who have not discovered the exciting possibilities of the office When pastor and congregation disregard the need to have trained deacons the office is allowed to recede into one of mere honor rather than service established in Christ On the other hand trained deacons or those in training discover exciting opportunities with which the office of deacons is filled They come to perceive the office as one of service rather than honor The church is strengthened exceedingly by their effective and efficient leadership under the sight of the pastor Unquestionable God is looking for a special breed of deacons a New Testament breed who are Spirit-filled and qualified To say that deacons are qualified is to say also that they are trained for the work of deacons
